The Editor's column

By STUART R. PADDOCK

Half of the troubles that municipalities have with new subdivisions being wished upon them, could be avoided if the county board adopts the proposed changes in the minimum requirements for streets of all subdivisions in the county.

The builders are marshalling forces to oppose the change. In our estimation, the municipalities should also make themselves heard before a vote is taken by the county board.

An item in this week's news columns regarding burglar prevention carries the suggestion that reports of vacation plans should not be published in the local newspaper nor should they be broadcast to your neighbors.

This newspaper, upon request, is willing to withhold the information from the society column provided the residents tip us off when they return.

Keeping the vacation plans away from your neighbors is a horse of a different color. We cannot imagine any woman keeping quiet after Friend Husband has given the "OK" sign on that trip.

Rezoning requests are continuing at a rate so fast that planning commissions and village authorities become bleery-eyed in trying to safeguard their respective communities from unwanted developments.

A new one of 72 acres bobbed up this week in Wheeling township. It is not adjacent to any incorporated village but will add to the housing troubles of Prospect Heights school.

We sent a reporter to interview a member of the county board this week. It is charged that county officials are not very much interested in master plans of individual communities.

Has the sign, "come and get it" gone up in the county building?

A prominent farmer of this area gave us this week his viewpoint on the inroads being made on farm acreage by subdividers. He said, "It's progress, it can't be stopped and we should not criticize the newcomers whose only desire is to own a home in a good community. I have found many of the new residents are fine people.

"The farm owner should not complain; he is being offered good prices for his land; he has the opportunity at no financial loss to sell out and move to an area that is more to his liking."

He also considers the organization of a metropolitan sanitary district a must, saying, "The water and sewage problems have become too big for a single local community to handle."

Both Arlington Heights and Palatine residents should support the Firehouse Carnival being held this week in Rolling Meadows. The residents of that community have shown more than a passing interest in the affairs in the two communities.

Turn about is only fair play. Besides Rolling Meadows needs a firehouse.

Some people with money are always ready to buy at a bargain, but we never before heard of bargains being offered that allow the "buyer" to get the bargain and keep his money.

Palatine Savings and Loan Association is offering choice of 34 prizes to new depositors —and the prizes are big ones. A page advertisement in this issue tells the story.

Prospect Heights businessmen are demonstrating this week what a united business group can accomplish in advertising their business district as a shopping center. A whole section of 8 pages is being used.

It behooves business men today to put up a united front and Prospect Heights merchants are doing it.

A lot of credit is due Arlington Heights League of Women Voters for the hand book "Presenting Arlington Heights, the City of Good Neighbors" that makes its appearance this week from the press of Paddock Publications.

It will serve as an introduction for the newcomers to the city which they have elected to be their future home. It contains pertinent information about Arlingon that has not heretofore been available.

The book can be purchased for 25c each at Arlington Heights National Bank, or Arlington Federal Savings and Loan.

Over 50 years ago the late H. C. Paddock advocated the construction of an electric railroad between Roselle and Palatine. Buses have taken the place of electric transportation almost everywhere and a bus line is about to be authorized between those two villages via Hoffman Estates.

The ghost of the now extinct Palatine, Lake Zurich & Wauconda ry. has again arisen. Lake Zurich seeks to purchase as a highway, part of the old right-of-way of the road.

The ghost had enough life to merit a front page headline in a recent issue of the Waukegan News Sun. The resources of that railroad have been kicked around so many times we suggest that Lake Zurich just exercise squatter's rights.

AN EARLY ARRIVAL inconvenienced an Arlington Heights expectant mother Tuesday. Mrs. Wallace Lukas of Golf and State rds. was being rushed to the hospital by a neighbor, Mrs. Ellen Mansfield, when the baby was born at Lee and Algonquin sts., Des Plaines. After a Des Plaines nurse made the impromptu delivery, police escorted the mother and new son to the hospital. Shown here are police preparing to place her in the ambulance. —Suburban Times photo

Suburbs, County Clash On Role Of Plan Board

County OK Of Elk Grove Plat Sparks Fresh Controversy

by DICK DUNKEL, JR.

A long-standing argument between local and county governing bodies broke out anew this week.

Renewed were charges by local municipalities that county commissioners pay little attention to the wishes of local planning commissions.

The issue was spotlighted June 5 when the county board approved the Hatlen Heights plat located on the southwest corner of Audrey lane and Central road in Elk Grove township.

The plat falls within the mile and a half jurisdiction of the Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect planning commissions.

Both commissions had disapproved the plat.

The county board's action stirred up complaints that county commissioners are ignoring the work of local planning groups, groups in a better position to recognize local needs.

FRIDAY, county commissioner Charles F. Chapline assured Paddock Publications that recommendations of local planning commissions "carry a lot of weight" with the county board.

Tuesday, Frank M. Opeka, Mt. Prospect village attorney, told Paddock Publications that the county board is required by statute to act in accordance with the recommendation of local governments.

He added that Mt. Prospect will probably join with Arlington Heights to file suit against the recording of the Hatlen Heights plat with the county.

A plat must be recorded before the land may be sold.

THE HATLEN Heights plat, when brought before the County board, did not bear the signature of the chairmen of the Arlington Heights or Mt. Prospect planning commissions. A memo to this effect was stated at the County board meeting by the Map department, which had okayed the plat.

Opeka pointed out that this in itself was a violation of Mt. Prospect ordinance.

Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect and Palatine are among the area communities having local ordinances to the effect that subdividers must obtain approval of planning commission chairmen before submitting plats for county approval.

Since the Hatlen Heights plat did not carry planning commission okay, Opeka said, its owner violated local ordinance when bringing the plat before the County board. Opeka said the usual penalty for violation of this ordinance is a fine.

A test case as to the legality of such a local ordinance is now being heard in the state Supreme court. The municipality of Naperville is opposing a land owner in the case, with a final decision expected to be handed down in September.

COUNTY commissioner Chaplin, past president of Northbrook, said in his County building office Friday: "Local planning commission recommendations carry a lot of weight with the county board. The commissioners are aware that individual villages have individual problems best solved by conscientious local citizens voting as trustees or planning commission members. We always want to have their problems brought forcefully to our attention and we will always act as closely as possible to local wishes."

According to Opeka, it is the County board's duty to comply with the recommendations of local corporate authority. He sites Chapter 109, Paragraph 2 in the Illinois Revised statutes.

Subdivider Charles G. Reskins had a 120-home plat approved in December, 1955 by the County board. The villages of Palatine and Arlington Heights, within whose planning commission jurisditcion the plat falls, learned of the subdivision only when they saw the houses go up.

IN CHASTISING county officials for excepting the plat without Palatine's approval, Palatine mayor Howard I. Olsen wrote:

"We feel strongly that by-passing the Village in a situation like this is highly irregular and unethical, and perhaps illegal. At considerable expense and effort the Village of Palatine has made great strides in providing for orderly and proper growth of the community. Unless we are given the opportunity to carefully study new platting within our area the effectiveness of our Plan will be destroyed. Also, preserving that opportunity gives assurance that the Statutes of the State of Illinois are not being violated."

He Smiled, Village Didn't; Out Came Flowering Shrubs

Life in the suburbs has its little surprises for all who move out from the city but especially so for Robert A. Hillman.

A couple of months ago he moved into a beautiful new home on the corner of Highland and Kirchhoff in Arlington Heights. All it lacked was landscaping so he busied himself on 4 weekends in May, planting 90 dwarf Rose of Sharon bushes on his lot.

LAST WEEK—shortly after he had carefully patted down the last of the 90—he was called to the village hall.

"The bushes have to come out. They obstruct the view at the intersecton and they're planted on the parkway, which is village property" he was told.

Hillman smiled at first, suggesting that the 2-foot high bushes would obstruct the view only of midget drivers. Nor would they grow higher than 3 feet.

Village officals did not smile.

HILLMAN transplanted 23 of the shrubs last weekend and promised to move the rest.

Where are they going?

Harold Spellmeyer, 45, of Elgin, was booked on charges of leaving the scene of an accident and driving under the influence of liquor after he hit a utility pole at South and State in Arlington Heights Thursday.

Officer Robert W. Keslinke, cruising in the area, saw Spellmeyer drive away after striking the pole and gave chase. Catching him, he took him to the station where he failed to pass a drunkometer test.

IN THE SECOND accident of the week on S. State rd., Alex Meinke, 54, of 347 E. Parallel, Palatine, jumped the curb and ran into a no parking sign. He said his car was forced off road by another auto but police arrested him for damaging public property.

Inactive Zone Group Ready For 'Rebirth'

The Arlington Heights zoning commission will spring to life later this month after about a year of inactivity.

William F. Meyer, Jr., last month appointed to head the body, said this week that an organizational meeting will be held later this month. The commission has lacked a chairman for a year and has not met. Meyer was appointed in May by Mayor Goedge.

Meyer said that 1 member is in Europe this summer and that another member has not been heard from. A regular meeting will probably not be held until this fall, Meyer indicated.

THE 7-MAN commission was appointed in July, 1954 to revise the present zoning ordinance adopted in 1927 and since amended several times. Chairman Charles H. Wilson resigned last year shortly after the municipal elections. Six of the original 7 appointees are still on the commission, the other member, Robert E. Esbensen, 1415 E. Kensington rd., having been appointed in October, 1955.

The other 6 members are Chairman Meyer; village treasurer Richard A. Hendricksen, 1009 N. Patton ave.; Henry P. Wist, 837 S. Vail ave.; Clarence A. Hendricksen, 734 N. Belmont ave.; Matthew J. Brost, 605 E. Rockwell st., and John W. Anderson, 219 N. Lincoln ln.

Proclamation

Whereas, burglary is a hazard in our Village of Arlington Heights and over the nation; whereas burglary causes much loss of property, personal valuables, and in many instances bodily harm; and whereas the individual can take preventive measures to discourage the crime of burglary.

I, Albert W. Goedke, Mayor of Arlington Heights Ill. do therefore proclaim that the week of June 10th thru June 16th, 1956 be observed as Burglary Prevention Week. I ask all the citizens of Arlington Heights to aid and assist during this period and do all possible to discourage and prevent burglary, and loss from burglary, by taking the safety precautions recommended by the police department.

(Signed) Albert W. Goedke

First Carnival In Three Years

The American Legion will precent a 5-day carnival, first one in 3 years in Arlington Heights, starting June 30 through July 4. It will be held at the grounds near Beverly ln. and Kensington rd.

It will feature rides, ferris wheel, Tilt-a-whirl and Merry go round. There will be a parade on July 4 at 9:30 a. m. starting from the South school, with Great Lakes Training Band and Glenview Marines. After the parade, which terminates at Recreation park, the Kiwanis club will take over and have Kiddie Day with races and games.

Don Walsh, vice commander, is chairman of the affair. The post will accept contributions for fireworks display at Box 3, c/o Merle Guild Post, Arlington Hts.

Oldaker Is New Arlington High Board Member

Daryl B. Oldaker has been appointed member of the Arlington high school board of education to serve until the next regular board election.

He will fill the vacancy left by William Hartman who is moving to Indianapolis, Ind., to assume new duties as salesman for the Hamilton Watch co.

OLDAKER IS an attorney in the law department of the International Harvester company, 180 N. Michigan, Chicago. He has been with the International Harvester for 20 years.

He has been a member of the PTA of Mt. Prospect, a special committee appointed by the mayor of Mt. Prospect to review and recommemd the type of village government and a member of the boy scout troop No. 23 committee. He is now serving on the boy scout explorer post 23 committee.

HE LIVES AT 405 Can Dota, Mt. Prospect, and has 3 children: Jane, who will be in fourth grade next year; Bill, who will be a sophomore in high school; and Sue, who graduated from Arlington high school on June 7 and who will be attending DePauw university in Greencastle, Ind., next year.

Thief 'Strikes' Again On Local Bowling Alley

Arlington Bowling Lanes at 11 N. Vail was burglarized Thursday night for the second time in 9 days. Proprietor Edward A. Wolf discovered the loss of $100 when he entered the alleys Friday.

The first burglary over the Memorial day holiday resulted in the same loss.

OTHER ITEMS reported stolen to police during the past week were a radio-phonograph combination, from 633 Ironwood drive, a saxophone in a black case from Arlington junior high school and $63 from the Arlington Milk company.

Sunday Heat Breaks Record For Day Pool Attendance

Sunday's soaring temperature drove Arlington Heights youngsters to Recreation park pool in record numbers, reports Park Director Tom Thornton.

The new high of 2,450 persons using the pool in a single day tops by about 200 the previous record set in mid-July last year, he said.

Open day figures were much lower, only 1,564 attending Saturday.

SEASON TICKETS are still available at the fieldhouse.

Thornton said the record high number was handled without a single accident.

Next on the pool program are swim classes to start Monday with Instructors Bud Brune, Floyd Bruns, Doris Higby, Barbara Wilford, Sana Franke and Mrs. William Hall. Swim team try-outs will be held Saturday at 9 a. m.

REGISTRATION for other recreation programs has been high, according to Director Russ Attis.

Guild Adds $170 To Fund

Trinity Lutheran Women's Guild donated $170 to the church building fund at the last meeting of the Guild.

The guild has added over $500 to the fund during the past 6 months. The funds were raised through the bake sales. Appreciation was expressed by the group to the community for its support of guild projects.

Ho Hum, Here We Go Again; Sprinkling Ban In Effect

A ban on sprinkling between 4 and 9 p.m. daily went into effect in Arlington Heights Tuesday, to continue until further notice.

The ban was called by Mayor Albert Goedke after the sudden heat spell over the weekend caused water consumption to rise to abnormally high levels, lowering the water level in the 2 village reservoirs at 1 point to only 3 feet.

The village was not expected to have a water shorage this summer, but it does have one and it will continue until all 4 wells are back in operation.

"OVER THE weekend only 2 wells were working," explained public works Superintendent William W. Luehring. "Monday night at 11:30 we started the Douglas well up on a temporary basis. It added 1,000 gallons a minute to the 1,850 gallons supplied by the Kennicott and Ridge wells."

Luehring added, however, that it would probably be another 30 days before rehabilitation of the Chestnut st. well is completed. Delays on the Chestnut and Douglas st. wells, which were to have been pumping again by May 1, were due to the presence of large amounts of sand in the wells. It has to be laboriously baled out.

WATER PRESSURE was very low all over the village Sunday and for a short while some far north side homes could scarcely get a drop of water from the tap.

Arlington Park race track came to the rescue of the village during the height of the water shortage. Its well pumped into the village water mains 11 hours, 20 minutes Sunday and 8 hours Monday.

At the rate of 800 gallons a minute the race track furnished the village with approximately 928,000 gallons of water. This much water would have cost the householder, at the lowest retail rate of 20 cents per 1,000 gallons, about $180.

But the race track charged the village nothing.

By Tuesday night the water storage facilities of the village were half full, Luehring said. Sunday they were down to a level of 3 feet and had not Arlington Park's well been used, faucets would have run dry.

Thursday — 2,440,000.
Friday — 3,220,000.
Saturday — 3,350,000.
Sunday — 2,830,000 plus race track supply.
Monday — 2,490,000 plus race track supply.

With the reservoirs now again filled to capacity and 3 wells in operation, Luehring expects that water pressures will be somewhat better this weekend than last.

New Village In Elk Grove? Vote July 10

County Judge Kerner has approved a petition presented by Attorney Frank Opeka calling for a special election on the formation of Elk Grove village.

It will be held July 10 with the polling place in Elk Grove town hall.

THE PROPOSED village comprises about 700 acres and extends approximately from Arlington Heights road to Tonne rd. and from Higgins road to Devon ave.

A similar action by a group of farmers in Schaumburg township recently resulted in the formation of village of Schaumburg Center.

Consumers Co. Waiting For Village 'Guns'

There was still no indication this week when the battle will begin between the village of Arlington Heights and the Consumers co. on the issue of the "right" of the firm to operate a cement batching plant on Northwest highway.

ATTY. STEPHEN JURCO, special counsel for the village, said Monday that he has not yet filed an injunction suit to force the company to cease operating its Arlington plant. He added that he has no announcement at this time as to when the suit will be filed.

Jurco was retained to prepare a report on Consumers in the fall of 1955, after the village had been forced to back down on its attempt to force the firm to cease operations. May 1 he delivered his report to the village board with the opinion that the firm has no legal right to operate an industrial plant in a commercially-zoned area.

CONSUMERS CO. President H. A. Clark has protested attempts to evict the firm. He said that the company has gone "all the way" in trying to eliminate local complaints against the batching plant. He has estimated the value of Consumers' improvements and buildings in Arlington Heights at $100,000.

Jurco indicated that the suit would be filed in Superior court. The court could grant a temporary injunction immediately after the suit was filed, Jurco said.

Free X-Rays To Be Given Here

Free chest X-rays will be offered residents 15 years old and over, Thursday, June 21 when a mobile unit is parked at the village hall, 101 W. Davis street, Arlington Heights.

X-ray hours are from noon to 6 p.m.

The service is being sponsored by the Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis Sanitarium district in cooperation with the Christmas Seal-sponsored Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook county and municipal health departments.

The unit intended to serve as an adjunct to the routine community, industry, food handler and school surveys conducted in various parts of the year, is available primarily to persons needing large 14x17-inch X-rays for pre-employment, pre-marital, prenatal, and licensing purposes, or as follow-up to suspicious signs found in small-film surveys.

THE WANT ADS of Paddock Publications gained national honors over the weekend when the local papers copped second place in the contest sponsored by National Editorial Association. Winners were announced at the annual awards banquet in the Brown hotel in Louisville, Ky., Thursday night. The large volume of classifieds, plus effective presentation, typography and reproduction combined to give Paddock Publications its award.

This year's 177 awards in 16 divisions went to newspapers in 37 states. A record breaking total of 1,728 entries were involved. Featured speakers at the convention included Henry Shapiro, manager of Moscow bureau of UP for 15 years; Charles B. Shuman, president of American Farm Bureau Federation; and Dr. Kenneth McFarland, noted educator. Accepting the classified contest award was Bob Paddock.

Eastwood Events

Eastwood and its residents move smoothly into summertime about now. That last storm window is down and that final screen is up. That grass that looked so juicy and shiny a month ago is settling down to a faintly jaundiced once-a-week mowing job and there is a reddish glow spreading over the countenances of the palefaces on their reservations. The aphids are happily munching on the roses and the 17-year locust grows fat and bushy-tailed. The water pressure decreaseth and the mosquito knoweth not he is abated. The vacation season comes apace and the little darlings are home from school for the summer. The association simmers down until fall.

This reporter wants to print as many of the summer activities as as she can, but more than ever depends on readers contacting her. When vacationers get home and wish to tell of shooting a moose in Manitoba or seeing a bullfight in Mexico or getting chiggers in Elk Grove, they may call the number at the head of this column. Friends and neighbors enjoy it.

From Eastwood to Palatine last Monday went Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bosley and 14-month old son, Robert Lewis. From their home at 214 N. Dryden the left for a 3-week trip to the Smokies. When they return their new home will be ready for occupancy.

After this week the new address of Dick and Jean Barton with Michael, Mary Lee and Carol, will be 321 Windsor dr., Stonegate. They are leaving 218 N. Lincoln lane Friday. Last Thursday Jean was feted at a surprise luncheon by friends, Nita Barnes, Jean Rogers, Betty Cockrell and Eileen Anderson at Nita's home. Other guests were Vera Mell, Veronica Duderstadt, Laura Brinke, Mary Johnson, Eunice Behm, Laura Sailer, Nyna Hoym, Lou Larson and Lois Evans.

Proud parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Watson, 603 E. Euclid. Their son, Lee Watson Jr., was elected president of the National Honor society for the year ahead at Arlington Heights high school. Lee will be going to Northwestern university June 24 for a 5-week program sponsored by the National High School institute.

This Is Burglary Prevention Week In Arlington Heights!

Chief of Police Carl H. Skoog announced today that Mayor Albert W. Goedke has proclaimed the week of June 10 through 16 be observed as Burglary Prevention Week in Arlington Heights.

Chief Skoog pointed out, burglary is the one crime that always merits the attention of the Police Department. Experienced burglars know when to invade a house. It's up to the home owner to fool him by creating the impression someone is home, though the house may be empty.

MANY PEOPLE leave their homes for an evening, weekend, or vacation, and fail to take the simple precautions dictated by good common sense, Skoog reported. These citizens wouldn't think of leaving the front door open or hanging up a sign reading "Burglars Welcome—Nobody Home Here." Yet, they give all the indications necessary, such as newspapers piled at the front door, a totally dark house, or even worse, lights left burning 24 hours a day.

The Arlington Heights police officers know the results of such action—crime and more crime. Last year, there was a burglary about 1 1/8 minutes in this country. It's an alarming figure, but many can be prevented by following the simple precautions suggested by your police department when leaving for several days or longer.

1. DO LEAVE a lamp or two connected to an automatic timer to turn lights on and off regularly each evening. This makes the home 'lived-in' and is your best protective measure.

2. Do cancel all deliveries including milk, newspapers, etc. Have the post office or a neighbor hold your mail until you return.

3. Do close and lock all windows and doors, including basement, porch and garage. Remove keys from inside of doors and use double locks wherever possible.

4. Do have your lawn mowed and sidewalk swept by a neighbor at least once a week.

5. Do tell one neighbor you are leaving. Have them check your house periodically and notify the police if they see anyone prowling around.

6. Do notify your local police officials as to the date you are leaving and when you will return.

7. DON'T CLOSE blinds or draw shades, leave them as you normally do when you're home.

8. Don't leave valuables laying around the house. Place them in a safety deposit box.

9. Don't tell friends, neighbors, or work associates of the valuable possessions you have around the house.

10. Don't advertise your departure with an item in the paper and don't broadcast the news to your whole neighborhood.

Junior Hi Group Plans Outings, Elects Director

The 256 members of the 1956 graduating class of Arlington Hts. Junior high school received diplomas Friday night in ceremonies in the high school gym.

Superintendent Ralph E. Clabaugh presented the class to Board of Education President Victor L. Bedingfield, who in turn presented the diplomas.

Board members James E. Wood and Richard Johnston awarded the certificates to their daughter and son, respectively, members of the class.

THE PROGRAM consisted of selections by the public schools band under the direction of Harold Brunt, vocal numbers by the girls' chorus led by Miss Jean Reicherts and accompanied by John Lacina of the graduating class and 4 student speakers.

The speakers, Nancy McComb, Marilyn Nelson, Dianne Waterman and Betsy Creviston, were introduced by Linda Close, president of the student council. Ronald Barnes and William Spomer had been selected as alternate speakers.

The Rev. Paul L. Stumpf of First Presbyterian church offered the invocation, and Harold Slichenmyer, superintendent of the high school, welcomed the graduates to their new school. Martin Dahlberg of the high school music faculty played the electric organ for the processional and recessional.

IN PRESENTNG the class, Clabaugh remarked that all but 2 were present, one of those absent having a badly sprained ankle and the other a case of measles.

Parents, relatives and friends of the graduates filled the main floor, movable bleachers and much of the first balcony of the large gymnasium. Noted among the proud relatives in the audience was Kay Westfall of television fame.

The entire program proceeded extremely smoothly thanks to the efficient organization of Donald Grote, junior high school principal, and members of his staff.

Plan Commission Suggests Depot East Of Dryden

Arlington Heights plan commission at a recent meeting suggested that C. & N.W. be asked to remove its depot to Dryden ave. for the purpose of using vacant land east of that store between the railroad tracks and Fairview for community parking.

The chairman appointed as a committee William Hessler, chairman, Walter P. Stumpf and Leo J. Mueller to investigate the possibilities. Trustee Bishop reported to the committion that the village board was annexing the vacant subdivision east of Dryden between the railroad tracks and Central rd.

THE COMMISSION witheld approval of Hatlen units 3 and 4 until the desire of Mt. Prospect school or village board can be learned in the dedication of land for a school park or other purpose.

Inquiries were received by Major Goedke regarding the feasibility of helicopter service between Chicago and Arlington Heights. The committee appointed to study the matter is composed of Edward C. Wahl, Ira Parker and Harold E. Carlson. (AF

Tri Delt Delegates To Attend Convention

Mrs. E. W. Jones, 907 S. Hi-Lusi, Mt. Prospect, and Mrs. Arthur Vetter of Des Plaines will be among the 600 Tri Delta members attending the 68th anniversary convention of Delta Delta Delta at the Hotel del Coronado, Coronado, Cal. June 19-24.

Mrs. Wetter is publicity chairman for the convention and will also serve as delegate from the Chicago Northwest Suburban alliance of Tri Delta, of which she has been treasurer and publicity chairman for the past 2 years. Mrs. Jones serves the fraternity as district chairman, supervising alumnae activities in Illinois. Mrs. Jones left Mt. Prospect last week with her daughter, Casey, to visit friends in Santa Barbara before journeying to Coronado for the convention.

Mrs. Wetter, plans to travel to the convention June 17. A graduate of University of Tulsa, Mrs. Wetter was active in many college affairs. Following graduation she did radio writing and promotion work for NBC in Tulsa and after moving to the Chicago area, served on the promotion staff of Don McNeill's Breakfast club. For the past 2½ years she has been employed at Procon Inc. in Des Plaines.

Tri Delta supports a philanthropic program devoted principally to scholarships for women students. (Soc

Honor Elk Grove Pastor For 43 Years Of Service

Members of St. John Lutheran church in Elk Grove will gather Sunday to pay tribute to their pastor, the Rev. Ferdinand L. Gehrs, retiring soon after 43 years at the church.

A special 3 p. m. service will climax a career in which Rev. Gehrs has ministered to 3 generations of Elk Grove families. The Rev. J. E. A. Mueller, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran church in Mt. Prospect and a lifelong friend, will preach the farewell service.

Afterwards, women of the church will serve a supper.

REV. MUELLER, who first knew Rev. Gehrs when both were young pastors in the Dakotas 50-odd years ago, this week recalled several highlights of his colleague's career.

"One of his most forceful sermons to the members of his flock has been his own example of Christian family living," Rev. Mueller said.

"Of the 8 Gehrs children, 4 boys and 4 girls, 2 became ministers and 2 teachers," he added.

For 23 years the Elk Grove pastor served as secretary of the Northern Illinois district of the Missouri Synod, Lutheran church.

REV. F. L. GEHRS

St. John's is the oldest Lutheran congregation in the area, having been founded in 1848 by immigrant German farmers who fled the terror that spread across Europe after the revolution of that year. The first years in the new land were hard years, according to the pastor.

CHOLERA struck down many church members; many survivors moved westward in search of more fertile lands. The small remaining flock could not pay off the $50 debt on the 40 acres purchased adjacent to the present Golf rd.

Half of the 40 acres was sold. The remaining 20 acres still surround the spacious churchyard.

German hung on as the tongue spoken in the family circle and it was the 1920's before a regular English service was begun. By then, too, a log cabin church had been replaced by the present light-gray structure erected in the 1890's. The origins of the church persist, though, in the continuance of a weekly service in German to this day.

The Gehrs' 8 children and 22 grandchildren won't all be able to attend the farewell service Sunday. Distances to travel are too great and besides, Rev. Gehrs and his wife expect to visit their children after retirement. Last year they returned to Elk Grove for the couple's golden wedding anniversary. Two sons are ministers in North Dakota, where their father had his first pastorate after graduating from Concordia Theological seminary in St. Louis in 1903.

REV. GEHRS, who will retire in good health at the age of 75, said that he was stepping down as "53 years in the ministery is long enough." He and his wife and daughter Pauline will go to live with son Karl, a teacher in the Lutheran school at Lombard.

His wife's only regret is that they will have to leave the sparkling new parsonage into which they moved a year ago.

Before he leaves St. John, a picture-postcard church in its June setting of green fields, Rev. Gehrs has a very important task. He will officiate at the wedding of a young lady whose parents and grandparents he also married.

Even retirement will have to wait for this wedding.

YMCA Summer Program Starts In Two Weeks

The summer activities program at the Northwest Suburban YMCA will go into full swing in the next 2 weeks with a variety of recreation classes planned for boys and girls 8 through 14.

On the agenda for summer are riding classes for beginners and advanced horsemen, trips around Chicago and to Cubs' baseball games and instruction in tennis, swimming, archery, bowling and golf.

HERE IS the schedule:

Trips about town — Busses will take kids 8 through 12 on supervised tours to a candy company, a dairy, an aquarium, Brookfield and other points of interest beginning Monday, June 25.

Tennis —Classes for boys and girls 8 through 18 will be held at Maine high school under the direction of Allan C. Cavell, a tennis pro. Students will be divided into 2 age groups and must furnish their own racquets and balls. Classes lasting 8 weeks begin June 29. Boys and girls 8 to 13 play Fridays from 9:30 to 11 a.m. and from 14 through 18 from 10:30 until noon.

Archery — Classes for boys and girls 8 through 13 will be held on the Lee st. range (near Algonquin) in Des Plaines beginning June 28. Girls classes will be Thursday, 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. and boys' classes (also Thursday), 10:30 to 11:30 a.m., for 8 weeks. YMCA membership is the only fee.

RIDING — Transportation is available from the YMCA to the North Shore ranch in Northbrook for beginners' classes, Wednesday noon to 2 p.m. and for an advanced class, Friday noon to 2 p.m. Classes begin the week of June 25. Girls and boys 8 through 14 are eligible.

Swimming —Classes will be held at the Methodist Camp grounds pool Tuesday and Thursday beginning July 3 and continuing 6 weeks. A bus will stop at Rolling Meadows, Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect village halls and the YMCA office in Des Plaines each day Classes are for beginning and advanced swimmers 8 through 12.

GOLF — Boys and girls 10 through 14 are eligible for 6 weeks of classes to meet Tuesday 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., beginning June 26. Children can meet at Rob Roy course or the YMCA office.

Bowling — Classes for boys and girls 10 through 13 will be held at Beverly lanes in Arlington Heights. Transportation will be furnished from Des Plaines and Mt. Prospect. Classes are on Wednesday mornings, beginning June 27.

The YMCA office will furnish further information on registration and fees. (B7

Last C&NW Steam Train In Souvenir Finale June 24

by ART WILDHAGEN

The last steam passenger train over the Chicago and North Western Railroad will run June 24 only a few months short of 108 years since that railroad ran the city's first passenger train, Oct. 24, 1848.

The final train will be a special from Chicago to Milwaukee and return sponsored by the Illini Railroad Club of Champaign, and open to all railroad fans, picture fans, and others interested in a final ride behind the chugging and whistling iron horse.

THE TRIP has been named the "Iron Horse Finale." It will leave Chicago at 10 a.m. (CDT) and be back by 7 p.m., making numerous stops along the way for the picture fans, both still and movie, to get out and record its passage.

On the return trip the train will leave the main line at Lake Bluff to go over the freight cutoff through Des Plaines to Proviso Yard where the fans will have opportunity to inspect and photograph the railroad's last steam locomotives now stored there.

FOR THE BENEFIT of those who want to hear the engine — and get cinders in their hair — through open windows, old standard coaches will be in the train, and for other passengers, also air conditioned cars. Diner service will be operated by the sponsoring club.

Tickets now are on sale at the North Western station and at the C&NW city ticket office, 148 S. Clark st., and by mail from the Illini Railroad club's trip chairman, Maurice H. Klebolt, 305 S. Elm st., Champaign Ill.

THIS WILL BE the eighth trip sponsored by this club in either Central Illinois or the Chicago area. Last March 3 it sponsored the last electric train over the Illinois Terminal Railroad when that line discontinued passenger service. (G

Off To The Northwoods

Seventy members of the Northwest Suburban YMCA will spend the next 2 weeks swimming, fishing and in other camping activities in the northwoods of Wisconsin.

They will camp at Rodney Kroehler YMCA camp, about 8 miles from Hayward, Wisconsin. The boys, ranging in age from 9 to 16, will leave by train Sunday.

Ten more boys may be accomodated on the trip. If you are inttrested, call the Y at VAnderbile 4-4156.

Announce Major Change In Air Force Training

Sergeant Walter Mohnsen of the air force recruiting station, 620 Lee st., Des Plaines, announced this week that a major change has been made in the air force basic military training program.

The new change applies to men entering the air force for the first time and who are qualified for AF technical training schools.

AIRMEN scheduled to attend technical courses of 14 weeks duration and longer will be withdrawn from the basic training program after 4 weeks.

This accelerated program is designed to place airmen into technical schools in the shortest possible interval, to realize greater economy, and to achieve the 137-wing goal the air force has set for itself. (B7

Glenbard Expansion

Citizens of Glenbard high school district 87 gave overwhelming approval recently to a long range expansion plan for the district calling for the erection of a Glenbard East high school in Lombard, the addition of a new gym to the present Glenbard West in Glen Ellyn, and bonds totaling $4,760,000 to underwrite the program.

Each Has His Own Number, Chides U.S.

"To each his own" may be a worn-out expression. but when it comes to social security numbers its meaning is very clear, Julius Berman, northwest district social security manager said today.

When a person applies for a social security number, the government establishes an individual account which remains open as long as the person lives. Upon reaching age 65 or at death, the wages credited to the account are used in determining the benefits payable.

If a worker has more than one number, or if some of his wages are reported with no number at all, the amount of benefits payable to him or to his family may be adversely affected. Therefore, it is necessary that a worker have only one account number as long as he lives.

PERSONS seeking jobs will more than likely be asked to produce social security cards by their prospective employers. More than one job applicant has been turned down because he did not have his card when he applied for the job.

Berman urges local residents who have lost their cards or who have changed their names to apply for replacement cards bearing the same numbers at his office.

The northwest district office is located at 4255 Milwaukee ave., Chicago.

Village Approves Elevator Structure

Arlington Elevator company has been granted a permit to build a concrete block and face brick storage building to replace a present frame structure.

Before the village board would grant the permit when the matter was brought up at the last meeting. the board took steps to ascertain that issuance of the permit would not affect the proposed village injuuction suit against the Consumer company cement batching plant.

THE CONSUMERS company plant adjoins the Arlington Elevator plant on property between Northwest highway and the Chicago and North Western railway tracks opposite Chestnut street.

The building will measure 28 by 72 feet and have an exterior of Roman brick. Permit value is $6,000.

Volunteers Needed

Volunteer adult leaders are needed for girl scout and brownie day camp June 19 to 22 and June 26 to 29. Anyone who can help is asked to call Mrs. Beard at scout office at TAlcot 3-1282.

Bus transportation will be provided to most of the camp sites which are located in nearby forest preserves. Baby sitter service is provided on each camp site for under-age camper children and there is a small renumeration for counselor services. (A

Parley Hears Objections To County Zone Revisions

A special committee of the county board Thursday listened to objections to proposed changes in the minimum requirements for streets, curbs and gutters and sidewalks in subdivisions in unincorporated areas.

The new requirements change the width of streets from 20 feet to 34 feet and the roadway from a simple sealed surface to an 8-inch bound macadam roadbed with a 2-inch asphalt covering. The new requirements also require a curb and gutter.

Five-foot sidewalks of 5 inches of concrete and 12 inches in from the property line are also part of the proposed changes.

Sidney Robbins, vice president of the Homebuilders Association, one of the objectors, told the committee the wider streets would turn the residential areas into raceways.

"STREETS that wide are all right for arterial streets, but not for residential areas," he argued.

County highway Superintendent William J. Mortimer, replied that the requirement would merely assure more than 1 lane of traffic when cars were parked on both sides.

WILLIAM DEAN, representing the Hill Homes, Inc. developers of more than 1700 homes in Rolling Meadows, said in many cases his company had exceeded the minimum requirements. He said the new requirements were not flexible, adding that in many cases where his company had exceeded the minimum requirements, the residential area was unsuited for such improvements.

John J. Mortimer, representing the Palos Gardens Development Company complained of the cost

County board President Daniel Ryan took the objections under advisement saying that the board would discuss them with the highway department.

He said some of the requirements might be changed.

John Mackler, Chicago Heights, a member of the county board of commissioners, proposed the changes in the county subdivision code several months ago and Highway Superintendent Mortimer was directed to draft an ordinance.

Among those in favor of stricter regulations is Noble J. Puffer, county superintendent of schools, who has often called for construction of sidewalks in unincorporated areas.

Township highway commissioners also favor tougher rules for builders and one report has them seeking even more stringent requirements than have been proposed.

An observer familiar with county government predicted that because of builders' objections. the new proposals won't be approved for some time.

Accept Construction Bids For Prospect High School

Bids totaling $2,838,499 for construction of Prospect high school were accepted by the District 214 board of education Tuesday night. The only bids still to be accepted for the school to be built on Foundry road are for electrical, grading and painting work.

Bids on elecrical work were submitted but rejected as too high and the architect will revise the specifications.

Successful bidders, all from the Chicago area, were:

Ventilation, Reliable Sheet Metal Works, $116,121;

Plumbing, J. A. Julian co., $156,607;

Heating and refrigeration, J. A. Julian co., $307,144;

Underground sewer and water, George Hardin co., $43,697;

Sound system, Rich Sound Engineers, $17,930.

No action was taken at an earlier June 6 meeting because of numerous alternate bids. Several of the lower alternate bids were accepted Tuesday in order to keep construction costs within the estimate.

A total of 46 companies bid on all contracts, with 13 firms bidding on general construction and 12 on the ventilation contract. Board members were pleased at the large number of bidders and also on the final bids accepted.

Preliminary plans call for the new building to serve freshman and sophomore students.

CONSTRUCTION is 85 per cent completed on the addition to Arlington high school. Final plastering is finished on the second floor of the east wing and rough plastering has begun on the first floor.

Roof and masonry work is well along and will be all up in a few days. Remodeling has begun in the present building and superintendent H. L. Slickenmyer said that plans call for a larger health service room and study halls in the former basement library.

For next year a total of 36 new teachers will be hired, with 4 vacancies still unfilled. Of this number, 8 are replacements and 27 are additions to the faculty.

Forger, Please Note Bank Account Is Closed

A cautionus thief and check forger is causing a Rolling Meadows couple to groan when they open their monthly bank statements.

A year ago their checkbook was stolen while the wife was buying a season ticket at Palatine swimming pool. Two checks have been forged in their name since, the latest several weeks ago, and they don't learn of the forgeries until they get a bank statement.

One check for $4 was passed at Mandel's in Chicago; another for $40 was cashed at the Arlington Heights Currency Exchange recently. The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon E. Otto, 3604 S. Falcon court, has now cancelled the account but they fear that the forger, a woman, will keep at it. The checkbook is a long way from being empty.

'Public Housing' Small Part Of Authority's Job

(This is the third article in the current series appraising the first 10 years of the Cook county Housing authority.)

by TOM BRENNAN

All the homes built by the Cook county Housing authority in its first 10 years could be tucked into 1 corner of Rolling Meadows, with plenty of room left over for a shopping center.

This fact suggests that the housing authority has not become—as some suburbanites may have feared back when it was set up in 1946—a giant super-agency creating public housing projects on every vacant corner.

Public housing, by which is usually meant low-rent housing built with public funds, actually has lesser importance in the Authority's overall scheme than private housing.

THE FACT that only 187 units of public housing have been constructed compared to 291 privately - financed units demonstrates this.

The disparity between private and public housing is even more pronounced in units planned for the near future.

While a total of 222 units of public housing will go up at Chicago Heights and East Chicago Heights, some 1,620 units planned for these towns and Robbins will all be privately financed and built on land which the Authority has acquired.

Public housing is subsidized housing, with the federal government making up the difference between rents and the cost of operation and payment of construction bonds. In lieu of taxes the authority pays the county 10 per cent of rents on public housing.

Private housing produces direct benefits to the community, while those of public housing are intangible, though real.

In Robbins, for example, a section of blighted housing and farmland that formerly yielded $1,400 a year in taxes now contributes more than $17,000 a year to the community because the authority sold the land to a developer who built 114 homes.

RAYMOND E. NELSON, executive director of the Housing authority, explains new housing and blight prevention may produce even greater savings to taxpayers over the long run.

For slums require the expensive and frequent services of fire and police departments and social agencies. Also, a community which can stamp out blighted areas is more attractive to new business and industry.

Chicago Heights attracted the huge Ford stamping plant as the culmination of a town boosting drive that began with its slum clearance effort.

Yet more important than any of these benefits, believes Nelson, is the renewal of human dignity among those who are given decent housing for the first time.

As explained in previous articles, the northwest suburbs presently do not have seriously blighted areas.

Eyesores, yes, but rapidly expanding central business districts are in many cases wiping out old and deteriorated dwelings.

While incorporated areas of the northwest are in good shape, the unincorporated fringes around several towns, Palatine being perhaps the most noticeable, have a number of unsightly tumbledown homes.

Where such places exist, few new homes are built, streets and sewers never penetrate.

WHAT CAN be done about unincorporated areas?

Of course the township, as a legal unit of government, could ask the Housing authority to enter the picture.

Knowing the fading role of the township in government, this development is unlikely.

Secondly, the areas could be annexed, but probably the village wouldn't take them in.

Thirdly, and this seems the most practical course of action, residents and groups can be alert to the enforcement of county zoning and building ordinances.

Cleaning up blight and preventing its encroachment, like every other program seeking to build the right kind of community, must start at the "grass roots."

Mrs. Schuler Chosen To Head Presbyterian Vacation Bible School

Mrs. Jack H. Schuler, 815 N. Kennicott, Arlington Heights, has been chosen director of the First Presbyterian church vacation Bible school to be held starting June 18, according to Douglas Trout, minister of education at the local church. The school will be held for 2 weeks, daily, except Saturday and Sunday, from 9-11:30 a.m., and is open to all children age 4 through sixth grade, regardless of church affiliation.

Mrs. Schuler, who is beginning her second year as director, was superintendent of the cooperative church school held in 1955 with the Presbyterian, Methodist, Evangelical Reformed and Our Saviour Lutheran churches. A resident of Arlington Heights for 4 years, Mrs. Schuler was superintendent of the kindergarterian church school during 1953-54 and has been a member of the board of Christian education of the church for 1½ years. She is also a member of the Chancel choir and treasurer of circle 2 of the Women's association. Beginning in September 1956, Mrs. Schuler will assume the duties of secretary of the church school.

Mrs. Donald Neveu, head of the beginner's department for the church school, has chosen as teachers, Mrs. Ralph Ruthenberg, Mrs. Robert Vanek, Mrs. William Bledsoe, Mrs. Charles Opela and Miss Barbara Sandy. Mrs. R. D. Bradle, kindergarten head, has picked her staff to include Mrs. J. R. Hagerman, Mrs. Forrest Terry, Mrs. Raymond Kellogg, Mrs. Norman Tucker, Mrs. William Nightingale, Mrs. Richard McFarland and Mrs. George Wesler.

Primary department heads, Mrs. Elmer Zilen and Mrs. Enoch Jordan, have a staff including Mrs. Robert Spray, Mrs. Wayne Holloway, Mrs. Elizabeth Campbell and Mrs. Richard Mates. Also Mrs. Stanley Olson, Mrs. Kenneth Anderson, Mrs. W. H. Grismer Jr. and Alvin Popp Jr.

Mrs. Robert Phillips heads the junior department and her assistants include Mrs. James Wellman, Mrs. Robert Winter and Mrs. Daniel Domin. Handicraft is under the direction of Mrs. Jack Hosford with Mrs. Marie Morehouse and Mrs. John Vork as assistants.

Twenty-three other teachers and helpers will also assist in various departments during the 2-week school and Mrs. Earle Auge will be organist for the morning devotional programs.

Registration will be held Monday, June 18, at 9 a.m. at the church and all children in the community are urged to attend.

TWO LOCATIONS
RIGHT PRICES — GOOD SERVICE — BEST PRESCRIPTIONS — EXCLUSIVE PRODUCTS

Marian and I sat down the other night and listed some of the things we are offering to the people of Arlington Heights — because we feel the people of Arlington Heights deserve the best.

It has only been about six short years ago that we opened our first store — you people responded to the service we were offering — we were grateful then — we are grateful now. In order to show our appreciation we opened our second store — Harris Pharmacy, 20 S Dunton - again the response was overwhelming.

As this vicinity grows, it is our earnest desire to grow with it — to bring an up-to-date pharmacy — one that offers all the latest in PRESCRIPTIONS - LOTIONS - PERFUMES - SODA FOUNTAINS, etc. — a business that reflects the progress of this community.

Guess we could rattle on like this for hours — but, honestly, as we just glance back over what we said at the beginning, we just wonder if we are doing all we can to improve our service for our many wonderful customers. Any suggestions?

We hope all of you have had a chance to come into our new location on S. Dunton and visit us — we think it's quite nice — large self-service counters for shopping leisurely — and, say, our new store is now air conditioned for your comfort. Come in and see us soon.

BARNEY'S Bugle

by BARNEY ERICKSON

IT JUST OCCURRED to me, that our being in the business of cleaning and pressing clothes, we should take the time to explain our particular process to you, the customer. Inasmuch as we are proud of Dunton Court Cleaners and our methods of caring for your clothes, here is the low-down.

This MARTINIZING process is unquestionably the finest for any garment. It is not ASSEMBLY LINE CLEANING — each garment is handled individually — each garment is given a thorough pre-spot check before being cleaned. With this process we are equipped to handle the most delicate fabrics without the slightest harm.

So many people feel that it is not possible to do a good job in 1 hour — that is our specialty — 1 HOUR CLEANING. We invite you to compare our method with any other type (that takes 2 or 3 days) — the result will speak for itself.

I've been kicking around Arlington Heights and vicinity for a good number of years and I wouldn't recommend anything that I couldn't personally endorse.

Give us a try at your earliest convenience and let us clean your clothes FASTER and BETTER with our ONE HOUR MARTINIZING process. Watch our ads for our weekly specials.

To Commission Lutheran Missionary For Suburbs

The Rev. Edgar H. Behrens of Faith Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, will officiate Sunday afternoon, at the commissioning of Lutheran missionary for the Chicago area. The missionary is the Rev. Martin E. Marty of Chicago.

Mission board President, the Rev. Arthur Voss of Riverside, will serve as liturgist. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. O. A. Geiseman, S. T. D., of River Forest, whom Rev. Marty formerly assisted in the ministry.

REV MARTY will serve the Lutheran church—Missouri Synod through its English district. His work is to center in the area northwest of Chicago. He has begun surveying several areas of population growth and has been meeting with interested individuals with the purpose of establishing a new congregation.

In addition to his work in Grace Lutheran church, River Forest, he has served full or part-time in congregations in Washington, D. C., Westgate, Md. and Chicago. A graduate of Concordia seminary, St. Louis, he holds the S.T.M. degree from Chicago Lutheran seminary. During the past 2 years he was Divinity fellow at the University of Chicago and is a candidate for the doctorate in the history of Christianity in America.

The service begins at 4 p.m. (A

New Zone Pleas For Wheeling Township Land

The county board last week referred to the county zoning board for public hearing a request for a rezoning to a business district farmland on the north side of Rand road, one-half mile southeast of Wilke road in Wheeling township.

The half acre of property is owned by Wilbur Burandt, of Rural Route 3, Box 314, Palatine.

REZONING for a proposed new residential subdivision was also referred to the zoning board. The 72-acre tract involved, now zoned for farming, is on the northeast corner of Palatine and Buffalo Grove roads in Wheeling township.

The rezoning request comes from the LaSalle National Bank, in Chicago, which holds title to the land as trustee.

One other Wheeling township rezoning request was referred to the county zoning board.

It was from the La Salle National bank, for the rezoning from a farming to a business district of 2 acres located 200 feet west of River road and 1,780 feet south of Palatine road.

Doughnut Day In Suburbs Set For Friday

Little brown doughnuts — the paper variety —will be familiar items Friday, as suburban communities observe "Doughnut Day," the Salvation army's annual tag day.

From 7 a.m. to 4 p.m., 12,000 volunteers will man their posts and exchange the little doughnut-shaped tags for contributions dropped in their collection boxes. Goal of this year's campaign is $135,000.

THE FUNDS given to the Salvation army are used to support the program of widespread social services and emergency aid to persons in need. Last year the Salvation army helped more than 100,000 persons in the greater Chicago area without regard to color or religion. (B7

Baptist Choir Will Present Evening Cantata Sunday

Sunday evening, June 17, at 7 the choir of the First Baptist church of Arlington Heights will present its evening cantata in the township high school, 700 N. Ridge.

The program is an arrangement of the best-known antnems with a continuity script taken from the scriptures which will be narrated by the Rev. George I. Beckstrom. Directing will be R. J. Truelsen, choir director, with Mrs. Truelsen, minister of music at the organ.

Several guest soloists who are well known in the circles of sacred music will be featured throughout the program. Soprano soloists are Mrs. Vaughn Mason and Mrs. Elmer Fanstill; tenor soloists are Elmer Fanstill and Roy Truelsen with William Birchman singing the tenor offertory solo; bass guest is Judson Tyley.

"Our purpose is to tell a spiritual story in music, with words taken from the holy scriptures and those written by poets inspired by personal experiences," said Mr. Truelsen.

The choir and the congregation extend an invitation to the entire public as well as to families and friends. (A

307 Arlington Seniors Receive Diplomas June 7

The high school commencement program is one of the high points of the year when all school-public programs are considered, and this year's graduation of 307 seniors took place before a packed house, estimated at 3500 parents and friends of graduates in the spacious new gymnasium of the high school.

Rev. Paul Louis Stumpf, pastor o. the First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights, gave the invocation as soon as the class had completed the processional.

For the first time the class processional was organized into four lines in order to conserve the amount of time necessary for the processional and recessional.

MARTIN DAHLBERG of the music department staff was at the organ, playing the familiar "Pomp and Circumstance" of Elgar, and accompanying the high school A Cappella choir in two excellently chosen selections for such an occasion.

The high school seniors sang with the choir for the last time in "This is America" by Ralph Marryott, who formerly was director of music and organist at Rockefeller Chapel at the University of Chicago.

The second selection, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," performed with brass choir and percussion, was a Fred Waring selection in an arrangement by Roy Ringwald who has made many of Fred Waring's arrangements available for high school performances.

EDWARD ROGERS, president of the Class of 1956, presented the 4 speakers from the senior class who had been selected by competitive try-outs for this occasion. Frederick Steingraber took as his theme "The Crack in The Bell," which he expressed in part in these words: "It would be my wish tonight that each one of us here recognize this fact: that through education we can acquaint ourselves with the various freedoms. And with the acknowledgment of them (among them freedom of education) we can continue to develop and preserve new freedoms.

"If we do not subject ourselves to this educational process, we fail to recognize the freedoms available.

"If we cannot determine any freedoms to be of use to us, we can't in any manner develop and preserve additional freedom. In such a situation do the Chinese and Russian peoples now find themselves. . . . Just as education showed us our freedoms, also an educated society aware of the crack in its Liberty Bell, will pass on to posterity this beloved freedom of ours."

Kay Whitelaw expressed her thoughts on "Your Influence" with the following conclusion to her speech: "Since everyone of us influences someone else and we may never know we do, we have a job to do. What job? To make our lives—our actions, our beliefs—something good enough to be an influence. We want to be a good example at times when we know we are influencing, and since we always are, we must strive for better lives."

"TO THINE Own Self Be True" said Miss Lynn Heberling, stating, "Be true to yourself. Stand up proudly for what you believe. You are being true to yourself when you can face a problem squarely (whether it be of a moral, domestic, or religious nature) and see all the possible alternatives. Then choose the one which you feel in your heart is the right one."

Ann Carlson spoke on the subject of "Smiles," saying "A smile is man's gift to his fellow human being. It doesn't make any difference who gives a smile. There are no language, color, or religious barriers to a smile; for when you're smiling, the whole world smiles with you."

Superintendent H. L. Slichenmyer then presented the class of 1956 to Board President George Sheppard for the awarding of diplomas. In his brief but pertinent remarks Mr. Sheppard emphasized the importance of educational preparedness for the job ahead and lauded the class of 1956 for their high achievement in all phases of school life.

THE SUMMER will be but a breather for school officials in that with the graduating of 307 seniors preparations must be completed for the admission of more than 800 freshmen students this coming September.

Additional classroom facilities are expected to be completed in time to allow the school program to revert back to a single shift basis this fall. (ACM

Heights Junior Women Present 3rd Annual Nursing Scholarship

DARLENE ARNOLD

Arlington Heights Junior Womans club was again pleased to be able to award a nursing scholarship to a graduating student at Arlington Heights township high school. This is the third such scholarship the club has awarded through the school's scholarship committee.

This year's winner is Miss Darlene Arnold, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Arnold, 112 S. Elmhurst, Mt. Prospect. After careful consideration of all applicants the scholarship was awarded Miss Arnold on the basis of scholastic ability and character.

An honor student scholastically, Miss Arnold also participated in Science clubs and GAA. She was a member of Triple SSS in her third year, worked as an office guide and played in the school band. Miss Arnold's college preparatory course has enabled her to apply for entrance at Illinois Wesleyan university where she will not only receive a nursing certificate but a science degree as well.

Arlington Heights Junior Woman's club is proud to award its scholarship to a young woman who, they feel will become a credit to her community. The club is also grateful to the community for its support of club affairs which make all of the club's community, district and state philanthropic work possible.

Prospect Hts. School Site Still Undecided; Add Rooms

BULLETIN

County School Superintendent Nobel J. Puffer late Wednesday morning said that he is recommending that the addition to Prospect Heights school be built at the south end of the school grounds, 600 feet from the present school.

Prospect Heights school will definitely have 6 more classrooms and an all-purpose room by early fall, but early Wednesday there was no decision on the location of the $115,000 addition.

Up to the Monday night school board meeting, the school location was the south side of the school grounds, 600 feet from the present building.

But a suggestion that the addition be built at the west end of the building, facing Palatine road, resulted in a stalemate.

AS THERE were no strong feelings for either site, the question was put to Noble J. Puffer, county school superintendent. The board indicated it would abide by his decision.

The Palatine rd. site would save the school money by allowing for adjoining boiler rooms and by costing less to maintain, it was suggested. The addition could be attached to the present school but children in the addition's lower grades could have a separate, fenced - off playground, added Robert L. Chyrchel, board member who advocated the switch in location.

R. Dennis Malcolmson, introduced Monday night as the new school superintendent replacing resigned Hugh Kibbie, favored the south end location. He argued that educators place great value on complete separation of lower and upper grades.

ACTION was taken on first steps to letting out the building contract. The board voted to direct the building committee to enter into a contract with O. W. Potter and Sons to erect the addition for $115,000. Potter has said he can do the job in 90 days from shovel to school bell.

The board said that with $121,000 available, there may not be enough money left after the $115,000 bill is paid to furnish the school. (This $121,000 represents the maximum amount available under the 5 per cent of assessed valuation rule.)

The financial report of the district showed the fiscal year will close June 30 with about $2,400 left in the educational fund. To pay bills due from the building fund account, which is virtually exhausted, the board voted to sell an additional $3,000 in tax anticipation warrants. Warrants now total $56,000.

THE SCHOOL NURSE notified the board that she will be able to work only 1 day a week next year after October 1. However she will work daily in September setting up records for new pupils and training PTA women who assist in the health program.

A system will be begun to have a PTA driver-volunteer available to transport sick children on days when the nurse does not work. (ACM

Newcowers To Picinc At Deer Grove Saturday

Saturday, June 16, Newcomers club will meet for a picnic at Deer Grove at 5:30 P.M. All members, their husbands and friends are invited. Following the picnic, the party will adjourn to the Rathskeller in the Arlington House for dancing. More information may be obtained by calling Edna Rongner at CLearbrook 3-8728.

There is still room for more players in the golf tournament held Thursdays at 9 a.m. at Old Orchard golf club. Mrs. Robert Meyers, Cl-5-0469, may be called for information.

All newcomers to Arlington Heights are invited to join the club. They may call Mrs. Frederick Brooks, Cl-3-8602 for information. (A

Mother Study Groups Hold Membership Meeting

A joint membership meeting of the three mother study groups comprising the Northwest Suburban Unit of the Community Child Guidance Centers was hel at the home of the president, Mrs. Vicki Soltz, in Arlington Heights last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Madalen Riedler of Arlington Heights, treasurer of the group, addressed members and guests on the subject, "What the Mother Study Group Can Do for You." Mrs. Riedler stressed three main areas in which mothers can profit by attending other study sessions.

She pointed out that it will help mothers toward better relations with their children, through better understanding of their children, mothers can expect to have more reliable children and, thirdly, she suggested that all mothers could profit by the social relationship of such a group.

Mrs. Alice Ward of Mount Prospect, advisory member of the unit board was called on to give a description of a typical guidance center. Mrs Ward related some of the dramatically simple solutions to problems that have been pointed out to harassed parents during guidance center sessions. The local group hopes to have a demonstration session in Arlington Heights in the fall and a regular guidance center in operation by the early part of next year. This child guidance center would serve such suburbs as Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Barrington, Palatine, Des Plaines, Park Ridge and other nearby communities.

A card party in July and a shoeless dance in August, both at the Suburban Roller Rink are among the unit's summer fund-raising activities. (A

Al Wilcox Heads Village Theatre

Village Theatre of Arlington Heights has elected Alfred Wilcox president for 1956-57.

Other new officers are Ruth Raasch, vice-president; Barbara Belle, secretary; Robert J. Burke, treasurer; and Barbara Houskeeper and Robert Hutchinson, members of the board of directors. Robert Hawley, retiring president, is also a board member.

THE BOARD named Hutchinson chairman of the public relations committee with sub-committees as follows: Talent Bank promotion, Hawley and Alta Hutchinson; Publicity, Marge Down, chairman, Sally Opela, Marshall Moses; Patrons, Marian Malcolmson, chairman, Barbara Schneider, Dick Down and Mary Tindall.

Mrs. Rausch is talent bank chairman, with Harriet Smith and Mrs. Malcolmson on her committee. Playreading chairman is Bob Tindall with Kay Hawley, Maurice Geye and Tom Grisell assisting. Geye was reappointed technician.

CHAIRMAN of the financial committee is Burke, with Isabel [illegible] and Dennis Malcolmson as committee members and Anita [illegible] as liaison between the financial and public relations groups.

Randy Moses and Florence Combs are social chairmen, Jeanette Jenkins is historian and Ginny Bishop membership chairman.

At this same meeting the group also approved the selection of the playreading committee for next year's productions. They will be "Sabrina Fair" and "The Tender Trap," both recent Broadway successes.

Money-Makers Make Final Report

Mrs. John S. Flaherty, chairman of the ways and means committee, reports that the year's total net proceeds from the various PTA projects amount to $2708.65, a substantial sum which does credit not only to Mrs. Flaherty, but to the chairmen of the individual projects:

Round robin bridge, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Phillips; canasta round robin, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hasbach; Village Theatre play ("Harvey," sponsored by PTA), Mrs. Howard Wittenburg; boot and skate exchange, Mrs. Glenn Buckley; talent show (Winter Revue) Mrs. Robert H. Skamfer; book fair (from which all proceeds go to the school libraries), Mrs. Melvin Born; and the spring card party, Mrs. Herbert E. Conner.

Money received from these projects goes into the PTA treasury, and is expended for various budgetary requirements, including organizational expenses for program speakers, yearbook, state convention delegates, Christmas decorations for schools, refreshments at monthly meetings, and such items as printing, stationery, postage, et cetera.

Contributions to youth activities include the purchase of reflective tape to safeguard young bicycle riders, about 9 cents per member to the state fund for teacher scholarships, partial financing of the patrol boy's annual trip to the ball game and the picnic for auxiliary girls, plus funds donated to 8 girl scout troops, 4 cub scout packs, 2 bluebird troops, and boy scout troop 57, formed last year. Serving equipment for the various schools is also purchased from PTA funds.

Surplus To Go To Film Library

Each year surplus funds in the PTA treasury are allocated so that nothing is left over from year to year except a small amount needed for the teachers' breakfast in the fall and the room mothers' teas.

This year's surplus, between $1300 and $1400, has been earmarked for the establishment of a film library to be used by all the schools. By having the films readily available, teachers can show the proper film in conjunction with the subject under study at the time; this is rarely possible when renting them.

Ten per cent of the surplus will be set aside for maintenance and repair.

Is Your Child A Lawbreaker?

Parents are reminded that bicycle licenses were due for renewal May 1, and any child who does not have a new license is riding his bicycle illegally.

During the April bicycle inspection, 910 vehicles were inspected under the supervision of Sergeant Oscar Johnson and Mrs. L D. Crockett, safety chairman. Of these, 307 were rejected by the police officers because of defects which rendered them unsafe.

Since licenses are issued only after bicycles have satisfactorily passed inspection, these defects must be repaired, another safety check made at the village hall, and a new license purchased. These licenses cost only 50 cents, and are good for two years.

Parents are urged to make a frequent check on their children's bicycles, to see that they are kept in safe riding condition. Equally important to children's safety is making sure that they adhere to the laws which state that they ride only on the right hand side of the street, in single file, and give hand signals when turning.

Mrs. Crockett wishes to thank the police department, the PTA mothers who applied reflective tape to bicycles, the school principals, and the patrol boys who assisted in the bicycle inspection.

The End Of The Trail

The meetings are over, the projects completed, and PTA activities are about wrapped up for the year, so this will be the last appearance of "This Week with PTA" until the opening of the fall term.

The column has been written for the past 2 years by Mrs. Jack Hosford. Mrs. Robert H. Bukowski will take over as news editor beginning in September.

MARION ELLIOTT, speech correctionist for the Arlington Heights public elementary schools, is shown here as she helps children improve their ability to form words which have proven difficult for them to master.

Public Schools Strive To Meet Pupils' Special Needs

(This is another in a special series of articles on Arlington Heights public elementary schools.)

Equal educational opportunity for all has long been a dream of the American people.

According to Martha Sapp, guidance director of the Arlington Heights public elementary schools, equality of opportunty does not mean only the chance for everyone to go to school for an equal length of time.

Real equality of opportunity exists only when the schools strive to serve the varying educational needs of individual children in the best possible way.

THE NEEDS of most children can be met by providing good teachers and buildings, and a functional educational plan.

For a few, this is not enough. These few require specially trained teachers, special housing and equipment, and a program of education which may either supplement or completely replace that which is offered in the regular classroom.

The local schools, in cooperation with the state department of public instruction, have developed several programs which are referred to as "special education." The most recently added program is the room established last September for the mentally handicapped. Children chosen for this room are those whose rate of mental development has been retarded from birth or early age, but who can benefit from special educational facilities designed to make them economically useful and socially adjusted. These children could benefit little from academic work in regular classrooms, but are capable of learning to live happily and to participate successfully in community life, if properly taught.

THIS CLASS is kept small (maximum of 15) so that the teacher can spend much time with each child. Anyone observing the class will admit that the teacher, Robert Stein, does not have an easy task, but that he is making a noble effort to help these children. Parents are most enthusiastic about the work being done by Stein.

The statistics show that about 1/2 of 1 per cent of the children in our communities are mentally retarded. This percentage is extremely low when compared to the state as a whole.

Another service provided under the title of "special education" is psychological counseling. The "visiting counselor" helps teachers and parents to understand the behavior of emotionally disturbed children. She also seeks the cause of the disturbance and tries to help the child solve his problems. The "counselor" visits each school weekly for interviews with teachers and children, and makes home visits to confer with parents.

IT IS OFTEN FOUND that through the cooperative efforts of teachers, parents and the counselor, a child can be helped quickly and put back on an even keel.

The third special educational service is provided by the speech correctionists. This well established program provides speech instruction to the 1 out of 10 school age children who have some speech impediments.

The speech teachers make certain that they are working with all children who need their help by testing each child as he enrolls in school. The teachers report that a high percentage of cases can be corrected before children leave the eighth grade, but that some of the more serious ones continue throughout life, in spite of intensive training.

In this area also, regular reports of progress are made to parents, and they are asked to help in the correction program at home.

"Home teaching" is available to children who are confined in a hospital or at home, through accident or illness. The anticipated absence must be of some 30 days or more before home teaching is considered. If it is deemed advisable by the attending physician, a program of bedside teaching is begun, which helps the child keep with his class.

OTHER SPECIAL education areas include training for the hard of hearing and the deaf, the partialy sighted and the blind, and for orthopedic cases. The schools do not have special classes locally for these children, for there are so few children in each category. The district does, however, have agreements with other nearby school districts to take these children in their classes. An example is the 3 children from Arlington Heights attending the Braille room in Wheeling.

All of these programs are partially supported financially by the state office of public instruction. Mr. Ray Graham, state director of education for exceptional children, has become nationally known for his leadership in this field, and Illinois has one of the best programs in the nation.

The local elementary schools have plans for expanding their special education services as the enrollments continue to grow.

An additional teacher for the mentally handicapped is planned for next year, and an additional counselor and speech correctionist for the following year. (A

With The Blue Birds

The last meeting of the Helping Pixies was spent enjoying an outdoor barbecue in Mrs. Schomburg's back yard. The menu consisted of hot dogs cooked in aluminum over an open fire, s'mores, lemonades and dixie cups.

After singing songs and playing games, the girls bid farewell to their leader and co-leader until next September.

Honeybears

Honeybears presented a puppet show for their mothers and teachers at Faith Lutheran church. After the show refreshments were served.

For the next meeting, which will end the term, the group will have a picnic at Elk Grove.

Bluebird Wings

For the final meeting of the school year, Bluebird Wings played games and enjoyed popcorn and pop served by Mrs. Jones.

New members for next September enjoyed the party also. After playing games, the girls recalled pleasant memories of the meetings past.

Blue Angels

A hike and ice cream bars for all the girls closed the last meeting of the year for the Blue Angels. Happy memories and anticipation for next September when they will meet again made the girls part in a happy and gay mood.

Friendly Bluebirds

Friendly Bluebirds enjoyed a mother and daughter party at their final meeting of the season. The following girls lit their candles and received their bluebird pins Charlotte Farr, Susan Harding, Carol Lee Herda, Kathy Knutson and Susan Shader. Cookies and punch were served by the girls.

Each girl presented her mother with an ivy holder which the girls made and each bluebird was given a comb and case as a gift from her leader. The meeting was closed with the friendship circle. The group will resume meet-

Realizes School Marm Ambition After 20 Years

Mr. and Mrs. William Weber, 738 N. Pine st., Arlington Heights, attended the graduation from state normal school of their daughter, Virginia Fenner, June 6 at Cassopolis, Mich.

Virginia has sent back word to her former schoolmates that she has at last realized an ambition that she had 20 years ago when she was attending high school in Arlington Heights. She says, "I am now going to do the teaching and let someone else do the learning."

SHE HAD kept it a secret from her parents that she was attending the normal school. After completing in one year, 2 years of study and becoming a member of the 1956 graduating class of Cass County Normal school, she surprised them with a commencement invitation.

Mrs. Fenner will teach the coming year in a rural one room school. Her 2 boys Charles and John, have reached an age that permits her to return to the schoolroom. She took special pleasure in sending to Miss Russell, former Arlington teacher, word that she had finally realized her ambition to be a teacher. "I feel it was the influence of Miss Russell that created in me a desire to follow in her footsteps," Virginia told her parents.

Miss Russell, who is today in Hinsdale, was a teacher in the local schools many years. Her pupils include many of present day businessmen of the community.

OF $120,000 SCHOOL BUILDING BONDS OF SCHOOL DISTRICT NUMBER 24, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed bids will be received by the Board of Education of School District Number 24, Cook County, Illinois, until the hour of 8:00 o'clock P.M. Central Daylight Savings Time on the 27th day of June, 1956, at School Building of said School District located on Palatine Road near the Arlington Heights Road, Cook County, Illinois, for the purchase of bonds of said School District, described as follows:

$120,000 School Building Bonds, dated July 1, 1956 of the denomination of $1,000 each, interest payable on January 1, 1958 and semi-annually thereafter, and said bonds to become due serially $3,000 on January 1 of each of the years 1958 to 1960 inclusive: $6,000 on January 1 of each of the years 1961 to 1967, inclusive; $7,000 on January 1 of each of the years 1968 to 1970, inclusive; $8,000 on January 1 of each of the years 1971 to 1976, inclusive, without option of prior payment.

Said bonds were authorized pursuant to an election held in and for said School District on May 26, 1956, and are being issued for the purpose of building additions to the present school building now owned and used by said District for school purposes and commonly known as the "Wilson School Building," all being in said school District.

Both principal and interest of said bonds, as above described, will be payable at such bank or trust company in the State of Illinois, as may be mutually agreed upon between the purchaser and said district. Said bonds may be registered as to principal only in the name of the holder on the books of the Township School Treasurer who receives the taxes of said district. Said bonds will be general obligations of said School District payable from ad valorem taxes levied upon all the taxable property in the district without limitation as to rate or amount.

The assessed valuation of taxable property in the district for the year 1955, at equalized and determined by The Department of Revenue, is $4,553,566. After the issuance of the bonds above described, the total aggregate indebtedness of the district of every kind and character whatsoever will be $212,000. The population of the district is approximately 2300.

The bonds will be awarded to the responsible bidder on the basis of the lowest interest cost to the School District, but no bid will be considered for less than par or bearing an interest rate of not to exceed four per cent (4%) per annum. Bidders shall specify the rate of interest in multiples of one-quarter of one per cent (¼ of 1%) per annum. Not more than one interest rate for said entire issue of bonds will be considered.

All proposals should be enclosed in a sealed envelope marked on the outside "Proposal for Bonds," and addressed to Robert G. Parsons, Secretary of the Board of Education of said School District, The Wilson School Building, Palatine Road near Arlington Heights Road, Route, 2, Arlington Heights, Illinois. As a guarantee of good faith, each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check or cashier's check in the amount of $1,000, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and made payable to the order of the Township Treasurer of School District Number 24, Cook County, Illinois, this amount to be retained pending full performance by the successful bidder and to be forfeited to the School District as agreed liquidated damages upon failure of the successful bidder to take up and pay for the bonds when ready. The checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them immediately upon the rejection of their bids.

Bids will be opened at a meeting of the Board of Education of said School District to be held at the Wilson School Building, Palatine Road near Arlington Heights Road, Cook County, Illinois, at 8:00 o'clock P.M. Central Daylight Savings Time, on the 27th day of June, 1956, at which time and place the bids will be publicly read and the award made to the successful bidder.

The purchaser will be required to furnish the necessary printed bonds. The bonds will be delivered with the unqualified approving opinion of Chapman and Cutler, Attorneys, Chicago, Illinois, said opinion to be paid for by the district and all bids must be so conditioned.

The School District reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

By order of the Board of Education of School District Number 24, Cook County, Illinois.

Dated this 5th day of June, 1956.

Graduations

Five young ladies from Westgate graduated from Arlington Heights Junior high school last Friday evening. Among them was Karen Johnson, daughter of Rose and Frank, 1410 Fremont. A family party was given in her nonor following the graduation exercises. Karen will attend St. Patrick academy, Des Plaines in the fall. Karen became 14 June 7 and had 16 girls in for luncheon the Saturday preceding graduation to help in the celebration.

Nikki Ellen, who lives with her parents, Bette and Gerry Guarriello, 119 Reuter, also completed her term at Junior high this past week. An open house party was held after graduation for neighbors to help her celebrate. Nikki will attend Arlington Heights high school in September.

Mary Kathleen MacCarthy, daughter of Mary and Richard, 1407 Miner, is another proud graduate of the class of '56. Kathy will etner her freshman year at Arlington Heights high school in fall.

An open house party was also held in honor of Sharon Kadlecik's graduation from Junior high last Friday. The party was held Sunday and was attended by relatives, friends and neighbors. Sharon is the daughter of Gwen and Sam Kadlecik, 128 Reuter.

Last but not least, is Karen Stuart, who resides wtih her parents, Edna and Carl, at 302 Reuter. A family party was given for Karen, who will also attend the local high school in the fall.

The lone man on the list, who graduated, was Roger Martinell Jr., son of Gerry and Roger, 119 N. Wilke, who graduated from Arlington high school June 7. Roger has chosen Bradley university in Peoria for future learning. Relatives and neighbors attended a party held in his honor following graduation exercises.

Out of Town Guests

Visiting Margaret and Mel Potter, 107 Wilke, the past weekend were Mel's sister and her hsband, Betty and Ed Eisel and their 4 children from Toledo, Ohio. A lively household certainly was in evidence with 6 children on hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Franck of Big Rapids, Mich., were weekend guests of Carol and Bill Franck, 504 Yale. Lynn and Steve returned to Big Rapids with their grandparents for a 2-week holiday.

Captain and Mrs. Glenn M. Ebaugh of Baltimore, Md. spent a week visiting Shirley and Ervin Thuerk, 303 Yale. Capt. Ebaugh left Sunday for the west coast and then on to Korea, where he is a pilot with the army. This is one trip Shirley's sister will not be able to accompany her husband on due to army regulations.

This 'N That

Brownie troop 362 held their last meeting until fall last Wednesday at which time a fly-up ceremony was in order. This ceremony is the fourth graders going into girl scouts at the intermediate level. Their leader is Mrs. Carol Franck, 504 Yale, who was assisted by Mrs. Sylvia Lien. The girls taking part in the ceremony were Diane Baker, Karen Ballou, Diana Kerr, Janice Kleim, Paula Krueger, Sharon Lister, Kathleen McDonald, Dorothy Schwind and Catharine Wrobel. Diane Kabat will also be going into girl scouts with this same group of girls. Mrs. Marvette Ballou and Mrs. Lillian Schwind were guests of honor and will be the girl scout leaders in the fall. The girls received badges with wings to sew on their uniforms to show that they have come up through brownies. Donna Johnson was invested into this brownie group at this meeting.

Another casualty has come to this reporter's attention this week. Friends are sorry to hear that Jane Rice, 403 Reuter, fractured her arm and cannot use it for 6 weeks and certainly hope it will mend quickly as an active mother like Jane certainly needs her 2 arms.

Entertain

Fran and Harry Hebard, 409 Reuter, held a punch bowl party before the street dance with 19 couples participating in the fun.

Pat and Don Nelson, 1601 St. James, entertained 12 couples at an impromptu barbecue after the dance Saturday evening.

The Herigodts, Carolyn and Bob, 1513 Fremont, held a barbecue buffet supper last Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wedkind and family, who had just returned from Anchorage, Alaska. Seventeen adults and 12 children joined in the reunion. These couples were all service friends of the Herigodts, who have kept contact with one another during the past 5 years.

Newcomers

Renee and Lawrence Deiter are now residing at 15 Yale in Westgate, 2 along with their daughter, Laureen, 12, and their son, Danny, 10. Lawrence is district supervisor for Socony Mobile Co. in Chicago and Renee is an avid bowling fan. The family moved here from Westmont, Il., and attend Our Lady of the Wayside church.

Also a welcome to Frances and Edward Kolk, 19 Yale, who moved to Arlington from Chicago. The Kolks have a son, Edward Charles, 15, and a daughter Cynthia, 9. Frances' folks reside with them and they are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newmann. Ed is plant manager for Gingiss Brothers in Chicago, whose company has that popular singing commercial. Both Frances and Ed bowl and Ed is also partial to golf. The family attends Our Lady of the Wayside church. Mr. and Mrs. Newmann celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary June 5 with a dinner party at Brandt's restaurant. A brother and sister of the couple, George German of Waterbury, Conn. and Mrs. Minerva Seifert of Denver, Colo., came to Arlington to help celebrate with the Newmanns.

Ed Huster, 1411 W. Fremont, celebrated his birthday June 6, Lois Graham, 1420 St. James, celebrated her birthday June 9 with the street dance and all its guests helping make her day a gay one.

Little Maureen McDonald, 1601 Fremont, and Pam Townsend, 1517 Fremont, took part in a dance recital from the Delores Eiler dance school last week. The versatile little girls were part of the "Hokey-Pokey" dance line and show many signs of progress.

Westgate Community Association

The civic affairs committee had a meeting last Wednesday at which time they appointed Howard Huff, 1411 Euclid, as chairman of that committee to fill the vacancy left due to the resignation of Robert Martinell. The committee wishes to express their gratitude to Roger for the wonderful job he has done in the past. This committee decided that complaints from Westgate residents should be put in writing and given to their district representative. The district representatives are 1, Ken Purcell, 1516 Campbell; 2, Frank Conley, 107 Reuter; 3, Ed Huster, 1411 Fremont; 4, Gene Ballou, 1418 St. James; 5, Glen Sundquist ,1711 Fremont; 6, John Heinz, 1611 Euclid; 7, John Vork, 415 Yale. These complaints will then be discussed at civic affair meetings, and decided then as to what action will be taken. This committee is also concerned about the fast driving that still exists in Westgate. Twenty m. p. h. isn't slow enough to stop for a fast moving child. Please exercise care and caution and drive slow to protect the children. Residents are asked to park their cars on driveways at all times. They present a hazard with a child running out from behind the vehicle, which cannot be seen by the motorist. When residents have company it is impossible to comply with this request, but generally, keep cars on the driveways.

The race track season opens Monday, June 18, and between the hours of 4 and 7 p.m. residents must use only Campbell ave. as a means of entrance and exit to Westgate. The barricades will be up and if violated they will be removed. Sunday is the only day Euclid and Wilke can be used during these hours.

The street dance held last Saturday was certainly a huge success. The weatherman was good to us and the turnout was terrific. All comments on the dance coming this way have been favorable and everyone seemed to have fun. Having arrived at the dance late, your reporter may have missed some of the details, but will try to report accurately on some of the highlights. The jitterbug contest was won by Bebe and Chuck Wendt of 312 Reuter. Stella and Stan Stefan, 103 Reuter, were judged winners of the polka contest. Both couples received a bottle of champagne as a prize. Young Tim Comeford did the judging of the contests and seemed to do a good job in picking the winners.

Other prize winners were Ed Huster, who won a chaise lounge as one of the door prizes, and Chuck Wendt, who walked away with a lawn chair. There were many other winners whom I missed in an attempt to "Come Meet Your Neighbor."

The committee certainly deserves much credit for a job well done under the leadership of Andy Graczyk. Skip Akerlund did all the tape recording for the music, which ran so smoothly. A thank you is issued to all the volunteers who so willingly gave their time both Saturday and Sunday.

Everyone is looking forward to the next social function of the association.

This reporter wishes to inform you that the reason President Jim Blocki did not speak at the dance was due to a bad case of laryngitis. He is much better this week and promises a good speech at the next gathering.

This reporter appreciates all the news that has been called in and hope it continues. It really makes writing the column a lot easier. "Let us know of your vacations after you're back as we are all interested in hearing where you've been."

Children Baptized In Presbyterian Church

The following children were baptized last Sunday, June 10, during services of worship at First Presbyterian church, Arlington Heights, the Rev. Paul Louis Stumpf officiating. Emily Jean Barton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Derek Barton, 832 N. Kennicott; Linda Marie and Martin Ross Crain, children of Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Crain, 616 Foundry rd., Mt. Prospect; Alan Bruce Hannaford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hannaford, 410 N. Yale; Douglas Clifford and Marcia Helen Hochstetler, children of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hochstetler, 1428 W. St. James; Lisa Kerry Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, 734 S. Highland; David Wayne Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Raymond, 1337 N. Race; Mark Dee, Marla Kim and Marisa Lu Rubenking, children of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Rubenking, 948 N. Fernandez and Laura Ann Wolvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wolvin, 1316 E. Northwest hwy.

Meet Village's Most Honest Man

Oscar Maierhofer can lay claim to being Arlington Heights' most honest man.

While he and his wife were driving north on State road Tuesday about 11 p.m., his wife spied a wallet lying on the pavement. Maierhofer, who lives at 1104 N. Ridge, stopped and picked it up, found $18 inside.

Maierhofer turned it in to police who said that a driver's license identified the owner as Norbert R. Cichon, of 2715 W. Medill, Chicago.

Record Homer

The home run that first baseman Dal. Long of the Pirates hit against Lindy McDaniel of the Cardinals, May 21, is believed to have set a record for distance in Forbes Field. The ball left the park over the 436-foot mark. The Sporting News says that both Bill Terry and Dolph Camilli hit homers over the exit gate, but Long's blow cleared the fence to the center field side of the gate. Pie Traynor, who has been around Forbes Field since the 1920s' said he had never seen a ball hit out of the park at that spot.

First Steps

First steps toward preparing a joint recommendation to the North Western railway and the Chicago Transit authority for improving shore service were taken this week when representatives of 8 shore communities attended a meeting in Winnetka called at the request of the North Western.

LIBRARY CORNER

HOURS:
Monday through Friday
10 a.m 8 p.m
Saturday 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

by MRS. CHARLES KULE

Did you know that over 6,000 patrons of the local library borrowed almost 80,000 books, pamphlets and magazines during the past year? Over 20,000 volumes are now on the library shelves for the use of the leisure time reader and student.

Most books are charged out for 3 weeks, more recent and social study books for 1 week and late fiction is on the rental shelf for a period of 3 months, when it is put on the recent shelf. The library is open 52 hours a week, 6 days and 5 evenings until 8 o'clock.

If you haven't visited the library recently, come in and see the wide selection of fiction and non-fiction including arm-chair traveling, gardening, sports, business and how- to- do it books, all available for leisure time reading or summer projects.

New Fiction

"A Thing of Beauty" by A. J. Cronin. The story of a great painter whose search for beauty led him to give up everything for art. "The Unquiet Spirit" by Marguerite Steen. An intriguing tale of the supernatural. "The Sudden Strangers" by William E. Barrett. A story of two worlds — and of a path between, by the author of The Left Hand of God. "Two Soldiers" by Paxton Davis. The story of two American soldiers in the China-Burma-India theatre, a young Negro and a sergeant in the Medical Corps.

"A Season To Beware" by William Du Bois. A searching story of the power of a dream to make or break a man's life. "The Valley of God" by Irene Patai. A novel of the prophet Hosea, his search for God's illumination, and of his beautiful and restless wife, Gomer. "The Lady and Her Doctor" by Evelyn Piper. A powerful and unusual novel of a physician and his patients.

"Greenwillow" by B. J. Chute. A quietly witty and romantic story of a world removed from the pressures and heartbreaks of present day living. "Marjorie of Scotland" by Pamela Hill. A historical novel of Scotland in the 14 th century. "Mamma I Love You" by William Saroyan. A warm and funny and easygoing view of the pleasures and treasures of life and its people. "The Girl He Left Behind" by Marion Hargrove. The author of "See Here, Private Hargrove" now turns his attention to the peacetime draftees. Funny and well written. "Nuni" by John Howard Griffin. The story of a man and a plane accident that plunged him into a lonely purgatory on a barren coral reef.

"THE HILL of the Rooster" by Curry Holden. An inspiring story of love, heroism, and sacrifice. "That Uncertain Feeling" by Kingsley Amis. A new comedy of marital misbehavior. "A Wreath for Udomo" by Peter Abrahams. Love and betrayal and death in Africa are the stuff of this novel. "The Heel of Spring" by Frank Rooney. The story of Charles Blackwell, whose dramatic search for his own identity freed him from the past, secured him his future.

"On A Darklin Plain" by Clifford Irving. Readers of any age will find these typical scenes of American college life and its aftermath engrossing. "South Cove Summer" by Sara Ware Bassett. In this warm and understanding story of how a problem child's difficulties are resolved, the author has provided the fresh authentic Cape Cod background for which she is so famous. "The Soldier Room" by Anne Chamberlain. We may understand a little more of how illusion and reality are mixed in our hopes and motives by the incidents of one town's activities on a few April days. "The Cross of Iron" by Willi Heinrich. The first German war novel to be published in virtually all countries where soldiers fought against the German army in World War II.

"THE NINTH WAVE" by Eugene Burdick. Michael Freesmith learned to play the angles at the age when most poeple are just learning how to walk. Book-of-the-month selection. "The Judas Figures" by Audrey Lindop. A dramatic story of warm, living characters with a setting in Mexico. "The Rosemary Tree" by Elizabeth Goudge. Heart-warming and inspiring, filled with compassion, understanding, and humor about people and situations by the author of Pilgrim's Inn and Gentian Hill.

Books are Magic Carpets,
Which can speed you through the skies,
And the wonders of our land
Will be revealed before your eyes.

The library will once again sponsor the summer reading program for boys and girls in the first through sixth grades. Registration will be Monday, June 11 through Saturday June 16 at the library. Each child who registers must have a library card.

The first and second graders will again be members of the 'flight log;' those in third fourth and fifth and sixth grades who did not complete their author game last summer will finish their reading requirements until they have their game, and new registrants will begin the "Modern American Explorer" adventure with books. Each time a book is read and a report made on that book, a sticker of a state will be placed on a map of the United States, and when completed the map will be in full color, with every state represented.

If the art of reading is to retain its rightful place in the life of the average man, a concerted effort must be made now to instill a real love for books in the children of our generation. As with their playmates, children readily make friends with books, but they are fickle and forgetful, and unless this friendship is nurtured, it will never carry through into their adult lives.

Off And Running At Arlington Park Race Track Monday

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by Bob Paddock

ARLINGTON HIGH baseball squad gained another honor this week with announcement that outfielder Ron Ashley had been chosen to play in eleventh annual Chicago American prep all-star game, with suburban stars meeting city stars. The game will be played at Comiskey Park immediately following the White Sox-Yankee contest Saturday, June 23. Ashley recently won West Suburban league honors, with both his arm and bat helping the Heights Cardinals post a good record. Ron will carry a .364 average into the game with 20 hits in 55 times at bat for 35 total bases. He struck out 16 times, batted in 11 runs.

Ron Ashley

Other boys from this area making the team, as announced Thursday of this week, include pitcher Tom Prucha of Downers Grove, second baseman Bob Hoffman of York, short stop John Perrill of Maine, Gale Peregrin of Grayslake and Gene Jaskot of Wauconda. Ken Walter of Niles was also included. Jaskot's .520 batting average is outstanding, with Perrill carrying a .350 average. The series stands about even between the 2 teams in previous 10 games.

IT IS DIFFICULT to understand what the Indiana High School athletic association had in mind when it voted to permit the football season to start with the opening of school or Sept. 1 whichever is first. The Illinois rule permits start of organized practice on the first Monday before Labor Day—Aug. 27 in 1956—with the first game to be played on the second Friday after Labor Day which will be Sept. 14.

To forestall injuries as much as possible the Illinois rules require a minimum of 14 days of field practice before a player engages in a game or interschool scrimmage.

With the advent of night football many coaches have sought to have an earlier starting date to get away from the chill which often accompanies the night games late in the season. Perhaps that is one of the reasons for the change in Indiana or it could be aimed to wind up the season earlier so the basketball teams can get a running start.

Illinois, instead of relaxing practice rules, is tightening up. A new one, in effect this year, limits basketball practice from the first day of October until the close of the state final tournament.

ROGER BANNISTER'S historic break through of the four-minute mile barrier no longer can be included among the world's ten fastest miles.

So common have sub-four-minute miles become that Bannister's first effort, 3:59.4 on May 6, 1954, little more than two years ago, now is 11th on the list. He later did it in 3:58.8.

The latest runners in the four minute club were Ron Delany of Ireland with 3:59.0 at Compton, Calif., and Gunnar Nielsen of Denmark, with 3:59.1 in the same race.

THE KICK-OFF of ticket sales for the Chicago Cardinal pro football intrasquad game at Arlington Heights high school field Thursday night, August 9, was No. 1 for this foursome. Standing behind the football is the likable Bob Scott, assistant high school varsity grid coach who was on the Chicago Cardinals roster a year ago when he deserted pro ball for high school coaching.

Open Ticket Sale For Pro Football Game At Heights

The line forms to the right. No pushing, please!

This was the way Richard Black, president of the Arlington high school Cardinals Booster club, announced the opening of ticket sales for the Chicago Cardinals intra-squad football game to be played in Arlington Heights the evening of August 9. The game under lights will mark the first appearance of professional football in the Arlington area. All 4000 seats in the high school stadium will be sold for the same price, $2.0 each.

The game is backed by the Boosters club in the interest of high school athletics. Also to benefit from the affair will be Little Leagues of Arlington, Mt. Prospect, Wheeling, Prospect Heights and Rolling Meadows Little League players, in uniform, will handle the sale of refreshments and all profits from the concessions will go to the various Little Leagues. The girls athletic association will handle the program sale.

A JAM-PACKED house is expected. Ticket sales are limited due to limited seating capacity of 4000. With the great popularity of football in the suburban area, it is expected ticket sales will be on the brisk side the next 2 or 3 weeks. Many neighboring towns have already requested blocks of tickets.

Ticket manager Byron Sayre has this to say about the game, "Ticket orders by mail will be given our immediate attention. A mail order request blank can be found elsewhere in the sports section. We hope for a sellout long before game time."

FOOTBALL FANS should have many a thrill on game night. The Cardinals, many will remember, are the Chicago champs, having beaten the Bears twice last fall. Coach Ray Richards is expecting big things from his team this autumn. He has one of the greatest backs in professional football in Ollie Matson. Several rookies are believed to be on their way to stardom in the pro league.

The Cardinals will open training sessions soon at Lake Forest college. (Sp

Mt. Prospect Yanks Win In Pony League

by BILL GODMAN

The Yanks won their first Pony League game of the season as they beat a stubborn Braves' team, 9-6 in a game played at Lions Park, Mt. Prospect, June 10. It took a 3 run rally in the seventh inning to sew up the game.

Prior to that the Braves had come from a 6-4 deficit to tie the game with single runs in the fifth and sixth innings. The big gun with the bat for the Yanks was third baseman Jeff Kobi who hit a two-run homer and a triple to pace the Yanks against losing pitcher Mike Starshak and his rescuer Bob Hammerly.

STARSHAK, although he struck out 15, was troubled throughout the game with control troubles. He walked 7 and hit three batsmen. All the walks figured some way or another in the scoring.

Pitching for the Yanks was Ron Schafer. Although Ron had some control trouble he really had only one bad inning, the first. In that inning the Braves tallied four times. They might have gotten more if it hadn't been for a fine running catch by right-fielder Bill Alfini on a line drive off the bat of Al Kruse.

Other leading hitters were Mark Thorne and Starshak, each getting two singles. (Sp

Arlington Jr. Legion 9 Blanked In 2 Openers

by RANDY THOMAS

Following a double defeat by Oak Park last weekend in their initial two contests, Arlington's Junior Legion baseball team will travel to Maine high school Thursday to play their third league game in 3 days against the Park Ridge "B"s at 6 p.m.

Wednesday night the Poole Fords were scheduled to meet weather permitting, but at this writing the result wasn't available for publication.

Saturday the Legion will entertain Berwyn, another perennial power, in the third of six nonleague tilts slated for the season, and Sunday wind up a busy week with their fourth league foe, River Grove, following the Redwing battle.

Against Oak Park, Merle Guild Post 208 put runners on base in every inning except the seventh in Saturday's eight inning 2-0 loss, but were unable to deliver clutch blows when needed. The Huskies rallied for two runs in the eighth as pinch-hitter Al Tevis singled with two out and the bases loaded to give his teammates their second win in 48 hours over the locals.

FIRDAY, JUNE 8, George Tomek pitched a 2-hit shutout to record a 6-0 victory. Arlington's Denny Thill, making his first mound appearance since August 2, 1955, allowed just 3 hits and 5 runs, 2 of which were earned, in 5 innings of a courageous performance which saw his ungrateful companions boot the ball no less than 6 times to hand the River Forest Post its first win of the season. Shortstop Dan Vittum and Thill's successor, Lefty Bob Miller, who pitched the sixth, collected the only safties for Heights.

Saturday the Huskies didn't find their opponents in the giving mood and had to work for the victory. Miller, in twirlling 7 1/3 frames of scoreless ball scattered three hits, and pitchd well enough to win ten games before Jim De Leonardis and Tom Zilligan rocked him for two successive hits in the fatal eighth. Al Smeby came in to get the second out, but then Tevis came through with his game winning blow.

COACH LLOYD Meyer's gang almost had a run in the sixth when Dan Vittum belted a triple to deep right center with one gone, but he was tagged out at the plate trying to stretch it, ending the only serious threat all afternoon.

Incidentally, counting last year's finale with Blue Island, Arlington's feeble warclubs have produced a yield of only one run and 15 hits in their last 24 innings. (Sp

The inevitable combination of steady piching, clutch hitting, and flawless fielding, which is guaranteed to return prosperous dividends, was put into operation effectively by the Arlington Poole Fords Tuesday night as they captured their Ninth District opener from Elmwood Park, 7-0.

Myrtlewood Is First Stakes Event Here

The second leg of Chicago's own "Triple Crown" of racing begins Monday when "Showplace" Arlington Park ushers in its 30th annual meeting of America's finest summer racing.

Highlighting Monday's opener which touches off a 36-day stand will be the 16th running of the $15,000 added Myrtlewood Handicap at 6 furlongs for 3-year-olds and up, one of 3 stakes punctuating Arlington's first week of sport.

Fifteen stakes, worth $605,000 in added money, are on Arlington's lucrative program designed by Executive Director Benjamin F. Lindheimer to lure champion and contender alike of all thoroughbred divisions.

TOP LEVEL and highly-competitive racing, long an integral part of the Arlington label, promises to reach new heights during the next 6 weeks. The exciting Balmoral stable colony, including Hasty House Farms; Walmac Farm; Jacnot Stable; Dixiana; E. Gay Drake; Claiborne Farm; Reverie Knoll Farm; William Hal Bishop, and Tennessee Wright, will be augmented by Calumet Farm — Fabius and company — Maine Chance Farm, and a division of Elmendorf runners.

Beautiful Arlington Park will accentuate fan comfort along with top-level sport. With seating capacity for over 30,000 fans, parking for 15,000 cars, escalators and free bus service to and from the stands, the fan will find nothing has been overlooked in making his day at the races a pleasant one.

Post time for the first race each weekday is 2 p.m. On Saturday and on the Fourth of July first post is 1:45 p.m.

Trapshoot Sunday

Maywood sportsmen's club, located on Du Page county line rd., one-half mile north of Lake st., Elmhurst, will hold a registered trapshoot Sunday, June 17.

Twenty-one trophies will be awarded. The practice trap opens at 9 a.m. Dinner will be served by the ladies committee. (Sp

Sox Win 3rd In Row To Lead Pony Loop In Mount Prospect

by BETTY KIRCHHOFF

The VFW Sox lengthened their winning streak to 3 games by whipping the Cubs and Braves in the M Prospect Pony League. These two wins, added to the one they already had, put them in undisputed possession of first place.

Monday evening they edged out the Braves 7-6 with a last inning rally. When Freddy Boedeker came to bat in the sixth the Sox were trailing 6-5 and darkness was rapidly closing in on the contest. Fred got an infield single, moved to second and third on a sacrifice and steal, and then scored the tying run on a hit by Bobby Leekley. McMillan was safe on a fielder's choice after which George Bork, pinch batting, smashed a two-bagger to bring in the decisive run.

The Braves divided up their scoring between the second and fifth innings. They tallied 3 in each round. Al Kruse drove in 3 with a homer and single while Gerry Haenggi batted in a total of 2 with his smash one-bagger. The other run crossed the plate on an error.

GEORGE BORK'S twirling, coupled with some timely hitting by his teammates gave the Sox an 8-0 whitewash over the Cubs at Lions Park Saturday. George, in the course of 7 innings, fanned 17, gave up but 3 hits, all singles, and passed 1 batter. Besides all this George came up with 2 triples to drive in 3 runs. Bill McMillan captured top batting laurels for the day with a single, a double, and a homer in 3 official times at bat.

Four of the Sox 14 hits were on bunts laid down the first base line. They also had 2 sacrifice bunts that were perfectly placed.

Credit must be given also to the Cub pitchers, Phalen and Grams. Of a possible 21 putouts 15 were on strikeouts by these 2 fellows—6 by Phalen and 9 by Grams.

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McElroy

THE 1955-56 SCHOOL YEAR is ended and in the Northwest conference it was Glenbrook who dominated the athletic scene with 4 of the 5 varsity championships. Palatine's track title, their ninth in a row, was the only major championship the Glenbrook Spartans did not either win or share.

Glenbrook's varsity football team was out of the class of the rest of the league. The Spartans won 8 games in a row and increased their undefeated skein of wins to 20 over 2 seasons and part of a third.

Gene Jaskot of Wauconda made an end position on the Champaign News-Gazette all state team. Glenbrook got Al Colburn, Ralph Butz, Duane Harm, Bob Boyd, and Bob Bacon on the all league along with Lee Bathrick of Ela-Vernon, Bill Wood and Bill Moore of Grayslake, Jim Scully and Jerry Meyer of Antioch, and Gene Jaskot and Bob Pintozzi of Wauconda.

PALATINE HAD AN undefeated frosh-soph team following a non-conference 7-7 tie with Barrington. The Pirates should be heard from in the 1956 and 1957 seasons. Glenbrook and Ela-Vernon shared the basketball championship with 11-3 records. Bob Boyd with 334 points came within 10 of the league record set in 1952 by Bob Nolan of Wauconda. Al Bathrick of Ela-Vernon who averaged 22 points a game paced the Bears to a share of the title. Bathrick and Gene Jaskot of Wauconda were the most talented all roound performers in the league. Others on the all-league team were Phil Johnson of Fenton and Gale Peregrin of Grayslake.

Fenton's frosh-sophs dominated the junior circuit with 14 straight wins and the cage fortunes of the Bisons are definitely on the upgrade.

Wrestling is not a conference sport as only Palatine, Glenbrook, and Wauconda competed in interscholastic matches. The Pirates took both their league opponents handily, won their own 8 team holiday invitational tournament, finished second to Elgin in the state sectional tournament, and finished fifth in the state tournament with Leonard Rohde taking the heavyweight state championship and Jim McCreery and John Wehner winning fourth places.

IN SPRING SPORTS Palatine completely dominated conference track, outscoring their nearest opponent, Fenton, by 84½ to 42 in the league meet. It was Palatine's ninth varsity and sixth straight frosh-soph championship with no end in sight except the transfer of the Pirates to a different conference, likely in the fall of '57. Leonard Rohde and Carl Bondeson broke records in the shot and 880, respectively, with 50' ¼" and 2:02.5 to climax their fourth year of track competition.

Jim Eldridge, as a sophomore, set new records in the 440 on both varsity and frosh-soph levels at :52 flat.

Glenbrook won the golf championship in spite of Palatine's Fred Breitling and Noel Anderson tying for medal honors. It broke a 6 straight record held by Palatine with the winning Spartan team made up of 2 sophs and 2 juniors. Fred Breitling was the only Northwest player to qualify to play in the state tournament.

IN BASEBALL Glenbrook came in for another tie as in basketball with an 11-3 record to match Grayslake who was taking their third in a row either outright or shared. Outstanding baseball players for the season in the opinion of the writer of this column were Jerry Sadek, Bob Boyd, and Bill Lutz of Glenbrook, the Grayslake battery of Gale Peregrin and Denny Hunziker, Palatine's pitcher Bob Hamilton, Fenton's Terry Biefeld and Floyd Busse, Gene Jaskot of Wauconda who could play well at any position, Frank Walsh of Antioch, and Tom Bossow of Grant.

For the year the honor roll of individuals would include some great all round performers. Gene Jaskot of Wauconda was all conference in 3 sports for the second straight year as was Bob Boyd of Glenbrook.

Jaskot played end, forward, and either pitch or first base. Boyd played halfback, guard, and shortstop and led the league in scoring two years in a row in both football and basketball. Gale Peregrin made all conference second team in football as a halfback and quarterback, the all-league basketball team as a forward, and was the player in baseball we regard as most likely to go far in organized baseball. You cannot leave out the outstanding senior athletes of the year Palatine's Len Rohde who won the heavyweight state westling championship with an undefeated season and set a new shot record both in the conference and at the Palatine Relays.

Browns, Cardinals And Red Sox Lead Heights Little Leagues

The Browns hold a half game lead in Arlington Heights Pony league standings, with the latest victory an 18-9 affair over the Phillies. Other league leaders as of Saturday, June 9, include Cardinals in National league, Red Sox in American.

The Browns were not to be stopped on the high school field Friday night, scoring in every inning including 7 in the fifth. The Phillies tallied 9, but that was only half enough. O'Connell was credited with the win, and Gustafson with the loss. Triples were hit by O'Hagen and Gustafson of the Phillies.

Browns	232 173 x—18-13

Batteries: Phillies, Gustafson (LP), Thermer and O'Hagen. Browns, O'Connell (WP) and Burfeind.

THE PHILLIES lost to the Indians Monday of last week, 9-0, on the high school diamond with Dougan gaining credit for the win. Indians combined 6 runs in the second with 3 in the third for the victory. On the mound for the losers were Passmore and Thermer.

Phillies	000 00—0-0

Batteries: Phillies, Passmore (LP), Thermer and O'Hagen. Indians, Dougan (WP) and Rehfeldt.

Dave Kussow proved he could not only pitch his Browns to a 2-1 victory over the Redlegs, but hit a 3-bagger to boot on the high school field.

Redlegs	000 010—1-5
Browns	100 10x—2-3

Batteries: Redlegs, Brodnan (LP) and Tuttle. Browns, Kussow (WP) and Robertson.

THE HAWKS and Orioles traded Pony league homers Wednesday of last week, but the Hawks had most of the marbles by game's end. Socking the 4-baggers were Fred Empkie of the winners and Ron Hosek of the Orioles. A 6-run fourth turned the tide for the winners.

Hawks	300 60—9-5
Orioles	202 01—5-4

Batteries: Hawks, Kennedy (WP) and Empkie. Orioles, Leech (LP), Hermes and Sokalski.

The Hawks also bumped the Redlegs Friday 10-3 with Tuttle and Bergstrom of the Redlegs hitting triples, and Zizlavsky of the Hawks socking a homer.

Redlegs	000 030— 3-7

Batteries: Redlegs, Markus (LP) and Schuman. Hawks, Dahl (WP), Zizlavsky and Empkie.

THE CARDINALS whipped the Braves this week 10-3 to retain an unblemished record in National league of Arlington Little League program. The leaders tallied 3 times the first inning, added 3 in the fifth and 4 in the sixth to sew things up at Recreation park Friday. Jim Nelson of the Cards homered.

Cardinals	300 034—10-6

Batteries: Cardinals, Nelson (WP), Benson and Carlson. Braves, Koeppen (LP), and Freise, Sadler.

The Giants topped the Dodgers Monday of last week 10-7 to pull the Bums into the cellar with them. The Giants' Jack Shaw tripled, but Tom Haworth of the Dodgers homered. Five run blast in the seventh iced the game for the winners.

Giants	103 015—10-6
Dodgers	220 210— 7-6

Batteries: Giants, Seelenbinder (WP) and Waterman, Heitz. Dodgers, Haworth (LP) and Smith.

THE PIRATES lost 2 contests this past wee, falling to the Braves 6-3 Tuesday of last week and dropping a 4-0 encounter to the Dodgers Friday. Home runs by Michael of the Pirates and Larry Grote of the Braves livened things up in that Tuesday affair, with Braves triples by Richard Hartman and Dennis Koeppen helping.

Pirates	100 020—3-5
Braves	320 01x—6-7

Batteries: Pirates, McGrath (LP) and Ruhnow. Braves, Conner (WP) and Freise.

Dodgers	100 021—4-6
Pirates	000 000—0-3

Batteries: Dodgers, Williams (WP) and Smith. Pirates, Staahl (LP), Lantz and Thompson.

The Cubs found the Giants to their liking Thursday 9-1. Squads exchanged triples, with John Anderson of Cubs and Jack Shaw of the Giants doing the honors for the only hit for the losers. On the mound for the Cubs was Harris.

Giants	000 000—1- 1

Batteries: Cubs, Harris (WP) and Klement, Giants, Orgler (LP) and Waterman.

THE RED SOX are leading the American league with a 4-1 record, including a 13-2 decision over the Red Sox Thursday at Junior high diamond. An 8-run fourth did the job for the Red Sox with teamates Ross Retterer hitting a triple and Craig Quackenbush a homer.

Red Sox	004 81—13-8

Bateries: Red Sox, Berg (WP), Kephart and Saelens. Senators, Pasvogel (LP) and Lind.

The White Sox drubbed Senators Monday 11-4 with 2 5-run openers enough to win. Blix was accorded the win.

Senators	220 000— 4- 3
White Sox	550 10x—11-11

Batteries: Senators, Lind (LP) and Lind. White Sox, Blix (WP) and Helfogt.

THE TIGERS had to go into the extra seventh to beat the Athletics Tuesday 8-6. The game was even all the way through, with both teams even in extra base blows. Homers were socked by Harold Freitag of Athletics and Jim Murphy of Tigers. Triples were hit by Richard Wallhoff of the A's and Dennis Wood of the Tigers.

Tigers	004 020 2—8- 9
Athletics	002 211 0—6-10

Batteries: Tigers, Ward, Diehl (WP) and Miller. Athletics, Wallhoff, Freitag (LP) and Linn.

The White Sox and Tigers tied 9-9 after 8 innings on Junior high diamond Friday, the Sox scoring all of theirs in the third.

White Sox	009 000 00—9-13

Batteries: White Sox, White, Clark, Helfogt and Helfogt, Roble. Tigers, Hawley, Diehl, Ward and Miller.

The Yankees whipped the Athletics 9-1 Friday with homers by Kendall Layden of Yankees and Bill Sayre of Athletics. Sayre's blast was the only score for the losers.

Yankees	000 045—9-11

Batteries: Yankees, R. Cordes (WP) and L. Cordes. Athletics, Freitag (LP) and Colwin.

Comets, Stars, Blues, Spartans Lead Heights

The Comets, Stars, Blues and Spartans are leading Intermediate and Junior leagues of Arlington Heights Little League program. The Comets knocked off Broncs 4-3 but lost to Saints 3-0 in Northside Intermediate loop Tuesday and Thursday.

Comets	002 020—4-4
Broncs	012 000—3-6
Saints	200 001—3-5
Comets	000 000—0-1

The Bruins won 2 of 3 games, topping the Saints Tuesday 14-6 at high school, whipping Redbirds Wednesday 13-6 but succumbing to Broncs Friday 6-1.

Broncs	401 001—6-7
Bruins	000 010—1-1

The Redbirds defeated Colonels 15-7 Friday on high school field.

THE STARS beat the Seals 8-2 Monday at Recreation park, then tied the Dons Friday in Southside Intermediate league.

Seals	200 000—2
Stars	310 13x—8

A 4-run second inning was enough for the Dons to blank Solons 6-0 Thursday.

Dons	041 100—6-2

THE BLUES split in Northside Junior league games this past week but lead that division with a 4-1 mark. Blues traded 4-run innings with Gophers Tuesday at Recreation park, but won 7-5. The Sox showed no respect for the Blues Friday 11-1, scoring in every inning.

Gophers	014 0—5-1
Blues	040 3—7-1
Sox	212 231—11
Blues	000 010— 1

The Badgers and Millers played to a 10-10 tie Monday.

Badgers	120 43—10-5
Millers	520 12—10-5

THE BISONS took a 2-0 lead over the Badgers Wednesday but saw the score tied in the second. Bisons then went ahead 5-2 in the fifth but Badgers came back with 4 runs and the game in the bottom of that frame.

Bisons	200 030—5-4
Badgers	002 04x—6-4

The Bisons copped a 7-1 decision over Millers Thursday, scoring in 4 of 6 frames at Recreation park.

Millers	100 000—1-5
Bisons	201 31x—7-6

The Millers found the Gophers to their liking Friday, drubbing out an 18-1 decision.

Millers	345 24—18-16

THE SPARTANS won 2 more games this past week to continue their lead in Southside Junior league. The leaders had to go all the way to edge the Padres 9-8 Monday at South park, but had an easier time Wednesday against Angels 6-1.

Spartans	051 12—9-4
Padres	132 11—8-3
Angels	000 001—1-4
Spartans	020 40x—6-4

The Beavers proved eager in the 15-0 affair Tuesday.

Buckeyes	000 00— 0-4
Beavers	533 04—15-8

The Angels whipped Beavers Thursday at South park 10-5.

Angels	014 140—10-5
Beavers	003 012— 6-5

The Beavers set some sort of record Saturday when they blasted Oaks 39-6 in a long 4-inning game at South park. The winners scored 19 in the first, 4 in the second, and 16 in the third. The Oaks tallied 5 times in the first inning, and once in the second.

Padres	242 22—10

To Lead Marines In Mock Warfare At Santa Fe Speedway

Lt. Col. Thomas Bruns 318 S. Emerson St., Mt. Prospect, commanding officerof the ninth infantry battalion marine corps reserve will have charge of a demonstration of an attack on a fortified "enemy" pillbox Sunday, June 17, during intermission between the program of eight stock car races at Santa Fe Speedway, 91st and Wolf Road, Willow Springs.

Using the latest combat weapons, including flame throwers, rocket launchers, grenades and demolition Lt. Col. Burns will lead his Chicago unit as they demonstrate the battle tactics used in the Pacific during World War II and the Korean Conflict at 9 P.M.

A full program of stock car races, including women drivers, a 25-lap team race will highlight the festivities beginning at 8:30 p.m.

O'Hare Stadium To Open Sunday

BY BUD BOOTH

O'Hare Stadium, Chicagoland's newest and finest auto racing track, throw. open its gates for a gala grand opening this Sunday evening, June 17th, with a full card of thrilling stock car events. The track is conveniently located a quarter-mile south of Irving Park and Mannheim rds.

Races on this clean, asphalt speedway will continue weekly on a Friday and Sunday night basis with many of the midwest's top speed creation chauffeurs slated to compete regularly. The highly banked racing surface is expected to produce record speeds from the very start.

SPECTATORS will not only thrill to the action through the turns and down the swift straightaways, but will also be happy with the lack of dirt and dust always apparent at the so-called clay speedways. The management is earnestly endeavoring to introduce this sport of chills and spills to as many newcomers as old fans.

Gates into the grounds which house permanent structures for refreshments of all types and other conveniences for patrons will open promptly at 6 p.m. Sunday. The over 8,000 permanent seats afford excellent views of the entire track from all angles.

PERSONS PLANNING to attend are advised that O'Hare Stadium can be easily reached by either Irving Park rd. (Rte. 19) or Mannheim rd. (rte. 45). The entrance to the grounds and large parking area is located on the west side of Mannheim, a very short distance south of Irving Park.

Plan now to attend the opening card of stock car races at their best this Sunday evening and the management feels sure that you'll be returning for many nights of thrilling speed activity throughout the season. Time trials Sunday are at 7 p.m. with the first race set for 8:30 p.m. (Sp

Redwings Top Kolskis In 5th Straight Victory

Arlington Heights Redwings semipro baseball team swept on to their fifth straight win in the Greater Chicago league by knocking off defending champion Kolski Boosters 6-4 in a real thriller. Going into the eighth inning the locals were down 4-3 and rallied for 3 runs, mainly due to 2 mighty triples by Dick Sassi and Dick Bokelmann sandwiched around a bunt single by Lloyd Meyer.

Thus the Redwings have a 2-game lead in the league standings over the second place clubs. Three teams are tied for second place with 3-3 while the Redwings now have 5-1 with their only loss in the opening game to the Kolskis.

ALL KOLSKI runs were earned but were due to the miserable condition of the field. After shortstop Willie Kozlowski lined to Sassi, Modzierz was credited with a hit when his easy grounder hit the big ridge in the infield and bounced high over Sassi's head for a single. Big Ed Kolosowski then obliged with a perfect double play ball towards second base.

Just as Tony Esposito, Redwing shortstop, was about to pick it up it hit the base and bounced crazily into center field. Ted Hoffman then boomed a triple to center and scored on an infield out. The other run came when Hoffman hit a drive to right field that looked like a single and then bounced high over Whitey Ebeling's head for a home run.

WHILE BOKELMANN was taking care of the Kolski hitters, the Redwings piled up 13 hits including 4 by Lloyd Meyer who also scored twice. Included in the attack were 2 hits and 3 runs batted in by Boke, 2 hits by Esposito, and 2 hits by Bud Blumenthal.

This Sunday the Collier Boosters of Oak Park invade Recreation Park for another tough one. The Redwings eaked out a close win last time against Oak Park 2-0 but the visitors are much improved of late and have since won three straight to climb to second place along with the Kolskis and the threatening Skokie Indians.

State & Rand, Peterson Floor Tie For 3rd In Old Orchard Scratch

A. Harris with a 35 against E. Doyle led the "scratchers" in the Friday night league shooting par golf except for one bogey and one birdie. One over par shooters to win matches for their teams included H. Cokenhauer of M. W. Kamps Signs against L. Flynn of L-Nor Cleaners, D. Burkett of Webber Paint against D .Hager of Flaherty's Jewelers ,and B. Waara of Cork and Bottle against E. Spacapan of Griffith Insurance. W. Haake's one over par for M. W. Kamps Signs halved the match with W. Rolfs of L-Nor Cleaners.

State and Rand's 5½ points led the point collectors with L. Arnold's 37 against C. Berlin leading the way. Team assists were given by H. Kamp's 38 over M. Michgelson and B. Hornbostel's 39 against S. Fill. S. Richmond and F. Matyas tied to give Peterson Floor their ½ point.

Smith & Dawsons' 5 points jumped them from 9th to 6th place. M. Graft led the field for S. & D. to beat B. Kronn. Other team winners were D. Musser against J. Newbauer and H. Bengel against V. Hoffman.

Arnold And Lee Shoot Pars In Rob Roy Tuesday Golf

Rob Roy Tuesday night league has learned why the 30 shooters were so far and few between. Pat McDonald, owner and pro of the course, has added a few more strategic traps to make some of the holes a little more sporty.

For the first time this year we have a few par shooters, 2 of which occurred on the front nine:

Par	4	5	4	3	4	4	4	3	4—35
Arnold	4	4	4	3	4	4	4	4	4—35
Lee	5	4	4	3	4	3	4	3	5—35

Gunnell Recreation whitewashed Ehler and Wenborg 9-0 behind the par shooting of Bert Casteel. This lopsided victory gained them three points on the leading pharmacy team.

Par	4	4	3	5	4	4	4	4	4—36
Casteel	4	4	3	4	4	4	5	4	4—36

THE PHARMACY team gained a 6 to 3 victory over Michael's IGA by winning two matches and taking the 4 team points.

Jacob's Hardware and Supply gained a point and a half on the leading pharmacy by beating Prospect Heights service station 7½ to 1½. Bob Lee is the answer to the Hardware Store victory coupled with Harvey Lauffmann's 39 it became a rout. Prospect Heights variety handed the L-Nor Cleaners a 7 to 2 reversal which makes the Cleaners almost out of reach of the Paddock Tourney.

The league had another 4-man shoot a 39. This time it was Dick Brodnan and he finally put Smith & Dawson on the map with a 5-4 win over Kirchhoff Insurance. Dick carried an 11 handicap with his 39 to set a new season low net of 28.

LEN ARNOLD'S return to form gave the C. P. Floor and Wall Covering a 9 to 0 win over Dunteman Dairy. This loss is a hard blow to take for the milkmen since it puts them practically out of contention for the Paddock Tourney.

Hartman House eked out a close win over Park Ridge Stop and Sock 5½ to 3½ behind a one over par by Don Hager.

Prospect Heights Pharmacy vs. Prospect Heights Variety.

Fisherman Wins 2½ Hr. Battle But Guess Who Gets The Fish

by THOMAS MURPHY

A patient fisherman always gets his quarry.

Dwight Dawes, Arlington Heights, in Madison, Wisc., on a visit, hadn't been fishing all year. He brought his spinning rod, tackle, and hopes with him.

Came Saturday afternoon he took his rod, three children, and, again, his hopes with him—down to Lake Monona on the North Western trestle.

Dawes was there about 10 minutes when z-z-zing, his line went out and the slim rod bowed gracefully to its task. He had hooked a big one, but didn't know how big. He kept feeding line to the fish and a 2-hour and 40-minute battle between man and fish was one.

OTHER FSHERMAN on the bank forgot about their lines for awhile as Dawes' children shouted encouragement to him.

The children's shouts brought Law Park picnickers and passers-by to the scene. The crowd kept on growing until some 400 people were watching the battle.

Some spectators, who didn't get close enough to see the true story, must have called an ambulance, thinking someone had fallen into the Monona waters.

The ambulance came and went, and passing police cars stopped to investigate, no danger, but lots of fun and shouts of "Hope he gets 'em." And "wow, look at it."

THE BIG FISH broke water several times in futile efforts to rid itself of the chub or snap the line. Shoreside guessers estimated the fish to be about 3 feet long, a real whopper for Dawes 6-pound test line.

Dawes, an accountant with the Chicago division of Allstate Insurance Co., knew the fish was too tough for his line unless he could wait and play it out.

He did.

The fight moved from the trestle along the north shore about 100 yards, give and take all the way. Dawes finally got the struggling fish close enough to the bank so he could step in a borrowed boat.

Someone offered a gaff, another paddle power, and Dawes moved some 25 feet offshore, willing to let the fish pull the boat and tire itself.

THE MOUNTING crowd kept hurling encouragement at Dawes and loudly shouted off boaters who kept corwding Dawes' craft. At one time an even dozen boats were watching the fight, one in particular.

The fish pulled and Dawes gave, the fish gave and Dawes reeled in the line. The fish struggled with the line, pulling the boat back along the trestle and about 50 yards south of it.

It wasn't giving up yet and Dawes certainly wasn't—he had already been fighting the fish for over two hours.

Dawes shifted hands, lit another cigarette—he smoked about a package—and shook the numbness from his right wrst.

The boat wasn't moving as quckly now, and more alert spectators felt the man had nearly won the battle, but could he land it with his extremely light line?

THE WATCHING boats moved closer, especially one, wanting to get the first look at the fish as it broke water for the final time.

It finally did. Exhausted. Gusty cheers and applause echoed in the white-bellied, black-backed fish.

The crowd moved closer and the watching boats edged to shore, especially one.

The fish was a beauty, a 47-inch lake sturgeon, estimated to weigh about 40 pounds—taken with a 6-pound test line and a lot of patience, toil, and encouragement.

THE 400-ODD spectators cheered as Dawes held the fish up for their approval, but one had a little smirk, not jealous, but rather sorry for Dawes.

You see, sturgeon are out of season, and the man with the sorry smirk was O. G. Grant, 625 S. Shore dr., a game warden. He won the fish in the end but Dawes won the battle and the cheers of the throng. Grant drew the hoots, hollers and boos as he putt-putted away with the fish. (Sp

Local Youths In State Tennis Meet

Ninety-one entries in three divisions will vie for state tennis honors this week at the Illinois junior chamber of commerce junior tennis championships June 14-16 Eastern Illinois State college at Charleston.

Top-seedd James Jeffries, 1956 state high school singles champion from Hinsdale, heads a field of 43 entries in the boys 18 and under division. Mary Riessen, also of Hinsdale, is seeded No. 1 in the boys 15 and under division, while Joyce Taylor of Peoria received the top seed in the girls 18 and under group.

Jeffries is expected to get strong opposition from Tom Brunkow of Oak Park, seeded No. 2; Joe Epkins of Pekin, seeded No. 3; and Don Garver of Decatur, seeded No. 4. Riessen was the only entry seeded in his group. Seeded in addition to Taylor in the girls' division were Jean Hofer of Peoria and Martha Bell of Decatur.

The tournament, slated to get underway at 1 p.m. Thursday, is sanctioned by the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association.

Local entries include Celia Close of Arlington Heights, Keith Butterfield of Mt. Prospect and Thurston Brown of Prospect Heights. Celia will oppose Beckie Reeder of Dixon Keith will meet Mike Strange of Charleston and Thurston will oppose Jon Kibler of Charleston. (Sp

Cut rabbits into serving pieces, dredge in seasoned flour, and fry in bacon drippings in a deep skillet until brown. Remove meat, blend 1 tablespoon flour with fat in pan, add ½ teaspoon sugar, ½ teaspoon salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper; liquid from 1 four-oz. can of mushrooms plus sufficient water to make 2 cups, and 3 tablespoons vinegar. Return meat to this thin gravy and simmer for 1 hour.

When meat is finished, thicken gravy by adding a little to 1 tablespoon flour which has been dissolved in a few tablespoons of cold water, then return to pan. Stir until thickened. Add chopped mushrooms and pour over meat

Italy Builds Home For Deported U. S. Gangsters

by BILL DILLINGHAM

Italy's first residence building for homeless gangsters is being established. It is mainly intended to accommodate "American" racketeers who have been deported.

Father Blandino della Croce has located a building in the quiet outskirts of Rome which he hopes will be to the liking of these "American" deportees.

Honorable work, a pleasant invironment and even Italian lessons are some of the establishment's features.

LUCKY LUCIANO, the ex-gangster who now works in an unexciting medical-supplies firm of Naples, is lending financial support and know-how to the plan. Joe Adonis, another but more recent celebrity who reached Italy through persuasion of the U. S. immigration department, said he will donate money for the gardening equipment and 2 pool tables.

During recent years, numerous petty gangsters have been forcefully returned to Italy. The notorious deportees usually have enough money with which to live in ease for the rest of their lives. It is the "unsuccessful" gangster, the one who walks ashore in Naples, or Genova with very little money and sometimes speaking no Italian, that Father Blandino della Croce wishes to help.

WITH ALL THOSE boys together in one house," Lucky Luciano said in a recent Italian radio interview, "Father Blandino shouldn't expect things perfect at first." Later on he added, "It's a great idea. Just what the boys need. A piece of the States they can go to."

Father Blandino does not frown on billiard tables, but cards and gambling will be discouraged. The men will work at making odd things and from this it is hoped the establishment can support itself. A juke box will be installed and a Coca-Cola machine has been promised. "We want it to be like home," Father Blandino said. (ill

IN THE SHADOW OF THE STEEPLE

Church Union Closer Despite 'Immaturity'

by WLLIAM O. MCGILL

Many persons wonder whether the churches in America will ever get together.

Probably this will come in time, but until it happens it is fairly clear that efforts to divide the churches are likely to fail.

A case in point might be the separatist groups in the Presbyterian church for the past 20 years or so.

The Bible Presbyterian church has this spring, resigned its membership in both the American Council of Churches and the International Council of Churches.

THESE COUNCILS are the organizations which usually meet just before, or while, the National Council of Churches and the World Council of Churches are meeting. Their publicity releases usually accuse the larger groups of communistic leanings and other un-Christian tendencies, particularly unsoundness in faith.

In the early thirties, an independent board of missions was organized by Presbyterian ministers and churches. Carl McIntire, currently self-styled as "Protestants' No. 1 Anti-Communist Clergyman," was one of the leaders of this group. After several years, several of these men were d posed from hte ministry of the Presbyterian church. They formed the Presbyterian Church of America (because of a court action, this group later became the Orthodox Presbyterian church).

BUT THE SPLIT had split within a year, and the Bible Presbyterian church, led by Carl McIntire, had been formed. Now, primarily in reaction against the McIntire leadership, the Bible Presbyterians have withdrawn from so-called interdenominational bodies.

It is no secret that the Bible Presbyterians are the strength of both the councils. Theirs is the largest denomination.

How large?

Well, after nineteen years they have 198 ministers, 86 churches, and 8,248 members — of whom about 1600 are in the Collingswood, N. J., Church where Carl McIntire is minister.

THE RELATIVELY conservative, Presbyterian Outlook, magazine of the "southern" Presbyterian church has recently reported "the miserable story" of the Bible Presbyterian troubles under the text, "For they sow the wind, and they shall reap the shirlwind" (Hosea 8:7).

The Outlook suggests that these [illegible] made much of their "second degree separation." It goes on to question whether rigidity in the church and emphasis on purity as defined by mortal men is not leading to "third-degree separation" and ultimately to "fourth-degree." In that latter case, presumably no individual will have any religious dealings with anyone else.

IN THE MEANTIME, growing churches tend to continue to discuss union, they continue to work together in councils of churches.

Sure, htere are times when the commitment of individual members is less than we wish it were.

There are times when the Gospel is compromised by the persons who profess it. But they are in a position with sufficient commitment to permit them to be led by the Spirit. They are in churches which are praying for and working for a development toward Christian maturity.

The separating groups seem to be trapped in a sterile immaturity which knows nothing more than a tendency to snap at others in a querulous and sometimes untruthful manner. (B10

State's Attorney Opens New Office For Northwest

State's Attorney John Gutknecht this week announced the opening of a new suburban office in the Cook county sheriff's Station at Milwaukee ave. and Ballard rd.

The new office will serve northwest Cook county outside of Chicago.

Gutknecht stated that the rapid growth in population in the incorporated and unincorporated areas of this part of the county require additional facilities, if the citizens, businessmen and law enforcement officers are to get the service they need.

ASSISTANT State's Attorney Thomas J. Halpin, former chief of the fraud and complaint department has been placed in charge of the new suburban office. The telephone number is VA 7-3370 and VA 7-2144.

This is the fifth office established in the suburban area by the state's attorney's office. When Gutknecht came into office in December, 1952, Evanston and Oak Park were the only offices in the suburban department and were served by 2 men. Now the area has been divided into 5 separate districts, served by a total of 7 men. (B7

June 10-17 Moose Week In Illinois

Gov. William G. Stratton has proclaimed the week of June 10-17 as Moose week throughout Illinois, according to word received from the governor's executive office.

Peter Van Dyke, governor of Des Plaines Moose, has announced that the local lodge will observe the week by taking part in a giant pilgrimage to Mooseheart, Ill. An open house will be held at Des Plaines lodge on June 13 starting at 7:30 p.m.

The public is invited to the open house. A program has been planned which will include the showing of the Mooseheart film "Faith of their Fathers." The movie pictures Mooseheart life and features the famous and beautiful House of God, the only edifice in the world devoted to the worship of children of all faiths.

THE pilgrimage to Mooseheart is the 19th annual Illinois day celebration. A giant enrollment ceremony for more than 1,000 new members will be a highlight of the day. Some new members of Des Plaines Moose will be included in this ceremony.

Mooseheart is the home and school where the Loyal Order of Moose cares for nearly 800 children of deceased members.

Dolores Rohde Marries Lawrence A. Wilkening

Immanuel Lutheran church in Palatine was the scene of a double ring ceremony May 26 in which Miss Dolores Elaine Rohde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. Rohde. 322 S. Plum Grove ave., Palatine, became the bride of Lawrence A. Wilkening, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Wilkening of Nerge rd., Roselle.

The candlelight service was held at 7 p.m. and the Rev. Hilmar Th. Rosenberg officiated. White gladioli and carnations decorated the altar and candelabra, greens and large white satin bows marked the pews. Paul E. Leimer was organist and accompanied Walter Rueger as he sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin with gathered embroidered nylon tulle layers trimmed with irridescent sequins. The gown was made with a long train and an irridescent sequinned crown held her fingertip veil. She carried a cascade of white roses and lily of the valley with long white satin streamers.

Miss Janet Schumacher was maid of honor and wore a sky blue ballerina-length gown of nylon net with matching stole. Her shoes and carnation bouquet were dyed to match her gown. Her cascade of flowers was also tied with matching blue ribbons.

The Misses Betty Fiene, Edie Stuerzebecher and Bette Shepherd were bridesmaids and Janice Rohde, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. The maids wore gowns fashioned identically to the maid of honor's gown in shades of pink, orchid, aqua and yellow, respectively. They also carried cascades of carnations to match their gowns. The rhinestone beaded tiaras worn by the attendants were designed and made by the bride.

Four-year-old Sharon Friese was flower girl wearing a sky blue floor-length gown with hooped skirt. She carried a basket of the blue carnations. The bridegroom's 4-year-old nephew, Alan Wilkening, was ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rohde wore a pink lace dress while the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Wilkening, wore a blue lace dress. Both mothers wore corsages of white amazon lilies with sweetheart rosebuds in the center of each lily.

Clarence Wilkening was his brother's best man and Nowell Fiene, Ralph Wilkening, also a brother of the bridegroom, Elmer Rohde Jr., brother of the bride, and Wesley Flentge were ushers.

A buffet supper was served to 525 guests in Palatine Fireman's hall.

The couple honeymooned the first week in June and are now residing at 108 N. Brockway, Palatine. Mr. Wilkening and his bride were both graduated from Palatine township high school. Mrs. Wilkening is employed by Universal Oil Products in Des Plaines and the bridegroom by George's Beverages in Palatine.

Janet Stade Is Bride Of Richard Engelking

Miss Janet Marie Stade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stade, 919 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights, and Richard A. Engelking, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Engelking, 201 S. Highland, Arlington Heights, repeated marriage vows May 26 in St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church before the Rev. Luther V. Stephan.

The candlelight service was held at 6:30 p.m. with Ottomar Kolb as organist and Eugene Freeman as soloist. Wedding selections were "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of ivory satin fashioned princess style with lace inserts, scoop neckline and bustle. The skirt ended in a cathedral train and a net headpiece with seed pearls held her illusion veil. Stephanotis and white roses made up her bridal bouquet.

Mauve chiffon taffeta was worn by the bride's attendants. The gowns were floor-length and fashioned with long torsos and scoop necklines. They wore headpieces to match their gowns and carried baskets of roses and carnations. Mrs. Fred Perschon was her sister's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Renata Landmeier, Mrs. Joyce Juhnke and Diane Stade, sister of the bride. Mrs. Perschon's flowers were red roses with green-tinted carnations while the bridesmaids' were red roses with pink carnations.

Mrs. Stade received the 450 wedding guests in a Dior blue silk taffeta dress with white accessories and a pink rose corsage. Mrs. Engelking received in a blue and white nylon dress with white accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The reception was held in Arlington Heights VFW hall after which the newlyweds left on a 2-week honeymoon in northern Minnesota. They are temporarily residing with the bride's parents until their own home in Palatine is completed.

Both Mr. Engelking and his bride were graduated from Arlington Heights township high school. Mrs. Engelking is employed by American Viscose Corp. in Chicago while Mr. Engelking is with Deiber's Service station in Arlington Heights. (Bak Studio

Plum Grove rd., Palatine became the bride of Dudley Sigurd Schultz, son of Mrs. Helga Schultz, 49 W. Slade, Palatine, Minister Pendegras of Christ church in Des Plaines, officiated at the 3:45 service.

Two stands of white carnations and greens formed the setting for the ceremony and a pink and white bouquet of peonies, weigelia and French lilacs stood on the piano. Mrs. Alice Stromson was pianist and rendered the wedding march.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white embroidered eyelet fashioned with full skirt, fitted bodice, scoop neckline and capped sleeves. A face veil fell from a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis tied with white satin streamers.

The bride was attended by her sisters, Miss Jeffrey Anne Rorex and 6-year-old Mary Fons Rorex. As maid of honor, Jeffrey wore a bouffant pink voile dress trimmed with white lace. She carried a bouquet of white daisies tied with blue ribbons. Mary Fons was flower girl and wore a yellow cotton dress with embroidered organdy collar. She carried a basket of lilies of the valley.

Albert Hammer of Palatine was best man to the bridegroom.

Only the immediate families were in attendance at the ceremony and the reception which followed.

Mrs. Schultz and his bride left on a 2-week honeymoon trip to Colorado after which they will reside at 49 W. Slade st., Palatine.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Palatine high school and attended Elgin Community college. The bridegroom also attended pharmacist school in Chicago and is now a pharmacist at Coleman's Rexall drugs in Palatine. (Bak Studio

Art Instructress Marries In Paris

Word has been received here of the marriage of Mrs. Kay Campbell, art instructor at Arlington Heights Junior high school who has been abroad on sabbatical leave, to Marcel Loubet May 18 at 10 a.m. by a Parisian judge in the office of the Mairie in Paris, France. Mr. Loubet, who is related to the former president of France, and his bride took a short wedding trip through Germany and Luxembourg.

The bride, a graduate of Northern Illinois State college, De Kalb, as well as a graduate of the Art Institute, Chicago, has been studying during her leave at the Sorbonne in Paris. Mr. Loubet is engaged in electronic work and during the past few months has been setting up electronic systems in factories in France, England and Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Loubet are leaving from Le Havre, France July 5 aboard the liner Queen Mary which will dock in New York City July 11. They will be at home temporarily at 111 Clinton, Park Ridge. Mrs. Loubet plans to continue her teaching career, working part time in the Junior high school and devoting the balance of her time to her duties of art consultant in the Arlington Heights elementary schools.

Annual Rose Show

More than 1000 specimens of old fashioned roses, hybrid teas, floribundas, climbers, new variety grandifloras and scores of rose arrangements will be shown at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, when the annual rose show of the Chicago Regional Rose society will be held at Downers Grove National bank.

Glenview Woman Will Represent Local Zeta

Mrs. Earnest Christensen of Glenview, has been selected as official delegate of North Shore Alumnae chapter, of which Arlington Heights women belong, to the 23rd national and 12th international convention of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority to be held June 19-24 in Spring Lake, N. J. This will be the first conclave that Zeta Tau Alpha has held in New Jersey.

The convention program will include various awards to college and alumnae chapters, business sessions and social events.

After operating a health center in the mountains of Virginia for 18 years, the sorority's service program since 1947 has been the treatment and training of cerebral palsied children, cooperating with the Cerebral Palsy division of the National society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., the Easter Seal society, in the publiaction of a cerebral palsy equipment manual for which it appropriated many thousands of dollars.

The manual, invaluable in its field, has received world wide acclaim and was so eagerly sought abroad that in 1952 Zeta Tau Alpha decided to extend its services into other countries by allotting 300 cerebral palsy manuals for distribution in foreign countries in sympathy with our democratic way of life. Crippled children in 41 countries were helped.

Continuing work for the cerebral palsied, Zeta's 1954-1956 project has been the furnishing of teaching slides and film strips for parent education.

Chairman of the convention, and presiding over the sessions will be the President, Mrs. Elliott Chapman of Cincinnati. (Soc

Arlene Wede Becomes Mrs. Donald J. Hansen

In a 7 o'clock service June 2 in St. Luke Lutheran church, Itasca, Miss Arlene Joyce Wede, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wede, Lawrence ave. and route 53, Itasca, and Donald J. Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen of Elgin were married by the Rev. Kurt Grotheer. The church was decorated with baskets of carnations, gladioli, and snap dragons. Palms and greens marked the pews.

Organist was Waldemar D. Bloch and soloist was Donna Voltz who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The 23rd Psalm."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of point d'esprit edged with hand-clipped chantilly lace and made with a brush sweep train. The fitted bodice had a wide lace-trimmed scooped neckline and long tapered sleeves. The skirt had a lace-trimmed apron, revealing 6 tiers of lace trim point d'esprit in back. Her veil was held in place with a small half hat of chantilly lace trimmed with pearls and she carried white carnations and stephanotis in her cascade bouquet.

Miss Esther Von Bergen of Itasca was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Dolores Botterman of Schaumburg, Miss Carol Kolzow of Itasca and Miss Carol Wede of Arlington Heights. Miss Joycelyn Gay Pingel of Arlington Heights was junior bridesmaid. Their gowns were identical and made of embroidered nylon over taffeta. The maid of honor's gown was in blue and the bridesmaids in pink, green and orchid and they carried cascades of flowers to contrast with their gowns. They also wore rhinestone chokers and earrings, gifts from the bride.

The bride's 6-year-old sister, Irene Wede, was flower girl and wore a blue gown and carried blue flowers. Dale Gilbert Hansen, 4-year-old nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of pale blue linen while the bridegroom's mother wore a dress of orlon linen in aqua. Both mothers wore white accessories and corsages of pink roses.

David Hansen, twin brother of the bridegroom from Elgin, was best man and ushers were Robert Wilms of Elgin, Arthur Kuhlman Jr. of Arlington Heights, James Beisterfeld of Roselle and Harry Hansen of Elgin. Mr. Hansen was junior usher.

Bensenville firehouse was the scene of the wedding reception which was attended by 475 guests. Buffet supper was served.

Mr .and Mrs. Hansen are spending a 2-week honeymoon touring Wisconsin, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Wyoming and Colorado. They will be at home after June 15 on Medinah rd., Itasca.

The new Mrs. Hansen was graduated from Glenbard high school and is now employed by Itasca State bank. The bridegroom was graduated from Barrington high school and spent 2 years in the army, most of which time he was stationed in Japan. He is now employed in an engraving shop in St. Charles. Rev. Glenn G. Gumm officiated at the 3 p.m. service during which the nuptial selections, "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Promise Me" were sung by Mrs. Berg.

Entering the church with her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length nylon lace and net gown over taffeta with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of carnations and lilies.

Miss Marilyn Miller was maid of honor wearing a white and pink nylon dress. She carried a bouquet of carnations with pink ribbons. Miss Philis Bruce of Des Plaines was bridesmaid and wore a light blue 2-piece dress. She carried carnations with blue ribbons. Linda Lou Lamping, 8, was flower girl. Her pink suit was complemented with white hat and gloves and a bouquet of carnations tied with pink ribbons.

Kenneth Miller was best man and Joseph Lamping, usher.

Fifty guests attended the wedding reception held on the lawn of the bride's parents' home. Guests were present from Westmont, Chicago, Glenview, Union Grove, Palatine, Lake Zurich and Arlington Heights. The bride's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Goetz of Chicago and Mrs. John Lamping of Union Grove, were among the guests.

The new Mrs. Miller was graduated from Palatine high school and is employed by Littelfuse Corp. in Des Plaines. Her bridegroom was graduated form Marengo high school and is emplyed by E. W. A. Rowles Co. in Arlington Heights.

Park Ridge Art League To Hold Annual Art Fair

Park Ridge Art League will hold its fourth annual art fair Saturday and Sunday, June 16 and 17 in Hodges park, Park Ridge.

Art leagues in the surrounding communities of Oak Park, Austin, River Forest and Des Plaines have been invited to exhibit at the fair. Last year, over 1,000 visitors enjoyed some 200 works of art by 50 artists at this annual event.

"Working" artists on the scene have always been an interesting feature of these fairs. This year, there will be Park Ridge Art league artists working in water color, oils, sketches, charcoal and ceramics and several guest artists working in other medium.

Davo Hirsch of Chicago will do on-the-spot carricatures and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Barinholtz will show their enamel and mosaic tile work.

Any non-member interested in showing work at the fair may telephone the fair chairman, C. J. Lanckhoff at VA 4-2554. (Soc

Favorites For Flavor

Here is picnic fare with appeal! The recipes shared with us today by Mrs. James J. Griffin are good whether eaten indoors or out.

The first is for Baked Beans, made simple by using canned Pork and Beans or Beans with Tomato Sauce. However, the canned beans are dressed up with bacon, celery and onion and flavored with ketchup, molasses, brown sugar and Tabasco sauce.

These beans can be made days in advance; in fact, it is one of those dishes that improves as the flavors mingle, and should be prepared at least a day before it is served.

Mrs. Griffin is always asked to bring this tasty dish to pot luck parties, and it is excellent picnic fare.

Norwegian Meat Balls are an excellent accompaniment for the beans, and Mrs. Griffin prepares them from a recipe which has been in her family for years.

Made of finely ground beef, they are simple to prepare, and are also good prepared in advance of the serving date.

The Griffins live at 313 Can-Dota in Mt. Prospect. They have 3 daughters: Elizabeth, 6, Margaret, 5, and Catherine, 1.

Mrs. Griffin is a member of the Country Club Estates bridge club and St. Raymond Catholic Womans club.

She also belongs to a book club which meets in Chicago.

Baked Beans

2 to 3 slices bacon, chopped
½ to 1 cup celery, chopped
½ cup onion, chopped fine
1 No. 2 can Pork and Beans or Beans with Tomato Sauce
4 tablespoons catsup
2 tablespoons molasses
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 drops Tabasco sauce

Saute small pieces of bacon with celery and onions until soft. Then mix with remaining ingredients.

Bake ½ hour at 375 degrees. (Can cover beans with slices of bacon while baking, if desired.)

Norwegian Meat Balls

Round steak, ground 4 or times

For each pound of beef use:
1 tablespoon cornstarch
½ cup Half and Half
1 teaspoon salt
Dash of Accent (optional)

Work cornstarch, Half and Half and salt into the meat. Form into small meat balls and brown.

Add water or vegetable juice and bouillon cubes. Let simmer for 5 minutes.

Can be served immediately or the next day.

Graduation Party

Last Thursday the eighth grade had a graduation party in the school auditorium. Those present were the eighth graders, teachers, Mr. Rabbattini, Mrs. Grosche, Mr. and Mrs. H. Coston and Mr. and Mrs. R. Turner, and the seventh grade mothers serving. Mrs. Coston is the eighth grade home room teacher. The class chose "An Evening in Paris" as the theme for the party. Tables were set in a semi-circle facing the stage with a candle on each table, which served as the sole lighting. Dancers gathered in the center. During the party the class presented Mrs. Coston with a gift, an electric fry pan. The party lasted from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m., when it broke up with the arrival of parents and the fond farewells by the class of '56.

The Elk Grove school picnic was held Sunday in the extreme south portion of Elk Grove forest preserve. After lunch, refreshments and recreation were enjoyed by children and adults alike. The children's races, pre-school to eighth grade, were held early in the afternoon and prizes were given to the winners.

A baseball game was played between the men and older boys. The men won by a score of 8 to 6.

June 4 the boys' baseball team at Elk Grove had a game with the Highwood team. The game was held at Highwood and Elk Grove won, 5-4. It was an exciting game.

What Elk Grove Teachers Will Be Doing This Summer

Mrs. Gebbie, first grade teacher, will go on a trip and tour of California during August.

June 11 Mrs. Klingler, third grade teacher, will receive a bachelor of science degree in education from the college which she attended Saturdays during the last year. She is very proud to have this degree. Mrs. Klingler will also take a motor trip in July to the Rockefeller lodge in the Tetons in Wyoming. Accompanying her will be Mrs. Muriel Scott, secretary of Mt. Prospect schools. From there they will visit Yellowstone National park, Glacier park and others.

Mrs. Runo, the other third grade teacher, will go to Detroit for a couple of weeks and then settle down at home.

The fourth grade teacher, Mrs. Allison, will take a trip with her family in August, otherwise she will be at home.

Mrs. Spath will attend the centennial at DeKalb after school is out. She may take graduate work at De Kalb and later will visit the Ozarks.

Fifth grade teacher, Edward Breskey, will work during the summer in the Skokie post office.

Mrs. Gregersen, the 6-1 home room teacher and mathematics instructor, will leave to live in Los Angeles, where she will teach.

Mrs. Grosche, 6-2 home room teacher, home economics teacher for girls and health teacher for boys, will teach Bible school for 2 weeks after school is out. She will attend the Red Cross camp, which she was invited to as a representative, and later she will visit northern Michigan.

Both Rodney Turner and Anthony Rabbattini, 7-1 and 7-2 home room teachers and science and social science teacher for Junior High, will work at store construction work during the summer.

Mrs. Coston, eighth grade home room teacher and language arts teacher, will take a short trip to Pennsylvania, where her folks live, and then she will go to summer school at Northwestern university.

Mr. Case, music teacher, will settle down at home, since he and his family went to Texas during Easter vacation.

News Of Prospect Meadows

Prospect Meadows Home Owner's ssociation this Thurs d a y, June . in the Schon basement. This eeting will be the last one to be d in the Schon home and in the ture the association will meet the Durec basement.

...ce Ruther, Marie Stanke, Elaine Tanney and Lisa Wells met last Friday to plan the July fourth parade for children of the Meadows. A flyer giving details of the parade will be distributed soon by the block captains. As in previous years, anything on wheels may be decorated and now is the time to be making plans with the children for some winning entries.

The talent show committee, Kay Wilson, K a y Sepke, Rosemary Finch, Chris Pelletier and P a t Wrath met for lunch at Joyce Ruther's last Wednesday to make further plans for their August talent show. Anyone with talent of any type, who has not already been entered on the program is asked to please contact one of the committee members. The show will be presented in the park in the afternoon and Meadowites are invited to bring a box supper and stay for dancing after the show. Flyers, with more complete information, will be distributed in a few weeks.

And a reminder of the Prospect Meadows community fair July 7 and 8. The committee members have worked hard to make this an entertaining affair. Cooperate and everyone should do his share to make this fair a success.

The young baseball enthusiasts again turned out Saturday morning in the park for their weekly baseball sessions with Art Sepke, Bob Blim, John McGivney and Howard Johnson. The men have been working to get the baseball diamond in better shape, mowing the lawn and smoothing out the infield with a load of sand.

Stork News

The happy parents of a son, Steven Carl, are Skeets and Joyce Hoglund. Steven was born in Augustana hospital June 7 at 7:30 a.m. and weighed 7 pounds. His 2 sisters, Nancy and Susan are anxiously awaiting his arrival home from the hospital. Joyce's mother, Mrs. Lawrence Peterson of Jamestown, N. Y., has come to stay with the Hoglunds to lend a hand.

Another happy couple enjoying parenthood are Owen and Laverne Johnson. Many Meadowites will remember the Johnsons, who were f o r m e r residents of Prospect Meadows and moved to Minneapolis. They adopted a little girl when she was only 7 weeks old and named her Lisa Ellen. Owen and Laverne and their daughter, who is now 6 months old, were visiting friends in Mt. Prospect last week. Friday Laverne and her daughter were guests of honor at a luncheon given by Gert Derning. Other guests enjoying the luncheon were Evelyn Brandeau and her daughter, Judy, Nancy Alvin and daughters, Debbie and Beth, Bertha Hartmann and son, Billy, and Jean Kamps. Millie Webber, former neighbor of the Johnsons, also came to Gert Dernings to see Laverne and her baby.

In Hospital

Marge Kemppainen has been very ill in Resurrection hospital since May 31. Friends and neighbors are happy to hear that she has shown some improvement and hope that she will be able to come home soon. Anyone wishing to cheer her with a card may address it to room 211, Resurrection hospital. Marge's mother, Mrs. Winter, has been staying in the Meadows to take care of little Judy Kemppainen.

Birthdays

Sandy Sepke, daughter of Art and Kay Sepke, entertained her friends with a picnic lunch at Deer Grove woods on the occasion of her fifth birthday June 7. Kay Sepke, Sandy and her brother, David, and the guests, Cathy and Chris Durec, Jane and J o y c e Wrath, Mike, Susie and Karen Murdock and Merri Heurlin, were driven to the park by Marge Murdock and Millie Webber, where the children enjoyed party games and birthday refreshments.

The following Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Art Sepke Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Junkrowski were guests of the Sepkes for a triple birthday celebration honoring Sandy Sepke, whose birthday was June 7, Sheryl Sepke, whose birthday was June 13, and Mrs. Sepke Sr., who will celebrate her birthday June 16.

John and Pat Wrath entertained P a t's father, J. S c hweitzer of Glenview, Bill and Dorothy Seitz of Chicago and Jack and Mary Schweitzer and daughter, Nancy, of Chicago in their home Sunday to c e l e b r a t e Mr. Schweitzer's birthday. Saturday evening John and Pat were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Connell of Glenview.

In keeping with th custom of members of the Elizabeth Guild card club of the Episcopal church of Mt. Prospect of which Edna Vartanian is a members, she was hostess at a luncheon in her home to celebrate her birthday. Her guests were Grace Bignold, Irene Compton, V i d a Sargent, Cecil Wessling, Loretta Ryan, Nelia Owen and Myrtle Stickrod and t h e y presented Edna with a wrought iron magazine and newspaper stand. After the luncheon the ladies played cards.

An o u t d o o r birthday lunch brought playmates of Ricky Jenkins, daughter of Dick and Virginia Jenkins, together at her home Monday afternoon. Ricky was 6 years old June 11 and enjoying the h a p p y event with Ricky were her sisters, Janice and Candy, and playmates, Janice Wehrheim, Andrea Nye, Donna Anderson, Marsha Wells and Linda Battaglia.

Graduates

Five teenagers, from the Meadows, Dick Anderson, Nancy Jarm, Sandy Jenkins, Susan Nelson and Judy McReynolds, were among the 256 students graduating from junior high school in a ceremony at the Arlington Heights high school the evening of June 8. After the ceremony Dick's parents, Frank and Pearl Anderson, entertained the following relatives at their home: Mrs. O. J. Olson, Arthur Olson and Mr. and Mrs. J. Lindy. Guests at the home of Nancy and her parents, Fred and Carol Jarm, after the ceremony were relatives Mr. and Mrs. J. LaPlaca, Mrs. Moser and Mr. and Mrs. W. Siewert. Sandy and her parents, Dick and Virginia Jenkins, were hosts at an open house in their home for relatives and friends following the ceremony. Relatives also joined Susan and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence N e l s o n in their home Frida yevening. Celebrating with Judy and her mother, Mrs. Irene McReynolds, Friday evening was Judy's brother, Billy, and Mr. and Mrs. Sendt and their daughter, Tina.

Bruce Chaiser, Tommy Hehnen and Ronnie Richardson were the 3 boys from the Meadows in the graduating class of St. James. Graduation exercises were h e l d June 11 at the school. S u n d a y evening the students and their parents enjoyed a dinner dance together at St. James hall.

Leaving the Meadows

Bill and Dolores Creamer and their sons Jim, Steve and Larry, moved to their new home at 218 N. Eastwood in Mt. Prospect this week. Neighbors gave Dolores a farewell luncheon in the home of Dorothy Doyle last Wednesday. Guests present besides Dolores and Dorothy were Mary Jane N o r r i s, Ann Cody, I r e n e Marie Thrall, Mabel Boyer and Catherine Coughlin.

Guest for the weekend in the home of Lou and Clara Anderson was Mrs. O. Schultz of Chicago.

Kay Sepke and her children, Sandy, David and Sheryl, spent Sunday morning in Chicago visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Sepke Sr. In the afternoon they enjoyed dinner in the home of Doc and Lillian Eaves and after playing in a ball game, Art joined his wife and children at the Eaves home for Sunday supper.

Dick and Elaine Tanney attended the wedding of Elaine's cousin, Irene Berg, and Gilbert Bergner in St. Gertrude church Saturday afternoon and enjoyed the reception following the ceremony.

Joanne Richardson, daughter of Jack and Ginny Richardson, participated in a dance recital presented by the Dolores Eiler school of dance at the Lutheran activity building, Arlington Heights, Sunday afternoon.

Alice Weisenbach was hostess to Mrs. Muriel Hawkins of Arlington Heights and Laura Vogt of Prospect Heights at a luncheon in her home last Tueday. Sunday Charles and Alice Weisenbach and their daughters, Judy and Jill, and a friend, Avery Smith, spent the afternoon at Brookfield Zoo.

John and Eileen McNaughton spent an evening in the city recently enjoying dinner together and seeing "Oklahoma."

An outdoor supper was enjoyed by Charles and Helen Rank and their daughters, Charlene and Maryanne, of Oak Park at the home of Bert and Joyce Ruther last Sunday.

Last weekend the home of Chuck and Lorrie Brazeau was a very busy place. The famous Brazeau swimming pool was set up and Mickey and Linda Brazeau and their many playmates enjoyed a cool swim. Saturday the Brazeaus entertained Lorrie's 2 sisters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. J. Deegan of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. L. Murray of Evanston, with an outdoor barbecue dinner. Sunday another barbecue dinner at the Brazeaus was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. J. Hooton and children of Chicago, O. J. Manthey, Mr. and Mrs. Sabitt and children of Prospect Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Porter and children of Melrose Park, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Sacks and children and Mrs. H. Sacks of Bensenville.

Here's the Reason Why

Several families who have attended one of our services for the first time have expressed surprise at the relatively low cost of a Lauterburg-Oehler funeral service. The answer is simple: We serve so many families that we can provide our excellent facilities and equipment at a lower unit cost.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science services Sunday, June 17.

Man's God-given dominion over material laws and limitations will be set forth in readings from the King James Version of the Bible and from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Among the selections to be read from Science and Health is the following (307:26): "Man was not created from a material basis, nor bidden to obey material laws which Spirit never made; his province is in spiritual statues, in the higher law of Mind."

The golden Text is from Psalms (95:3, 4): "The Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his hands are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also."

Select New Readers For Mother Church, Christian Scientist

ARNOLD H. EXO

Arnold H. Exo of Chicago, and Miss Leslie Harris of Birmingham, Ala., were named First and Second Readers, respectively, of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. June 4.

As First Reader, Mr. Exo will conduct the Sunday services and Wednesday evening meetings. At Sunday services he will read from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. Miss Harris, as Second Reader, will read from the Bible during the Sunday services.

Mr. Exo comes to the post from The Christian Science Board of Lectureship, of which he has been a member since 1953.

Since 1941 he has devoted his full time to the practice of Christian Science and to the service of the Christian Science organization.

During World War II he served as a Christian Science Wartime minister. He became an authorized teacher of Christian Science in 1949.

Miss Harris is a native of Seneca, South Carolina. After graduating from Mississippi State College for Women, she served there for two years an as associate professor of English. She taught for a while in the public schools of Birmingham, Alabama before obtaining her Masters Degree at Columbia University.

Since 1940 she has devoted her full time to the public practice of Christian Science. (Ch

Rev. Stephan Delegate To Church Convention

The Rev. Luther V. Stephan will serve as a delegate to the national convention of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod to be held in St. Paul June 20 to 30. He was chosen to serve on the doctrinal committee which will meet prior to the convention proper from June 15 to 19 at Concordia college, St. Paul. The session of the convention will be held in the Municipal auditorium and delegates will be housed in the Hotel St. Paul. Dr. John W. Behnken, president, will preside at the sessions.

"An agenda of over 600 pages must be worked through by this triennial conclave of the Lutheran church," Rev. Stephan stated, "Request for expansion of the church's ministerial and teachers' colleges and seminaries run to over $21,000,000, while questions of the doctrinal position will affect the existence of the synodical conference," he added. "Matters relating to race relations, the Lutheran World Federation, as well as woman suffrage will occupy the chief attention of the 1000 lay and clergy delegates," pastor Stephan continued.

The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod is 109 years old in America and today numbers about 2 million baptized persons.

Budget for 1956 totals $12,900,000. A vast mission program is carried on in 23 nations throughout the world. Two new mission stations are flunded in America every week. Its radip ministry "The Lutheran Hour" and TV program "This is the Life" have served as a vanguard here and abroad to pave the way for the missionary. (A

Not Just Right

The class in reading had been called, and the teacher singled out a small boy in a front seat. "Now, Willie," she said with an encouraging smile, "you may read the first sentence." Willie got up slowly, and read in a hesitating monotone, "There is a warm doughnut. Step on it." "No, Willie," the sentence reads, "There is a worm. Do not step on it."

The speed of the modern ELECTRIC ranges!

From freezer to table in 4 minutes! Like all modern electric ranges, the surface unit on this Kelvinator combines high-speed cooking with accurate control.

25% faster than 5 years ago—

today—nothing cooks faster!

Cooking temperatures unlimited! Kelvinator's new Thermostatic Action Switches give precise control of any cooking heat. New models are available in 8 colors and white.

Some of the most remarkable advances in the entire appliance field have been on electric ranges.

For example, new and improved surface cooking units were designed by America's great electric industry research centers. Better and faster ways of transforming electricity into quick heat for cooking have followed. Plus controls that offer a wide range of temperatures that you can depend on to give the same even heat, every time.

But modern electric ranges have more than well-controlled speed. They will keep your kitchen an average of 10 degrees cooler and far more comfortable. And electric broilers give you clean, radiant electric heat that sears the juices in meats. It's like broiling over charcoal, only faster and easier.

Today's electric ranges also keep your kitchen cleaner. (Something worth remembering if you plan to build, buy or remodel your home.) You will see many more of the "new idea" features in the latest electric ranges. Ask your dealer to show them to you. And while you're there find out just how easy it is to have an automatic electric range in your home.

Big Saving—We Pay Part of Your Range Installation Cost!
Need new wiring to install your electric range? We share the cost with qualified home owners in 1, 2 and 3-family dwellings. This can cut your expense by about half.

And you get more than a money saving!
The modern wiring that goes with your installation helps improve your TV picture, brightens lights, makes everything electrical work better. You can also install a 240-volt electric dryer, water heater or air conditioner quickly and cheaply. The Share-the-Cost Plan is available on terms of up to 2 years.

ARLINGTON GREENS

Social notes took a rear seat this week to make way for the big item of conversation, the water shortage in Arlington Greens. The weak water supply, which plagued the area last summer, reappeared early this year, making dish washing, showers or lawn sprinkling virtually futile tasks.

How long the problem would remain was uncertain, although 2 village officials explained its cause. Mayor Goedke blamed an inoperative pump on Douglas st. Goedke sai dit was under repairs. However, while the pump is "down," a watering ban is in effect, he said.

John Hoover, village trustee, said that a main is needed on Douglas st. if water is to flow at anywhere near a normal rate. A hopeful sign, Hoover noted, was the approval for the erection of an elevated storage tank on the north side of town.

On a long-range view toward attacking the problem, the mayor said that land on Oakton st. has been set aside and work has been started for hooking up a large 10-inch water main. Meanwhile, as one Arlington Greens resident said to another, "It's a long time between drinks — of water, that is."

Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rapier of Los Angeles were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Semple for the week of June 4. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Collins of Modesto, Cal. stopped in at the Semples for the day.

Welcome is extended to Anthony and Doris Wirtz, formerly of Chicago, who moved into 1148 N. Douglas May 22.

New neighbors Bill and Betty Lebsock at 1144 Douglas are also from Chicago and welcomed to the Greens.

Earl R. Stout was in California for the month of May, having driven there with his grandparents, the Earl Stouts. They went through Disneyland and to Knoxbury farms, which is an old-fashioned village with horses and carriages in the tin-type age. On a trip through New Mexico the Stouts went into caverns in the region.

Birthday

Under his father's supervision, Jackie Johnson had his friends in for his 10th birthday. Plenty of ice cream, cake and games took up the afternoon, the best game being one of hitting balloons with darts. Fifty balloons were popped by Jackie, Donald Miller, Earl Kaye, David Willy and David Bartlett Saturday, June 2.

The Olive st. birthday club met at Kay Boehm's house in honor of Martha Lees. Present were Bette Johnson, Alice Nelson, Pat Peterson, Mary Sherden, Gloiia Gildemeister, Terry Lynch and Jill Kaye.

Camper

While his parents are in Europe David Bartlett is at YMCA Camp MacLean enjoying horseback riding, archery and lots of swimming. His brother, Paul, is with

Arlington Terrace News

Christening

Kay and Everett Klicker, 1031 Beverly, had their daughter, Amy Marie, christened by Rev. relatives in Verona, N. J. Their home on Hickory is being occupied by the L. O. Slinkard family, who are awaiting the completion of their new home in Westgate.

The brownie troop 352 entertained their mothers in the home of their leader, Lorraine Detloff, Wednesday by serving coffee and dessert, which they had made together the day before. Brownies who flew-up were Sally Bell, Sandra Larson and Gwendolyn Mundell.

Recital

A dancing recital was given at St. Peter Lutheran church Sunday by the Delores Eiler's dancing school. As school girls were Jan Gran, Susan Baugous and Susan Detloff. Sandy Johnson was in a "can-can" number, Bonnie Kaye took part as a goddess, Joan Coward did a "Rock Around Mother Goose" bit, a Mexican dance was done by Susan Hoover, Patricia Danna did the hokey-pokey, Mary Kay Stuart had a part and Gwen Mundell was in a can-can bit.

O. C. Brenna in Gloria Da Dei Lutheran church, Rochester, Minn. Godparents are Mrs. Harold Owen and John Smith, Amy's aunt and uncle. The maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Harmony, Minn., were there. Also present were the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Klicker from Pine City, Minn.

Mrs. William Robertson, the maternal grandmother of Billy and Scott Falkanger, 1001 N. Hickory, visited them over the week end. Mr. Robertson is touring Norway with a well known singing group.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Falkenger are new to Arlington Terrace, but not to Arlington Heights.

The birthday club met for Mrs. Kay Klicker's birthday June 8. Those present were Mrs. Gladys Henry, Mrs. Marge Bjorklund, Mrs. Marion Wiegand, Mrs. Vivian Weber, Mrs. Dot Carter, and Mrs. Trudy Keerl. Cake and coffee were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Kessinger, and their 2 sons, Danny and Jimmy, are home from their vacation in California. While there they went to Disney Land, Knox Berry farm, Marineland. They alsaw the Grand Canyon and the Painted Desert. Mr. and Mrs. Kessinger took movies all during the trip. They stayed with Mrs. Kessinger's sister, Kay Simone.

Take time off

Some housewives on Hickory st. decided to take time off from daily routine and have a picnic June 6. They went to Deer Grove forest preserve. Mrs. Elizabeth Maloney brought he rson, Jeffrey. Also present were Mrs. Lois Anderson and her children, Susan and Bobby, Mrs. Diane Lewis and her sons, David and Danny. Everyone helped themselves to refreshments.

Judy Kuehn graduated from Arlington Heights Junior High school June 8. Judy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Quill, 921 Douglas. The graduation exervise were held at the high school. Judy was 1 of 256 pupils who graduated. Her godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Esbenson, and also Mr. and Mrs. Bill Manbrich visited her over the weekend. Roger Johnson, 925 N. Douglas, graduated from recruit training June 9 at the naval training center, Great Lakes. Following a 14 day leave Roger will leave for Newport, R.I., where he will be stationed on a destroyer for 6 months. To make this event even more memorable, Mrs. Mindolf Johnson's mother, father and brother came from Hot Springs, S. D. They are Mr. and Mrs.

With The Blue Birds

Camp Fire Girls Association

The last monthly meeting of the Camp Fire Girls association of Arlington Heights was held June 5 in the home of Mrs. Walter Aagaard.

After the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting and a financial report read by the treasurer, Mrs. Schomburg gave registration forms to all present to be filled out by each bluebird and returned in the fall.

The remaining time of the meeting was spent discussing day camp which will take place June 11, 13 and 15.

Helping Pixies

Last meeting of the Helping Pixies was spent enjoying a barbecue party in Mrs. Schomburg's back yard. The menu consisted of hot dogs cooked in aluminum over a fire, s'mores, lemonade and dixie cups.

After singing songs and playing games the girls bid farewell to their leaders until next fall.

Honeybears

Honeybears presented a puppet show for their mothers and teachers at Faith Lutheran church. After the show refreshments were served.

At their last meeting for the year the group enjoyed a picnic at Elk Grove.

Bluebird Wings

For their last meeting of the year, Bluebird Wings played games and enjoyed popcorn and pop served by Mrs. Jones. New members for next term also enjoyed the festivities.

Blue Angels

A hike and ice cream bars for all the girls closed the final Blue Angels meeting for the year.

Friendly Bluebirds

Friendly Bluebirds enjoyed a mother and daughter party at their final meeting of the season. The following girls lit their candles and received their bluebird pins : Charlotte Farr, Susan Harding, Carol Lee Herda, Kathy Knutson and Susan Shader.

Cookies and punch was served and each girl presented her mother with an ivy holder which the girls spent several meetings making. Each blubird was given a comb and case as a gift from their leaders.

The meeting closed with the friendship circle.

CUBS BY

Pack 32

Cubs in pack 32 had a very busy and enjoyable weekend June 9 and 10. Fifteen dads and 35 boys arrived at 7 a.m. at Elk Grove, and prepared breakfast of pancakes and sausage. After breakfast the boys played games and enjoyed a 5-inning softball game.

Sunday, 24 cubs and 7 dads watched the Chicago Cubs beat the Philadelphia Phillies at Wrigley field.

Pack 32 will suspend its summer activities after the June 22 meeting except for individual den activities. The June meeting, "Cub Scout Rodeo," will be held on the vacant lots located at 734 N. Hickory, Arlington Heights, at 7 p.m. June 22.

The pack committee and the cubmaster thank all parents and friends of pack 32, who have made this cubbing adventure a success and hope they will be ready to start a new and vigorous season in September.

Arthur Cathcart and Mr. and Mrs. George Cathcart. It was the first time in 10 years since Mrs. Johnson had seen her brother, George.

Valerie Page, 1006 N. Hickory, celebrated her 12th birthday, June 9 with a party. They had a barbecue supper. Present were Valerie's friends, Pat Sokolski, Susan Reeves, Mary Thomas, Betty Schuette and Kathy Crockett. Val's relatives helped her celebrate Sunday.

Pancake breakfast

Cub scout pack 32 had the father and son pancake breakfast June 9 at 7 in the Elk Grove forest preserve. They completed in races, played baseball and various games. Pancakes, sausages, bananas and milk were served.

The next da ythe ytook a chartered bus to the Cubs ball park to see the Cubs and Phillies play. They left after the first game as they ran out of eating money.

PALATINE'S "GREAT BOOKS" discussion group concluded its first year's program with a lawn picnic Saturday, June 9, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Gilman, Potite rd., Palatine. Twenty-six "conversationalists" were present for a final dispute before adjourning for the summer.

This group has been meeting bi-weekly since last October in the teachers' lounge of the high school. A second year's program will be continued by the same group, resuming their meetings next fall.

A similar first year "Great Books" group will be started in Arlington Heights at the end of the summer. Interested readers may call Kenneth A. Osbon at Cl. 3-1524.

Spray Trees Now To Ward Off Insects

Though knights in armor long have been extinct, tiny armored insects soon will lay siege to the nation's backyards unless they are caught before they can put on their hard-shell suits.

If dorant sprays for scale control have been omitted, now is the time to begin killing these insects as crawling broods appear. If they are attacked before they acquire their armor-like scale, these pests can be effectively destroyed.

Best weapons are sprays that kill on contact, such as formulations of Summer oil, DDT, oil and nicotine, or a number of other chemicals according to Davey tree experts.

Proper spraying must be done while the crawlers are most vulnerable, without their protective wardrobes. Crawling broods may appear from May through August and their time-tables may vary with the latitude and weather.

If not checked in time, these ravenous insects will feast on sap of leaves, stems and twigs throughout the summer.

Spraying should be left to the professional tree man, who is familiar with the various insect types, the chemical combinations most effective in eliminating them, and the timing necessary for proper applications.

Some of the most common tree pests are the oyster shell and terrapin scales, which resemble miniatures of the shells for which they were named. (DL

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

A remarkable legacy from the immortal Thomas Edison has just come to us from West Orange, New Jersey, where the firm of from early recordings on the original Edison phonograph, made under the electronic wizard's own personal supervision. It comes in the form of a 10-inch album released on the 78th anniversary of Edison's patent on what he then called the "voicewriter."

Made in 1910 and 1911, the collected recordings offered on this album introduce us to some of the greatest operatic singers who ever appeared on a concert stage. There is the immortal Celestina Boninsegna singing "pace, pace, mio Dio" from Verdi's "La Forza del Destino," a performance which despite its age and limited sonic range thrills us with her dramatic power and phrasing; Emmy Destinn and Dinh Gilly sing "Oh, il Signore, vi manda" from Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana."

WE HEAR the magnificent voice of Marie Galvany in the amazing coloratura aria "Ombra leggiera" from Meyerbeer's "Dinorah"; the unforgettable Carmen Melis sings the dynamic "Ritorna vincitor" from Verdi's "Aida"; Marie Rappold, a superb dramatic soprano early in this century, is heard in "Vissi d'arte" from Puccini's "Tosca" and Lucette Korsoff sings with exquisite feeling and technique the difficult "O lieto suol" from Meyerbeer's "Les Huguenots." These Edison originals are treasures and merit the attention of everyone who loves great music. For details, write the firm at 51 Lakeside ave., West Orange, N. J., and mention this column.

Capital has two splended classcila 12-inch platters on its new foreign-made series. One is a blazing performance of the Tschaikowsky Piano Concerto with the gifted young Bulgarian pianist Ventsislav Yankoff as soloist with new New Symphony Orchestra of London under Rudolf Schwarz (who gave us that vivacious and exciting reading of the Dvorak "New World" Symphony on a recent Capitol 12-inch lp). Yankoff follows up his auspicious Capital disc debut of the Beethoven Third Piano Concerto issued last month with a spinetingling display of technique, poetry and drama latent in the beloved Tschaikowsky score. Exceptionally realistic piano tone!

THE OTHER Capitol release worth a permanent place of honor in your collection, both as entertainment and spectacular hi-fi sound, is "Le Beau Danube," the ballet which Roger Desormiere arranged from Johann Strauss Jr.'s beautiful score. Manuel Rosenthal directs the Orchestra of the Paris. Opera with a hearwarming buoyancy and lilt. This is music ideal for summer!

Two great jazz waxings round out our musical adventuring this "Both Sides of Tony Scott," featuring a very talented young man who has been pianist, arranger and conductor but who prefers to play the clarinet. And play it he does here, striving for a 4/4 beat and long lines and continuity, with a tone that reminds us of the mellow warmth of sax great Ben Webster — whom Tony admires tremendously. Dick Garcia's guitar, Osie Johnson's rhythmic drums and Milt Hinton's superb bass back Tony in his own original "Counterpoint Pleasant" and "East Coast, West Side;" then he shows us his ballad style in lovely versions of "Cry Me a River," "Star Dust" and "More Than You Know." Clean, intimate up-close sound!

More Voting Machines To Be Ready For November Election

The county board has taken a large step closer to the goal of eliminating paper ballots in polling places under the county's jurisdiction.

The board decided to buy 280 voting machines at a cost of $1,560 each—a total cost of $436,-800. That almost uses up the $450,000 appropriated for voting machines in this year's budget.

The machines will be delivered in time for the November election.

At that time 1,400 voting machines will be available—just 270 short of the 1670 machines county clerk Edward Barrett says would be needed to eliminate paper ballots at all 998 precincts under the county election board. (B7

Here's why you'll like DRI-TANK

Dri-Tank won't drip. Sealed air space insulates the permanent, inner water tank—prevents sweating and messy puddles . . . does away with stained and buckled flooring.

Dri-Tank comes in 6 decorator colors and brilliant white. Harmonizes with any color scheme . . . matches other bathroom fixtures.

Dri-Tank is tops in quality. Made in one piece with imported English China clay. All vitreous tank and bowl, with hard, acid-proof glaze that won't chip, crack, stain, or craze.

Dri-Tank ends tiresome mopping of messy puddles caused by hot weather "sweating" of plumbing fixtures.

Opens Office

Robert Parker Coffin, who has been actively practicing architecture in this area for several years, is opening an office in Long Grove. Among his present commissions is the new shopping center in Wheeling.

Mr. Coffin is a 9-year resident of the area, moving from the North Shore in the spring of 1947. He has been active in community affairs, having served as both elder and Sunday school teacher for the Long Grove church. He is secretary of the board of education of the Kildeer Countryside school. He has been active in scout work, formerly serving as assistant scout master, and is former secretary and now chairman of the zoning and planning comittee of the Kildeer civic association.

Mr. Coffin grew up in Winnetka, attending New Trier high school and graduating from Yale university in 1939. He served as naval aviator and navigation instructor during the war and after a period with the Commonwealth Edison Co. working on generating stations, was associated, up to the time he went into business for himself, with Shaw Metz and Dolio, one of Chicago's leading architectural offices. Shell Dinner Shell Oil Co. was host at a luncheon for 220 of their service station dealers Tuesday June 12th in the Mayfair Room of the Blackstone hotel, Chicago.

"Shell honored these dealers in recognition of the high standards of cleanliness maintained at their stations," said Harry O. Krass, 418 W. Wilson, Palatine Shell's retail manager. Prizes will be awarded to each winner in this contest, following which they will attend the Cubs - Milwaukee Braves baseball game. (BB

Completes 25 Years With Illinois Tool

Thomas Frank Lesniak recently marked his 25th service anniversary with Illinois Tool Works, 2501 N. Keeler ave., Chicago.

ITW President Harold Byron Smith presented him with an inscribed gold watch in honor of the occasion.

Although he started in the Milling Department, most of Lesniak's years with the company have been spent in the hob department. He does highly skilled work as a hob grinder.

HE WAS in the 28th Division of the 112th Infantry in France and worked for the Russell Electric Co. before joining Illinois Tool. He is a member of the American Legion and enjoys all sports. During his early years with the company, Lesniak played on the Illinois Tool Works' baseball team.

The Lesniaks have been married for 32 years and are proud of their grown daughter, now Mrs. Geraldine Geesley, and doubly proud of their 7year old granddaughter.

They presently reside in Medinah, where he likes to putter in the garden as a hobby. (BB

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

We often think about the weather, complaining that is is too cold or too hot, cloudy or rainy, or glorying in the sunshine and warmth. What one often overlooks is the great effect it has on our lives, health, work, plea sure, food or fortune.

A woman says, "If it doesn't rain tomorrow I'll hang the clothing outside, but if it does, I'll clean house and wash tomorrow." She thus regulates her work by the weather.

"Our Sunday school picnic will be held in Cotter's grove, unless it rains, when it will be postponed until further notice."

"Crops in the Middle West are feeling the impact of the long dry spell, and exports will be effected by it to the extent of a billion dollars,"—and millions in India or China may go hungry because of it.

"HEAVY SNOW fall up to eighteen inches is reported in the north eastern section of the United States. Telephone, electricity, and rail transportation are at a standstill." Again, weather has caused millions in property damage, an increase in taxation, cost the lives of some, crippled others, crowded the hospitals.

Cold weather creates the need for warm clothing, and furnishes business for the clothing industry. Likewise in hot weather.

Icy streets cause accidents with loss of life and property, adding to the need for accident and health insurance, and making business for auto wreckers, garages, doctors, lawyers, and hospitals.

WEATHER populates Florida and California with retirees, the sick and millions who just don't like cold weather, thus giving work to transportation organizations.

Weather created the need for insulation, fuel, refrigerators, heating equipment, air conditioners.

Weather, good or bad, is a most important element in the country, and the more diversified the weather, the greater the need of people for the goods which industry produces. Weather, good or bad, is responsible for much of the industry of this nation. So, friends, hats off the the weather. Remember, it helps keep you on the pay roll! (G

Palatine Youth Wins Rand Park Rifle Club Award

Alden Munro, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Munro, Kirchhoff rd., Palatine, received the national rifle association award from Wynn Howard of Rand Park field house, Des Plaines, instructor of the Rand Park junior rifle club. Alden, a member of the junior club, qualified as an expert rifleman by showing unusual firing skill. His target was sent to Washington D. C. for checking after which the awardwas mailed to the Des Plaines branch of the club.

The group is sponsored by the Optimists' club and Alden is the second local member to receive this award during the last 5 years. He is a freshman at Palatine high school and as a member of the track team helped his school win the 440-yard relay honors this year. The rifle association meets each Friday evening at Rand Park and Alden's father, also a member of the group, is interested in forming a similar organization in Palatine.

Schneller Welcomes Newcomer

A young salesman born and bred in the furniture business has been added to the staff of Schneller Furniture co., Prospect Heights.

He is William R. Whalen, 7 Hillcrest rd., Palatine.

Whalen attended Loyola and Marquette universities before joining his father's wholesale furniture business. Later he was associated with Fred B. Snite Furniture co. at Lincoln Square, Chicago.

"I DROPPED into Schneller's store one day and realized immediately that it was the kind of place in which I wanted to work," recounted Whalen. "I was impressed with the pleasant environment, the quality merchandise, and the unusually fair prices.

Commenting on the staff addition, Joe Schneller, owner of Schneller Furniture, said: "We are very happy to welcome Bill Whalen to our firm. We are confident that he will enable us, with his broad and varied background in the furniture business, to continue providing our customers with professional service and quality merchandise."

Whalen is married and has 2 children. (DL

At Christian Brothers

John P. Randag, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Randag of 623 N. Highland ave., Arlington Heights, has received the degree of Bachelor of science in business administration from Christian Brothers college in Memphis.

Randag attended Arlington Heights high school, graduating in 1952. While at Christian Brothers college he was active in the commerce club and was a member of the yearbook staff. He also served on the student council, student governing body, during his senior year. (CC

Record Size Class Graduates From UI

The largest graduating class the University of Illinois has had since 1952 will receive degrees June 16.

Candidates for degrees number 2,584.

Barbara K. Ransdell, Charles R. Runyon, Bertram N. Clarbour, Kenneth R. Gronert and Sydney M. D. Gronert of Arlington Heights.

Barbara C. Arnold and Helmer J. Nelson of Mt. Prospect.

James D. Haskell, Northbrook.

James W. Lemke and Robert A. Oppermann, Palatine.

Commencement speaker will be Robert D. Calkins, president of Brookings Institution, Washington, D. C.

Illinois president, David D. Henry will confer degrees.

At Purdue

Degrees were conferred upon 64 candidates for the doctor of philosophy, upon 202 for the master of science in the various fields and upon 1,357 for the bachelor of science at Purdue university. Included as members of the class were those graduates of August, 1955, and January, 1956, who elected to return for the public conferring of their degrees.

Among the graduates were:

Arthur R. Taggart, 840 S. Beverly, Arlington Heights, BS, mechanical engineering.

Garry H. Garvens, 131 Pershing, BS, chemical engineering.

Joe W. Knollmueller, rte 1, Mt. Prospect, BS, sir transportation.

Richard O. Staib, 124 N. Linden, Palatine, BS, electrical engineering.

James M. Marzen, 325 S. Cedar, BS, mechanical engineering.

Ruth Evelyn Neely, 166 Oakwood, Wood Dale, BS. (CC

At Illinois

Commissions in the nation's armed forces will be awarded June 16 to 226 University of Illinois students who have completed work in the reserve officers' training corps.

Among them will be Bertram N. Clarbour, 41 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, navy; and James W. Lemke, 243 N. Smith, Palatine, army.

The ceremonies will be in the university auditorium at 8 a.m. 2 hours before commencement exercises begin in Memorial Stadium.

At Iowa

Degrees were conferred upon 1,091 graduates at the state university of Iowa's spring commencement exercises June 8 in the university fieldhouse.

Arthur S. Adams, president of the American council on education, gave the commencement address, speaking on "How Secure Can We Be?"

Area students receiving degrees include Don B. Kincaid of Arlington Heights, who received a bachelor of science in commerce.

At Illinois Wesleyan

Some 120 students received degrees from Illinois Wesleyan university, Bloomington, on the 97th commencement exercises Sunday, June 4. Presiding over the ceremonies, which included the conferring of 4 honorary degrees, was Merrill J. Holmes, president of the university.

Among the group receiving a bachelor of fine arts was Lois Garman of Mt. Prospect. (C

At Knox

Wendell Allan Stoike, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Soike, 318 E. Hawthorne, Arlington Heights, is a member of Knox college's 1956 graduating class of members, who received diplomas at commencement June 11.

Stoike while a student at Knox, majored in business administration. (CC

At Darthmouth

Dartmouth college conferred 596 bachelor of arts degrees, 10 master of arts degrees, 10 honorary degrees and issued 23 diplomas in medicine at commencement and baccalaureate exercises closing the college's 187th year.

Among graduates was Warren L. Fellingham, Jr., 810 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights. (CC

Ike Farm Bill Is 'Fairly Satisfactory': IAA Chief

The new farm bill signed by President Eisenhower was described this week by Otto Steffey, president of the Illinois Agricultural association, as "fairly satisfactory - much improved over the earlier bill which was vetoed."

The principal provision of the new law, Steffey said, is the soil bank plan which has been supported by the IAA because it attacks the basic problem of excess farm production.

THE TERMS of the bill make it applicable to 1956 crops, but delay by Congress in passing the bill make it too late to be of much effect this year. The bill would permit crops to be plowed under or clipped in order to comply with the soil bank plan in 1956, but it is doubtful that much of this will be done.

Under the acreage reserve program, farmers reducing their plantings of basic crops - corn, cotton, wheat, peanuts, rice and tobacco - will be paid for taking these acres out of production, he said.

"If the payment rates are made attractive enough, farmers will participate in this program and bring production of these crops in line with demand," the Farm Bureau leader stated. "The surpluses of some farm commodities have brought about serious declines in farm prices. If farmers are encouraged to participate, they will be storing fertility in the soil rather than storing crops in government bins.

"This will afford a huge saving to the government and will protect consumers in the future, for farmers will then have the ability to meet the increased needs for food."

UNDER THE conservation reserve program of the soil bank, farmers take crop land out of production and plant it to a conserving crop for a three-year period, he explained. No crop may be harvested from this land and farmers will be paid a certain rate per acre per year. Payment will be either in cash or in commodities.

The section of the bill providing for a national corn base of 51 million acres for the acreage reserve program is of special significance to Illinois farmers.

In recent years feed grains grown in other sections of the country were replacing corn as feed, causing surpluses of corn. This caused corn acreage allotments to be reduced, squeezing Illinois farmers to the point where they could not abide by their allotments.

Under the new law, reductions of corn acreage under the acreage reserve program will start from this 51 million acre base and not from the 43 million acreage allotment announced earlier this year by the USDA.

THE BILL is not clear regarding conditions for staying within corn acreage allotments and receiving the $1.50 per bushel support price. Announcement of the regulations will have to be made by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson.

However, he added, the bill specifically permits the $1.25 per bushel support price for corn producers who do not comply with the 1956 allotments.

Steffey praised the removal from the bill of the provision which would have permitted the sale of government wheat for feed.

DOWN ON THE FARM

with Your Farm Adviser

CARL F. MEES

With the warm weather coming rapidly as it is now, I want to stress again that you should clean up, screen up, hang up and spray, if you want to get rid of the flies around your barn this summer.

First Step—Clean up all fly breeding places.

SECOND step—Scheen up open windows.

Third step—Hang up Malathion strips. A 20 per cent Malathion and corn syrup mixture makes an effective killer of house flies. It will destroy 90 to 98 per cent of all flies in buildings. Dip cloth strips, ribbon or string into solution. Malathion comes in 50 per cent emulsion concentrate dilute it to a 2 per cent malathion solution.

FOURTH STEP—A 2 per cent malathion solution makes a good spray for house flies. Stable flies and horseflies require different treatment. Use Pyrethrin emulsion concentrate to spray livestock. Dilute according to instructions on the label.

So remember, clean up, screen up, hang up and spray up.

IF YOU want sweet corn to mature about every 10 days all summer, plant around the following dates June 10, 20, 28 and July 3. You can expect to harvest the corn August 31, September 10, 20 and 30 respectively. The harvest dates may vary a few days either way.

The planting does not have to be done on the exact days I have mentioned but allow 10 days between the first and third planting; eight days between second and third and 5 days between the third and fourth.

CATTLE NEED protein by midsummer. Legume pastures contain large amounts of protein early in the pasture season. For this reason many Illinois feeders do not feed any protein supplement to cattle that are receiving a full feed of grain on legume pasture, at least for the first two months of the pasture season.

However, as the legume pasture becomes more mature, the protein content declines and cattle should start receiving some protein concentrate with their grain around July 1. A pound of high protein concentrate, such as soybean meal, per steer per day is suggested.

In 1954 this extra protein was not added to some steers' rations at the University of Illinois until July 27. Gains were approximately 2 pounds a day before July 27, and they increased to 2.4 pounds after the protein supplement was added. This is an indication that July 27 is too late in the season to start adding extra protein.

For this reason it is recommended that cattle getting a full feed of grain on pasture start getting some protein supplement at least by July 1. (FM

Twenty-Eight 'City Boys' Study Farming At Arlington

The Caterpillar of the home builder is becoming as common a sight as the smaller tractor of the farmer in the rural areas of northwest Cook county. Farm after farm is lost to the farmer and giant subdivisions sprout from the earth as quickly as corn formerly did.

Therefore it is surprising and reassuring—to those who like to think they live "in the country"—that 28 boys at Arlington high school are planning on making farming their way of life.

These boys are students of vocational agriculture, a program which aims to give them large doses of both the theory and practice of farming. Their teacher is Joseph D. Bryson, who set up the program when he came to the school 9 years ago.

Bryson is well known around Arlington Heights as a past president of the Lions club and a formidable voice in barbership quartets.

BRYSON EXPLAINED that much of the stress in the program is on farm mechanics, very necessary in these days of highly mechanized farming. The boys, all of whom must live on farms, spend hours learning to handle and repair dozens of machines used in modern farming. Construction and upkeep of farm buildings is also important.

On a recent Saturday, for example, the boys assembled to learn how to put up concrete buildings. Under the direction of Martin Meyer, who farms on Wilke rd. north of Arlington Heights, they constructed a small trash burner of concrete blocks.

Meyer is president of the vocational agriculture advisory council of farmers, a group which passes on to the fledgling farmers the lessons of their years on the farm.

IN CONJUNCTION with the program, the students all belong to the Future Farmers of America and participate in its contests and exhibitions. Each boy has a project, many of which involve considerable expenditure of time and money.

Projects range from the growing of chrysanthemums to the raising of mink.

From the enthusiasm of the boys in the program it's clear that for them life in the city doesn't have half the attractions of life on the farm.

Vocational Teacher Attends Ag. Meeting

Joseph D. Bryson, vocational agriculture teacher at Arlington high school, will attend a conference in Urbana today at which a 5-man board will explore means to improve agricultural education.

Bryson represents the northern Illinois area on the advisory board for the division of Agricultural education of the University of Illinois. Board members, all teachers of agriculture, will examine their field at the collegiate as well as secondary level.

TUESDAY night Bryson will be master of ceremonies at the annual banquet of the state conference of teachers of vocational agriculture and do double duty as a member of a barbershop quartet of teachers. Bert Ingwersen, Illini line coach, will address the group at the banquet. Also on the agenda is H. E. Hill, head of vocational education in Illinois.

Mammoth Cave became a national park in 1926.

Research Seeks New Uses For Farm Crops

Research aimed at finding new uses for farm crops is described in the June issue of the monthly publication of the Illinois Agricultural association.

"Tomorrow you may read a newspaper printed on paper made from wheat straw, you may buy clothes made of corn, and your car engine may be cleaned with corn cobs," according to the article.

"Already these things are being done. They are the result of concentrated research in America's laboratories directed at finding new ways to use raw materials which are in abundant supply," the article states.

THE IAA is the statewide Farm Bureau organization.

One of the developments of possible future significance reported in the publication is a better method of making paper from wheat straw.

"The United States department of agriculture research laboratory at Peoria has been able to make paper of many kinds from this farm product using a new quick and cheap process," according to the Record.

One Illinois newspaper ran a 4-page section on paper made of 30 per cent wheat straw, and the newspaper's mechanical foreman reported excellent results.

"A shortage of wood pulp would, of course, increase the necessity for a substitute ingredient. The most logical substitute would be able to the extent of 30 million straw, which is normally available tons each year.

"ONE OFFICIAL of a paper company which has the straw process mastered predicts we will live to see the day when wood shortages will force the use of large quantities of straw paper," the article states.

Other new uses the publication discusses include: surgical sponges made of pure starch, emergency ration candy made from the same ingredient, a jelled paint stabilizer made from soybeans, and printing ink ingredients made from soybeans.

Atomic Energy Will Revolutionize Farms

It's only a matter of time until atomic energy will revolutionize agriculture says a leading live stock magazine.

In the near future, you can expect to see such phenomena as: raw meat in a can, bread free of mold, fruit that will not soften, sterile milk that is not pasteurized and shell eggs that will keep indefinitely.

FARMERS, of course, have been using atomic energy as long as they have grown plants and animals for food.

Sunlight is atomic energy and chlorophyll in plants utilizes it in a highly efficient manufacturing process. Without chlorophyll, animals and man cannot use sunlight —thus, plants are the only link between them and the enormous stomic energy source.

Atomic energy has supplied the research worker with another valuable tool — the radioisotope. This extra energy of radioactivity acts as a tag or label which can be followed through the tricky maneuvers of carbon atoms in cells of plants or animals. Using gamma radiation, the Brookhaven National Laboratory produced a new variety of rust-resistant oats in 18 months whereas conventional plant breeding methods would have required 10 years.

THE OTHER principal form of energy released is radiant energy —alpha, beta and gamma radiation can destroy bacteria and gamma rays, very similar to x-rays. These various rays offer the most promise for agriculture.

For example, gamma radiation means less food spoilage.

Raw meat that is radiation-sterilized remains raw and keeps longer — hence raw meat in cans is a possibility. (Fm

Haying Marks The Start Of Many Farm Accidents

Check your haying equipment before you start to cut this year's crop. Make sure it's in good condition so that you won't lose time from costly accidents.

Haying marks the start of a season when farm accidents run high, says O. L. Hogsett, extension safety specialist in the college of agriculture at the University of Illinois.

WATCH ESPECIALLY for defective hitches, ropes, pulleys, lits, hay rack and ladders. Check your mowing equipment to be sure that all safety guards are in place.

The Illinois Rural Safety council recommends that you take special precautions to prevent falling from hay racks and stacks. Make sure that loft floors are repaired and hay chutes guarded.

Take special care in making starts and stops while loading, especially on rough ground. Never dismount from a tractor or mower while it is operating.

CARRY a pitchfork over your shoulder and stick it securely into the ground when you are not using it. Don't lay it on the ground and never throw it. When your day's haying is finished, hand up the fork or put it in a rack in the barn.

Make sure the hay is well cured before you store it in the mow. Damp hay will heat and may start a fire. Spontaneous combustion from heating hay causes most barn fires. Check freshly stored hay regularly for several weeks to make sure there is no sign of heating. (Fm

Public Feeding Test Fetes Balanced Diet

The profit advantage of a good balanced cattle supplement over a single source protein was demonstrated again in a 136-day public feeding test just completed at the Bourbon stockyards in Louisville, Ky. The demonstration was conducted by the Ralston Purina company with the cooperation of the Bourbon stockyards.

Twenty calves averaging about 600 pounds each were purchased and divided into two equal lots. In lot I, 5 graded untility and 5 commercial. In lot II, 9 graded commercial at the beginning, and one utility.

BOTH GROUPS were fed in pens at the stockyards where the public could watch the day-to-day progress. Lot I was fed ground ear corn with a fortified balanced supplement containing 5 milligrams of stilbestrol per pound. Lot II got ground ear corn with soybean meal. Both pens had livestock mineral throughout, and both had hay free choice during the first month.

At the end of the feeding period, 9 calves in lot I had upgraded to choice. The tenth graded good. In the soybean meal pen, 6 graded choice at the end, two good, one commercial and one utility (sold early because of sickness).

THE ADVANTAGE of the balanced supplement showed up convincingly in the final profit figures. Cattle in lot I sold for an average of $19.26 per cwt., bringing a total of $1,844.70. Total feed cost in this pen was $1,630.96, which resulted in a labor profit of $21.37 per animal.

The soybean meal calves sold for an average of $17.32, bringing a total of $1,490.65. Total feed cost here was $1,539.64, resulting in a feeding loss of $4.89 per animal.

The only feeding variable between the two lots was the balanced supplement fed in Lot I compared to the single source protein fed in Lot II. The final ledger showed a profit advantage of $26.26 per animal in favor of the balanced supplement. (Fm Schaumburg—Mr. William Hitzemann, aged over 75 years died at the old homestead, where he lived 35 years, June 7.

Itasca — Commencement exercises at Itasca public school will be held Wednesday, June 20, 7:50 p.m., followed by the usual school social. Ice cream and cake will be served in the lower room, after the program. The graduating class are: Erma Schneider, Frank Scheutte, Frank Woodworth Elmer - Franzen, Bert Wickler.

Bensenville — The "Never get dry club" celebrated Lucky's birthday Tuesday night. All had a splendid time.

Rev. H. Stahlin, superintendent of Bensenville Orpahn Home started for Chicago, June 8, leaving Elmhurst at 10:45 a.m. Saturday, over the A. E. & C. Electric railway, and has not returned yet. Fear that he may have met with foul play caused much alarm at first; but his mind may have wandered. His family refused to give out information they have of his whereabouts.

Miss Lucile Paddock starts for summer session for teachers at the State Normal school.

John Slade had his right leg broken about 6 inches above the ankle Saturday night by a buggy tipping over when endevoring to pass another team.

Jesse Hausam stayed home Monday, to court his lovely new daughter and his team, feeling their oats, took French leave of their driver and ran up Dunton street at a wild automobile gate. One wanted to go in the barn and the other more fun, so they went astride the door post and broke the neckyoke.

Frank Davis, Jr., writes his father from Vancouver that he was to sail for Japan June 10, and expected to be back in British America in three months. As he is not yet 21 years old, evidently he intends to see something of the world while he is young. He has already held several responsible business positions.

Addison — "Doc" Rittmueller, widely known in journalistic circles, noted also for his skill in photography and poetry, has abandoned his journalistic work for a brief time and is spending his vacation at Des Plaines on the veranda of his "Lulu."

Mr. Prospect — Many auto accidents have been reported this spring throughout northern Cook county from various causes. But the old "hoss" is still in the game. Monday afternoon, William Wille and wife and son Freddie, hitched up old Dobbin for a ride and visit. On their way home the gentle animal, not to be outdone by the passing auto, put on full speed, but soon lost control and all landing in the ditch in a heap.

In a market way one of the most interesting features of the day's business was the sale by John Rooney to George Busse of a tract of 133 acres in the town of Elk Grove, for $37,000, which is at the rate of about $300 an acre. It will be subdivided into lots and blocks and placed on the market next spring. The property has been in the Rooney family since 1863.

Joe Ehard and Adolph Wille are taking baths at Hot Springs.

A prominent society event was the marriage of Mr. Paul Stier and Miss Hulda Kehe on June 10, 1916. Nothing was lacking to make the occasion memoriable to all.

We are very sorry to report that Mr. Charles Sigwalt, a highly respected citizen, an old veteran of the civil war and former mayor of Arlington Heights, while on his way to take the 9:29 Barrington morning, had just crossed the R. R. tracks and was walking toward the depot but too near the track, when he was struck on the right arm by the beam on the head of the locomotive. It was later found that he sustained a compound fracture of the bones at the elbow of the right arm.

Mr. Edwin Memsching and Miss Hulda Steuber were united in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony by Rev. Bornoski of Elma, Iowa, Sunday, June 11.

August Hackbarth has sold a number of cars lately, of which Frank Danielsen and Oltendorf Bros. now own a Case each while George Grever possesses a Maxwell.

Arlington Heights is constantly growing. Several new families have moved here from the city this year. We have plenty of out door but lack houses at moderate rent. More house, more people will occupy them.

The class of 1926 of the Arlington Heights township high school are receiving their diplomas this Thursday evening. The class numbers eighteen. The graduates are Ole Johnson, Leonard Bolte, Richard Schoenbeck, Clifford Crane, Walter Meyer, Evelyn Bradley, Margaret Guenther, Gertrude Bolte, Alice Johnson, Helen Meyer, Inez Ihle, Louise Klehm, Lillian Clark, Emma Hansing, Vivian Volz, Helen Gieseke, Elizabeth Bray and Olivia Struve.

Norma Wilke, Margaret Helwig and Gladys Tatge are graduates of the two year commercial course, for which they are rewarded certificates.

Constable Einecke of Schaumburg township has received an apology, the price of a new suit of clothes and a new star from the men of Northfield township who knocked him unconscious and beat him up at a dance in Palatine township two weeks ago. The men from over Glenview way, say they are sorry they did it and paid fines totaling with costs, amounting to $350. They likewise are reported to have paid a sum nearly equal to that amount to the attorney, one of the prominent criminal lawyers of Chicago, who represented them.

Moonshine at 75 cents a pint may be a cheap price, but when costs and fines are added, the price does not seem so attractive. Likewise, good customers for moonshine product may bring riches but when the customers "squeal" to the police, they are expensive customers to have. A still and some booze were found when a place on south Dunton was raided.

The Palatine township high school graduating class included William Schweitzer, Grace Timmerman, Louis Smith, Edna Jape, Bertha Gaare, Bernard Regenburg, J R Zinn, Clare Zinn, Webster Brodray, Ethel Timmermann, Albert Berlin and Stanley Beckman.

H. M. Haight is Palatine's new motorcycle cop. He had orders from Mayor Danielsen to get acquainted with no one in town and hand out the tickets irrespective of the identity of the driver.

All ex-service men who have filed their applications for their bonus bonds will receive them by registered mail either Monday or Tuesday unless the immense machinery falls down that Uncle Sam has set up to make such delivery.

The first stick-up in Arlington occurred last Sunday evening when Art Wells, manager of the Pure Oil Service station on Northwest highway, was stuck up by a lone robber who took the day's receipts.

The WPA projects in the country towns of Cook county are still active. While they have been somewhat curtailed due to lack of funds, a number of the men who were laid off last week in Palatine are back upon the village street and sidewalk project. In Arlington Heights the Campbell street sewer project was completed last night and the men have been transferred to the recreational park project.

Carl D. Starck, son of Dr. Carl A. Starck of Palatine will graduate Saturday from the Chicago college of medicine. Carl D. Starck is a typical Palatine boy having been born in Palatine and educated in the Palatine schools. He graduated from the Palatine township high school and was salutatorian of his class.

Ninety-four got diplomas from Arlington Heights high school at graduation exercises June 11.

The Republicans of Palatine township are becoming intensely interested in the coming campaign for national, state and county offices and are planning to perfect a permanent township Republican organization.

The wedding bells at St. John Evangelical church rang in the happy event last Saturday when Miss Mildred Landmeier and Henry Schoo were united in holy wedlock.

At about 2:15 Monday afternoon "They're off" will go out over the public address system at Arlington Park and the greatest race meeting in the history of Arlington will be on. Not since 1942 have the race fans had a look at Arlington Park and they will be out in force Monday to welcome the reopening of that popular track.

Four Elk Grove school districts by a vote of 119 to 28 created a new consolidated school district last Saturday. The districts involved are 58, 59, 60 and 61.

The departure of Mr. J. D. Flentie from Arlington Heights is worthy of more than ordinary mention in the local paper. There is probably no other resident of Arlington Heights who has been in the limelight a greater number of years than Mr. Flentie. He has given many years of service to the community and has had a part in shaping the destinies of innumerable civic organizations in which he has held many offices. Mr. and Mrs. Flentie have bought a home at Pasadena, Cal. It has a large acreage and will give Julius plenty of space to roam around in and enjoy the California sunshine.

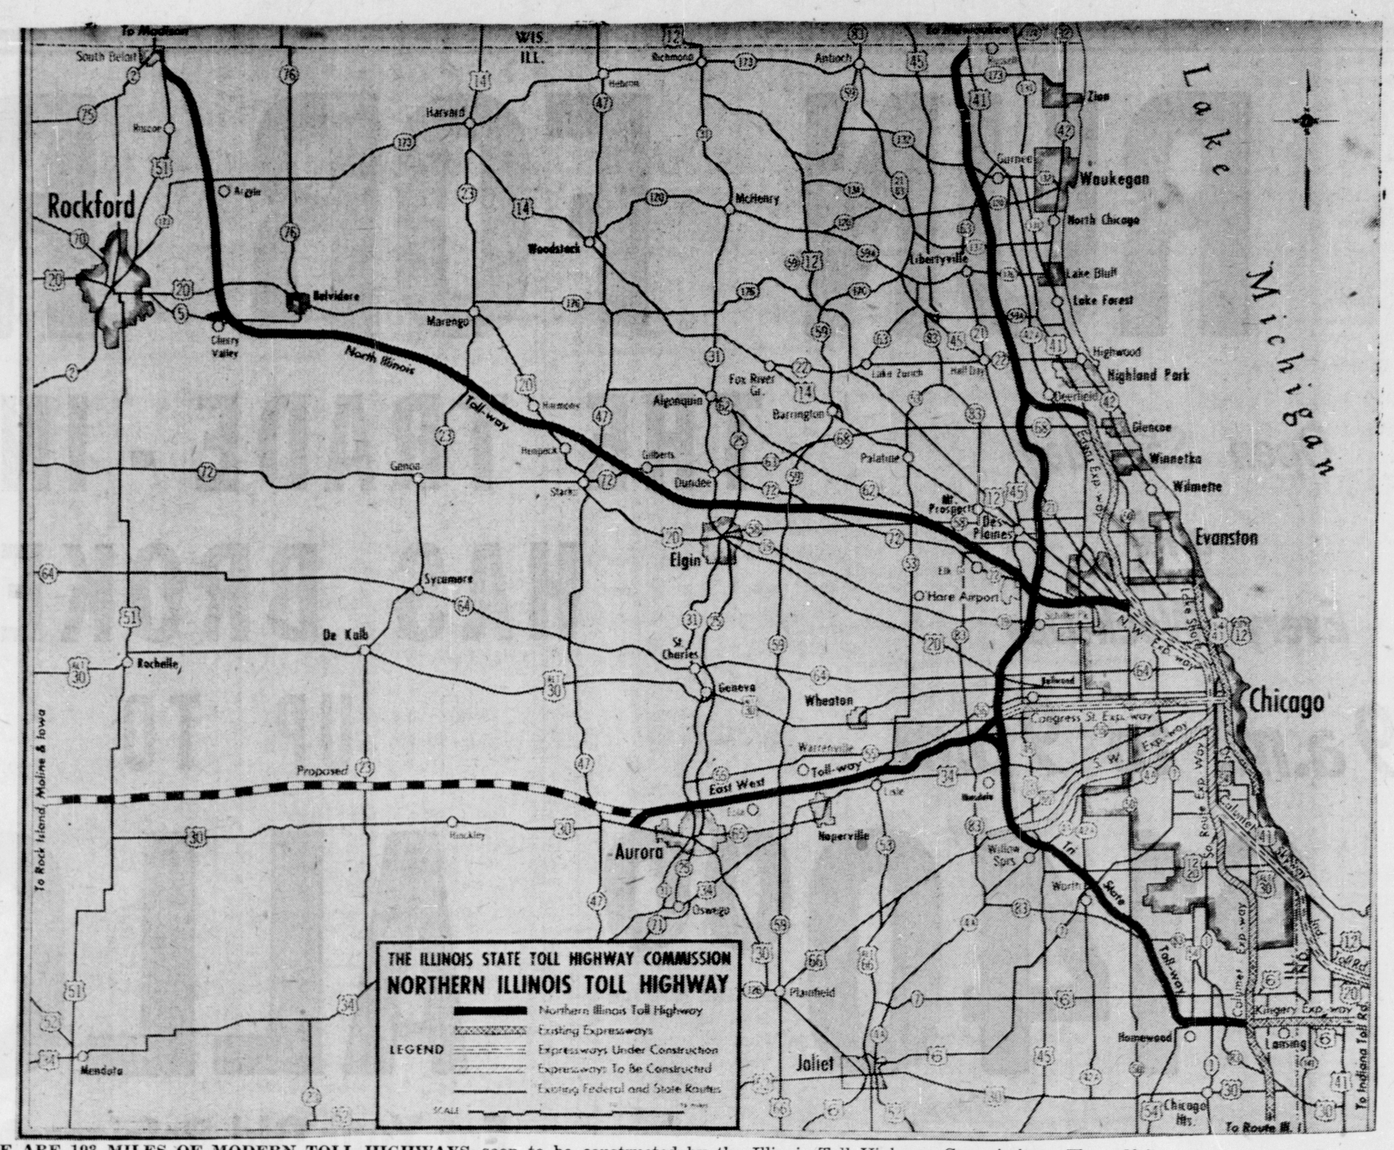
On Saturday, Palatine township will vote on the proposition of increasing the taxing limits of the high school. This election is necessary because without it the high school would not have the benefits of the new Butler laws.

Two of Bensenville's oldest citizens, both pioneers of this community, died this week. Both were 84.

Laura Elfring, nee Haberstich, wife of Barney Elfring, died Thursday morning at the home of her daughter. Theodore Tiedemann, the surviving member of well known general store of Tiedemann Bros. of by-gone days died Sunday.

Roselle reaches the final stages of its ambitious post-war planning project this week with the holding of special election at which all citizens will have an opportunity to approve a tax levy which will provide the funds to erect a community building and installations for a community recreation system and its maintenance.

Recert marriages include Miss Lois Gustavson to Charles Atherton, Edith Florence Page to Walter Gustavson, Katherine Hines to Alan Reinshagen, Ruth Templin to Paul Eckel and Loraine Pingel to Herman Moehling.



HERE ARE 193 MILES OF MODERN TOLL HIGHWAYS soon to be constructed by the Illinois Toll Highway Commission. The self-financing project consists of three routes. The Tri-State Tollway, 80.2 miles in length starts at 171st and Stoney Island avenue on Chicago's south side, and moves through and around the Chicago metropolitan area to connect with route 41 just south of the Wisconsin line. The 88.4 mile North Illinois Tollway begins at route 51 south of South Beloit, crosses the Fox river north of Elgin, and connects with the Northwest Expressway at Edens Highway in the vicinity of Cicero and Montrose avenues. The East-West Tollway is a continuation of the Congress Street Expressway, merging with route 30 west of Aurora. The toll-ways, with no grade crossings, intersections, or traffic lights, permit a free flow of traffic without interruption other than for toll barriers. The 193-mile highway is financed by revenue bonds which are retired from the tolls collected. All three routes are scheduled to be opened to the public by 1959.

LAST WEEK'S HEADLINES

Resume of front page news that appeared in various editions of Paddock Publications and other newspapers of the area that will keep readers informed on headline news of their neighbors.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

First and second graders in some Arlington public schools will attend school only half a day next year, until school building catches up with enrollment increases in September, 1957.

An 11 acre tract on S. State rd. adjacent to Scarsdale will be split up into a 5-store shopping center on State rd. and a residential section. Development is expected to start sometime this year.

WHEELING

Wheeling village board gave the green light to 2 proposed shopping centers last week by unanimously approving 2 petitions for rezoning. One is a 10-acre site at Dundee and Elmhurst rds.; the other is on the southwest corner of Milwaukee and Dundee rds.

PALATINE

Dial service started Sunday for about 1,500 telephone users in the east section of Palatine. The phone company said that by late summer of 1957 all Palatine phones will be changed to dial phones. The new exchange is FLanders 8.

Palatine village officials announced that they will oppose plans to rezone farmland between Palatine and Arlington Heights for a subdivision to eventually number 3,000 homes. The development is planned by Midland Palatine, Inc.

MT. PROSPECT

Mt. Prospect will carry to the Illinois Supreme court its fight against commercial development along Main st. across from Central school.

A builder wants to put up 8 apartment buildings of 10 units each in the 400 block of S. Elmhurst.

A preliminary report on the federal census just completed shows a figure of 11,894. Thus Mt. Prospect has nearly doubled in population (from 6,113) since the last special census in April, 1953.

DES PLAINES

City attorneys said they would appeal a decree by Curcuit court Judge Harry Fisher declaring the minimum lot size ordinance unconstitutional.

Des Plaines aldermen delayed adoption of the half-cent sales tax again, apparently because the $200,000 it would raise is more money than would be needed to offset an anticipated budget deficit. The matter comes up again June 18.

THE FENCE POST

Letters to the Fence Post should be short and concise. All letters must be signed, though name will be withheld if desired. Address Fence Post, Paddock Publications, Inc., Arlington Heights, Ill.

Love's Labor Lost

Many of us poor misguided souls, having a sense of civic and personal pride, again this spring spent money, time and effort to build up nice lawns and flower beds. With loving care we nursed our lawns through fertilizers, reseeding, rolling, weeding and trimming to repair the damage done by the "enforced drought" last summer and fall.

Based on "campaign promises" we were foolish enough to believe that this summer we could at least depend upon a water supply which would be adequate to maintain a green lawn and keep the flowers from wilting. A rude awakening came last Sunday when the police notified us of a 48 hour sprinkling ban and the new grass and flowers we had planted were crying for water.

BEING GOOD citizens, we pay our water bills promptly, including the extra assessment for sewers. For that money we should reasonably be able to expect that after at least 4 years time our City Fathers could find a way to correct the water problem. Evidently the news Sunday is but a forerunner of what to expect this summer and fall.

We would like to know all of the facts without political flavoring. If we are to have another waterless summer, tell us now so we will not waste any more money or effort on a lost cause. Must we just accept the inevitable, forget our pride and like Nebraska farmers watch the sun scorch everything.

Yoo Hoo, You

I read with great interest the article in the Fence Post column signed—Taxpayer, Roselle.

I believe it should have been Taxpayer, Elk Grove.

The story is sad, but also very true, and we all agree that something should be done. I think that a start has been made to combat some of the evils Elk Grove township has had to put up with. For instance, there was a protest from the Elk Grove school principal printed in this paper a few weeks ago. Then there is the newly founded Elk Grove Men's association, which as yet is puny, but very determined to do something drastic about the whole thing.

WHY NOT come away from behind that "Fence Post" and come in with the rest of us in the open and bring some money along for dues, which are less than 50 cents a month. Where else can you get so much for so little, and you will no doubt meet a lot of very nice people whom you didn't know existed in Elk Grove.

The association has its next meeting June 27 at 8 p.m. in the Elk Grove school located on Touhy and Higgins rd.

Come on out and we will be glad to have you as a friend.

Another Taxpayer
from Elk Grove township.

What Price

The water situation in Arlington Heights is no longer irritating, it's just plain boring.

For 7 years now the village trustees have been promising and assuring and announcing and planning relief to residents faced with such shortages of water that certain sections of the village are without bath facilities at times.

I GUESS we might as well resign ourselves to the inevitable.

Arlington Heights is a marvelous community in which to live, perhaps even the most desirable suburb in the northwest area. But we pay a price for desirability—the one handicap; no water.

Oh well, poof.

Lessons In English

by W. L. GORDON

Imperativeness; quality of being commanding or authoritative. "There could be no question as to the imperativeness of his command."

Paradox; that which in appearance is absurd, yet may be true in fact. "After all his arguments against the bill, his affirmative vote seemed a paradox."

Initiative (noun); an introductory step. "I am willing to take the initiative in this matter."

Allurement; that which tempts, entices, or attracts. "She has all the allurements of a coquette."

Misspelled

Prima donna; one "m," but two "n's." Emerge (to come out of); immerge (to go suggenly into). Mahogany; observe the two "a's." Millennium; observe the two "l's" and two "n's." Complexion; not "complection." Ambassador; observe the "ssa."

Word Study

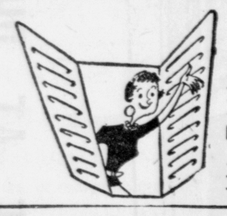
"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Placate: to appease; satisfy. "He was anxious to placate her."

Unction; that quality in language, address, or the like, which expresses or excites sober and fervent emotion; religious fervor. "A little unction, discreetly applied, can win many favors."

Preceptor; principal or teacher of school. "The preceptor of the boys' school was also the football coach."

Acrid; sharp and harsh; pungent. "He was aware of a slightly acrid odor permeating the room."



JUST AROUND THE CORNER

from Patty McArdle

Dear Peg:

Heaven, indeed, protects infants and little children! "Baby Patrick" was home just a little over a week, when Megan came down with the measles. Having had no idea that Megan had been exposed to the disease, we were taken by surprise and quite worried that the baby might catch it. In his usual calm manner, Dr. Canmann assured us that during his first three months "Paddy" was immune to the "childhood diseases" which I had had—isn't that a marvelous plan for new babies?

As she did with her chicken pox and mumps, Megan had a very light and "lady-like" case of the measles.

However, it still prevented her from attending her little brother's christening. Dot Hansen, one of my dearest friends whom I've known since school days, came from Dayton, Ohio to be Godmother and Bob Mocella, one of Bob's best friends who shared with him the rigors of life in the navy ROTC program at Northwestern, is Patrick's Godfather.

IT WAS A LOVELY sunny day for a christening and Robert Patrick was impeccably attired for the occasion. His bonnet, sweater and booties were handmade of the softest white wool. Over this ensemble he wore his lacy, pale blue orlon shawl—just the thing for the well-dressed young heir. His entire outfit (with the exception of the christening dress worn by both his sisters) was selected and presented with love to him by his maternal grandmother, our dear "Nana."

"Paddy" thoroughly enjoyed his first auto trip to the church. Like Megan and Bridget did when they were his age, he slept peacefully all the way, briefly opening his eyes when startled by a horn-honk or car-door-slam.

Grandmother and Grandfather McArdle were waiting for us when we arrived at the church—this was their first glimpse of their first Grandson and prouder Grandparents you've never seen! Of course, to hold a baby boy was nothing new to Gramma — she had held and loved four of her own.

I THINK PATRICK sensed this too, for he seemed to nestle down and feel at home in her arms. It was only when I saw Robert Patrick I and Robert Patrick III together (yes, Papa finally had his turn at "holding"), that I noticed how much our Patrick resembles his Grandpa. The shape of his face, his nose, mouth and chin are very much like his namesake's. Sure, and it's a lucky Irishm'n he'll be, if the little "Paddy" grows up alookin' like his Grandfather McArdle!

After the christening, there were gifts to open, including a silver spoon from his Godmother (a small one for "Mama" to feed the young man with) and a silver spoon and cup from his Grandparents (for the young man to feed himself with). We all came back to the apartment for dinner and like all good movie-camera-families, took pictures of baby, presents and all.

OUR SON GROWS a little bigger each day and no wonder—how he loves his food! He now drinks 2 ounces of orange juice each morning, takes his .6 cc. of Vifort from a dropper (the flavor must appeal to him—we're sure he smiles when he swallows it) and eats cereal twice a day—all this in addition to nursing every four hours! Like his sisters, he loves his bath.

The warm water seems to have a soothing effect on him, for as soon as he's submerged, he completely relaxes, starts to yawn and looks very sleepy. It's fun watching him progress so rapidly, yet I hope he doesn't progress too rapidly —we want to keep a litle baby around the house for a while.

My love,
Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

This is a momentous week. At least the beginning has been quite fraught with promise.

One of the really big decisions is that we have received permission from a power that is, to become singular. That means that from now on I can come right out and say I. This appeals to my ego enormously. The editorial we is all right if one is writing an editorial. However, if one is writing about her offspring and such personal balderdash, it makes the place a little crowded when one lon. parent gets to be plural.

Each year I sort of look forward to vacation time. It always seems as though the young around here should be in better humor than at any time during the year. They don't have to put up with the vagaries of the various teaching staffs in the halls of learning. They don't have to rise and shine at the crack of dawn. And nothing really has to be done on time.

Does this make them undemanding and angelic? It does not. It seems to send them into a fit of deep gloom from which they rise only to snarl or eat. It all started with clothes. I have one child who likes to outgrow her wearing apparel. She gloats as she shows me just how much too small last year's shorts are. If I don't break all speed laws getting her to the haberdashers, she maintains that hardly anyone she knows runs around in their underwear. And what will people say?

So I hustle around in my four-year-old shorts and get them all outfitted. Sometimes the war cry around here is "Peace at any price" and it is usually quite a price.

But there is no peace. Tickets must be stood in line for that will let them cool their fevered brows in the local pool all season. Does this keep them contented? Uh Uh. They want to go at night too and this causes mother to run her taxi into the evening hours as no girl of mine is out after dark.

The next thing on the docket was a croquet set which, I was assured, would keep them home and happy all summer long. It made them so happy that before the game was set up, they sat down and figured out that what they wanted all the time was a badminton set.

My answer to this is almost unprintable but rest assured that is was delivered in stentroian tones and at the limit of my lung capacity. The matter rests. Peace is uneasy but I am grateful for any respite no matter how hard won.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Farmers Home Administration has just raised their top limit for this area to $30,000, which means that qualified buyers can now purchase farms up to $30,000 in price with as little as 10% down. To qualify you must be a tenant with personal property or an experienced farmer with cash to buy personal. Write us for our list of farms that you probably will be able to buy with 10% down—(40 years to pay at 4½% interest). In some instances you can pay more than $30,000 if you have the difference in cash between $27,000 and the selling price.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. What is the correct way to answer an invitation to a wedding reception?

A. On the first page of note paper, and although it is written by hand, the spacing of the words should be the same as though they were engraved. Also, since the invitation was written in the third person, your reply should also be written in the third person.

Q. Is it all right for a girl to give her order directly to the waiter when dining with a man?

A. No; she should tell her escort what she would like and allow him to place the order with the waiter.

Q. If all the other guests at a dinner have refused a second helping of some dish, and then you are asked, is it all right for you to accept?

A. Probably it would be better not to do so, as this would naturally cause a delay in the serving of the next court. The well-bred person is always considerate of others, and that is the prime secret of popularity.

Q. What would you say is the best way to acquire taste in the choice of words and phrasing of sentences for conversational purposes?

A. The reading of newspapers and good books is one of the best ways to acquire a choice and pleasing vocabulary.

Q. Is it proper to have one's telephone number engraved on personal stationery?

A. Never.

Q. Is it all right to sip one's coffee first with the spoon in order to test its temperature?

A. Yes; this is far better than burning the mouth. But as soon as the coffee has been tested, return the spoon to the saucer and sip the remainder of the coffee directly from the cup.

Q. When a person who is making an introduction does not speak a name clearly, and it is very important that you know the name, of whom do you ask that the name be repeated?

A. Asked the person introduced, not the one who has made the introduction.

Q. Is it considered good form for a family to insert "Please omit flowers" in a funeral notice?

A. Certainly, if such is the family's desire. The request should be respected, and the motive not questioned.

Q. Should the parents of a child reprimand him if he misbehaves at the table in the presence of guests? A. No; either the father or mother should quietly take the child away from the table. He should not be scolded or punished in the presence of guests, but neither should the misbehavior be ignored.

Q. If a woman is being married for the second time, would it be proper for her teen-age son to give her away and her daughter to serve as her maid-of-honor?

A. This would not only be entirely proper, but it would also indicate her children's approval of her re-marrying.

Q. At the home of a friend recently, a large bowl of mixed salad greens was passed with the meat course. Since I don't like salad mixed with my food, and there were no salad plates, I asked my hostess for a small plate. Was this all right?

A. No. To sak for anything extra in a private home shows criticism for the service. Instead of asking for the extra plate, you should have declined the salad.

Q. If a male relative performs the rite of giving the bride away (her father being dead), does he then take his place in the front pew next to the bride's mother?

A. This is the usual procedure, although it is not required.

Q. If a man's fiance has broken their engagement, is it proper for the man's mother to write to the girl asking for the return of some linen she gave as an engagement gift?

A. This would be quite in order, since it was understood that the linen she gave was to be used in her son's home.

Q. When drinking a cocktail that has a piece of fruit in it, such as orange, lemon or pineapple, is it proper to eat the fruit?

A. Although it is not usually done, it is quite all right to eat it, if you wish. Put the rind back into the emptied glass.

Q. How can an unmarried woman, living in a hotel, return the hospitality shown her by married friends who have entertained her?

A. By taking them to dinner at a hotel or restaurant.

Q. When writing a personal letter, is the date correctly put at the end of the message, or at the top righthand corner?

A. Usually, in the top righthand corner of a long letter, but at the end of a short note.

Q. Who goes first down the aisle of a motion picture theater, the man or the woman?

A. The woman precedes. And unless she is with her husband, fiance or someone she knows real well, she should turn to him and ask, "Is this all right?" This gives him a chance — should he be near or farsighted — to suggest a seat that is closer or farther away.

Q. When the ceremony is over at a church wedding, should the members of the immediate families be permitted to leave the church first, before the other people?

A. Yes, this is the proper procedure.

Q. Should a young person offer a hand when being introduced to an elderly woman?

A. Only if the elderly woman offers her hand first.

Q. Should a bride-elect write notes of thanks to all the guests who attended a shower in her honor?

A. This is not necessary. Her thanks at the affair itself should be sincere and gracious enough. She must, however, write a note of thanks to the hostess of the shower, and she can later entertain the guests at a luncheon or bridge party, either before or after the wedding.

Q. Is it necessary that the acknowledgment of an invitation, when either accepting or declining, be definite, or is it all right for one to say, "I may be able to come"?

A. The acknowledgment must always be definite, either "yes" or "no."

Q. How should a sherbet glass be held, by the bowl or by the stem?

A. The base of the bowl should be held with the fingers, not with the whole hand.

Q. When one is staying at a hotel for several weeks, and eats his meals in the dining room at the same table throughout, would it be all right to tip the waiter or waitress by the week, instead of at every meal?

A. Yes; this is often done and is much more convenient.

Q. When passing a cream pitcher at the table, or any other such article with a handle, should the handle always be turned towards the person who is to receive it?

A. Yes, always.

Q. Has a divorced woman the privilege to continue wearing her rings?

A. If she wishes; this is entirely optional.

Q. If tea is served and a guest does not care for it, would it be all right for this guest to ask for a cup of coffee?

A. Not unless the hostess asks if he or she would prefer coffee. Otherwise, drink the tea, or part of it, and express no preference.

Lessons In English

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "Jackson is going to stop in St. Louis for a few days." Say, "is going to STAY in St. Louis for a few days."

Avoid the senseless phrase, "Every so often." Instead, say, "Often, now and then, occasionally, frequently, or sometimes."

Do not say, "You are more worthy than him." Say, "than HE."

Do not say, "We don't propose to interfere." Say, "We don't INTEND to interfere."

Do not say, "Outside of a cold, he is all right." Say, "ASIDE FROM a cold, he is all right."

Do not say, "The place was filled to capacity." Obviously, a place that is filled to capacity is no "fuller" than one that is filled. Omit "to capacity."

Words Often Mispronounced

Papiermache. Pronounce pay-per-mah-shay, with accents on first and last syllables.

Gangrenous. Pronounce gangreenuss, with accent on first syllable, not the second.

Curacao (West Indies island). Pronounce koo-rah-sah-oh, with accent on third syllable.

Mirage. Pronounce mirahzh, accent on second syllable.

Mien. Pronounce as "mean."

Opine. Pronounce ohpine, accent on second syllable.

Words Often Misspelled

Annex, two "n's"; anecdote, only one "n." Errant (mistaken; departing from the right course); arrant (out-and-out; thorough-going). Credible (capable of being believed); creditable (deserving of praise). Prefix, one "f"; suffix, two "f's." Premiere (first public presentation, as of a play); premier (a prime minister). Profit (gain); prophet (one who foretells events).

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

DOGMATIZE; to speak or write positive assertions without adducing proof. "It is useless to dogmatize about things which have never been proved."

DILEMMA; a vexatious predicament; difficult choice or position. "My errors of judgment have placed me in a dilemma."

MERCENARY; actuated by (usually sordid or selfseeking) considerations of profit or reward. "The girl's parents were hoping for a mercenary marriage."

CONCOMITANT (noun)! that surmise or guess. "It was a mere conjectural opinion."

which accompanies (accent second syllable). "The other concomitant of ingratitude is hardheartedness."

HUSBAND (verb); to direct and marriage with frugality. "He husbanded his resources to the very best of his ability."

Words Often Misused

Do not say, "Please refer back again to chapter three." Omit "back again."

Remember that "suspect" is the verb, "suspicion" the noun. Avoid the use of "suspicion" as a verb. Say, "I suspected (not "suspicioned") that his claims were false."

Distinguish between "odorous," meaning fragrant, and "odious," meaning deserving of hatred.

Do not say, "He will arrive at about three o'clock." Use either "at" or "about," but not both. Say, "He will arrive at three o'clock," or, "He will arrive about three o'clock."

Do not say, "We shall meet you later on in the evening." Omit "on."

Do not say, "Proceed like you wish, as long as you improve yourself." Say, "Proceed as you wish, so long as you improve yourself."

Often Mispronounced

Foreign. Pronounce the "o" as in "on," not as in "four."

Revocable. Accent first syllable, not the second.

Forecaster. Accent second syllable, not the first.

Charlatan. Pronounce shahr-lah-tan, accent first syllable.

Plague. Pronounce the "a" as in "play," 'not as in "flag."

Cerebral Pronounce sehr-ee-bral, with accent on second syllable.

Often Misspelled

Allot, one "t"; allotted, two "t's." Adapt (to make suitable); adept (expert). Rye (a grain); wry (twisted; contorted; as, "a wry face"). Repertoire (a list of dramatic parts one is prepared to perform); repertory (a treasury; storehouse; collection). Panic, ic; panicky, icky. Lacquer; observe the "cqu."

Word Study

"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

Habituate; to accustom. "One must habituate oneself to the rules and regulations of this community."

Furtive; sly; secret; stealthy. "The man's furtive glances made her feel uncomfortable."

- North Elmhurst Village
- Record Rate Growth
- Sewers, Water Cheaper
- Survey Complete, Well Done

We strayed a little from our normal "news beat" Friday night to attend the public mass meeting conducted by the North DuPage Homeowners association at the Churchville school to consider ways to improve the community of what will be some 400 homes by fall.

"With four people per house, we will have a population of about 1,600 persons," opined Harold Hall, an official of the association and member of its civic planning information committee which presented the detailed and comprehensive report that was a highlight of the program.

Ray Berg, committee chairman, did an excellent job as both slides and graphs were featured to give the 200 and some persons in the audience a pretty thorough picture of their community as it stands now and likely remedies toward improvement that might be enacted in the future.

Considered primarily were incorporation as a city or village and installation of a sanitary system. Also mentioned to lesser extents were petitioning for annexation to Elmhurst, installation of a storm sewer system and construction of hard surface streets.

Berg pointed toward the very likely continued expansion of the north of Elmhurst region for several reasons. He indicated, for one thing, that the new northwest superhighway is scheduled to end in the locality and pointed out that new subdivisions are coninuing to sprout up all around the area.

He presented figures showing that the territory which takes in three subdivisions known as H. O. Stone's addition, the Lake st. addition and the Emroy ave. addition had only 60 dwellings in 1930 and about 80 in '40. The growth has increased rapidly, however, since then.

The sector had 324 homes last October and that number has now increased by 60 to 384 now. "We have every reason to believe that this current high rate or even better will be maintained for the forseeable future and we can reasonably expect to have 1,200 homes in nine or 10 years," Berg exclaimed.

There is plenty of room in the area for such expansion since the major portions of the three subdivisions still are unimproved. "We should have a modern shopping center in view of this growth pattern," Berg pointed out. This, naturally, would be a further attraction to newcomers.

Strong need for sewers and disposal facilities was shown through slides taken during flooding conditions in the sector last month. It will be two years ago this October when the association was formed as the direct result of a very heavy flood that plagued the area.

In connection with health, Berg disclosed that water at a typical spot was tested during the recent high flowage period and was found to contain 10 counts of pollution by state inspectors. "One count is enough to bring contamination," the committee chairman announced.

Reporting on the basis of 1,200 homes the community expects to have in a decade or less, he stated that a study of costs has shown that the construction of sewer and water facilities would actually be considerably cheaper than installations of wells and septic tanks as currently being undertaken.

The study established the cost of the wells and septics for the 800 new homes at about $920,000. A sanitary sewer system, it was found, would run about $245,000 for the whole community and water would cost about $408,000 for a lesser total of $653,000.

And even the addition of storm sewers to wipe out most threats of any future floods would up this total to just $853,000 with an additional $200,000 expenditure. These three projects, it was estimated, would cost the home owner a total of $711, but this would be spread over 20 years.

That Berg, his committee and probably others did a vast amount of work on this planning report could not be questioned. The various sections went into detail that space limitations prevent us from covering. We are, however, carrying the conclusion of our review over to next week.

We will convey Berg's findings on the financial costs of various improvements that the region would probably consider as a municipality in addition to those already mentioned, also, the reports rendered at the meeting by officials from several neighboring communities already incorporated.

State Approves Sewers And Plant For Wood Dale

Permits for a sewer system and treatment plant to serve Wood Dale have been granted by the Illinois sanitary water board, it was announced this week by the division of department reports of the state at Springfield. Construction is expected to begin momentarily.

THE TREATMENT works, to employ the activated sludge process, is designed to serve a population of 5,300. An official special census set the community's population as of September 1, 1954, at 2,308. The count is now estimated at a slightly higher 2,375.

THE SEWER system to replace the septic tanks now in use throughout Wood Dale will require approximately 14 miles of piping. Tentative plans call for a portion of the disposal plant to be used as a municiapl building, reveals C. W. Klassen, technical secretary of the sanitary water board.

A CROWD OF 200 PERSONS learned the facts, posed questions and then agreed by a majority to seek incorporation of their three subdivisions as a new municipality at a meeting of the North Elmhurst Homeowners association Friday. The area, plagued by drainage problems in recent years, extends northeast in general from Lake st. and York rd. —Staff photo

The clerk's office in the Wood Dale club is now open from 9 to 12 and 1 to 4:30 except on Wednesdays and Saturdays when morning hours are only maintained. —Staff photo

Nab 30 Drivers Of Ill-Equipped Trucks On 83

Justice of the Peace Kenneth Winters, Keeneyville, has set Saturday at 10 a.m. as the court time when he'll hear some 30 cases involving inadequacies detected on trucks during a crack down period last Saturday at the state weighing station on rte. 83, just south of North ave.

Infractions for which drivers were charged included flares, flags, safety stickers, splash guards, directional lights and even chauffeur's licenses. State law requires that trucks of the heavy variety carry at least two flags and three flares for emergency use.

ONE DRIVER arrested stated that he was actually glad to get out of his "semi" which was in officers found this vehicle to be without lights, horn, speedometer, brakes or directional signals.

Get Data On Conservancy District And Master Plan

A large crowd of Addison township residents were on hand Monday night for a public hearing on two projects expected to strongly affect the future of Du Page county.

THE SESSION IN THE FIRE station at Addison was called by the future plan committee of the board of supervisors and Chairman Henry Holm, Hinsdale, presided. Discussed were the proposed river conservancy district and the master plan now in preparation for the county.

Featured speakers James Monahan and Carl Gardner covered the conservancy proposal and the master plan respectively and displayed staunch patience in attempting to answer even the queries that bordered on being pointless and even nonsensical.

MONAHAN, representative of the firm of Consoer and Townsend who are now consulting engineers for Du Page, outlined the plans for the conservancy district which will have broad powers in licking many drainage problems that have been plagueing a number of rural areas.

He pointed out that something will have to be done quickly since the population of the county may reach 300,000 by the end of the year. "If you don't act, the legislature will," Monahan indicated. The proposal will come to a vote at the general election November 6.

In explaining the plans for improvements in the Salt creek water shed which flows across much of Addison township, he said that both Salt creek and Spring brook which runs through Itasca will have to be opened up and dredged. He added that all Salt Creek bridge openings will have to be enlarged by the state which is responsible.

Responding to questions from citizens of that area, Monahan said it will also be recommended that Addison creek be cleaned out in the area north of Elmhurst stretching from Mount Emblem cemetery to the Bensenville disposal plant.

THE ENGINEER said the conservancy district would be governed by 21 trustees with 17 representing municipalities in Du Page with populations of 5,000 or more and the other four being appointed by the county judge to serve for all other areas in the county.

Monahan also spoke in support of the formation of a sanitary district in Addison township and the acquisition of water in the entire area from the recently formed Elmhurst - Villa Park - Lombard water commission. Both projects could be handled by the river conservancy setup, he explained.

MOST INTEREST in Gardner's presentation on the master plan leaned toward zoning as citizens agreed that industry is necessary to share in the tax burden, but—as has been the case many times in the past — felt strongly against having it anywhere near their back yard.

Discussed extensively were plans to convert Elmhurst airport, soon expected to close, into one large industrial tract for an experimental or research laboratory. Citizens suggested several surrounding tracts instead of the airport.

ONE CITIZEN commented, "Mosquitoes bother me more than planes . . . any factory is worse than a airport." Gardner said that he was glad to hear such opinions expressed since it was hoped from the start that the people would be willing to express their desires and dislikes.

Several persons backed the suggestion that the airport be subdivided like surrounding tracts. Despite his assurances that any industry would be stiffly

Restricted Sprinkling Underway In Roselle

In an effort to remove any possibility of a water shortage, Roselle officials announce that restricted sprinkling throughout the village will begin tomorrow, Friday, June 15.

The same program used last year will be followed this summer. Persons with addresses of even numbers will only be able to sprinkle on such calendar days with the other matching combination serving for the odd numbered days.

Say Addition Is Needed at Medinah; Enrollment Zooms

A main topic of discussion by the board of education of Medinah school at it's regular meeting, Mnday evening was enrollment.

AS OF THIS date there are 147 students registered for enrollment in September. During the past there has been approximatly 15 additional enrollments during the summer and an additional 15 during the school year.

IF THIS pattern holds true this next year the present school building will be filled to capacity before the end of the 1956-57 school term with an enrollment of approximately 18 students.

IN VIEW of the above facts and with many new homes being built in the district, the board of education feels that initial plans should be formulated now to provide for additional and much needed classroom area in the very near future.

Addison Sets Hot Building Pace With 41 Homes In May

The village of Addison outdid all other local areas in home building last month.

EXACTLY 41 PERMITS were issued for new dwellings there to cost a total of $615,000, according to figures released by Annemarie Blischke, village clerk. It was the best construction month in history of the growing community.

The overall north Du Page picture saw 203 permits dealt out with a combined valuation of $2,630,-044 which ranked as second only to April's $3,133,420 as the highest value for the territory on record. Valuation set for the 147 home permits was $2,447,634.

ADDISON'S STAUNCH contribution also included six garage projects valued at $6,000. The total valuation of $621,000 easily eclipsed the previous high month for the village which was April when the value figure climbed to $483,800 for 36 permits, 32 being for residences.

Aside from Addison, heaviest building activity in north Du Page in May was listed for the rural sections of Addison and Bloomingdale townships. Here's how it went: Addison — 54 permits, $629,857 value; 36 homes, $597,700 value, and Bloomingdale — 43 permits, $744,284; 37 homes, $735,584.

BENSENVILLE WAS runner-up among the local villages last month with 29 permits valued at $212,508. Fourteen were for dwellings to cost about $183,100. An even dozen permits were issued for construction in Roselle with a $190,000 valuation. Six were for homes worth a combined $111,000.

With curtailments now lifted, Wood Dale experienced its best month in many as eight permits were released for new buildings with a total valuation of $121,950. The Itasca picture during May, according to Clerk Carl Hanck, listed 10 permits, seven for dwellings, with a value of $110,-445.

Set New Rates

Bensenville trustees last Thursday adopted an amendatory ordinance creating new rates for tap-ons to the village water system and prices for water meters. The increases became necessary, it was explained, due to gains in the costs of materials.

Disorderly Charge Brings $100 Fine

Although the charge against him was reduced from driving while intoxicated to disorderly conduct, Chicagoan eGorge Tarnow was fined $100 plus costs by Justice of the Peace Kenneth Winters in his Keeneyville court Saturday. He was arrested by county deputies last week.

THEY SPOTTED his car weaving back and forth across Lake direction. They turned around, gave chase and apprehended Tarnow at Lake and Glen Ellyn rd., east of Bloomingdale. Their prisoner accidentally set the seat in the squad car on fire with a cigarette but damage was slight.

Fined $50 and placed on a by Judge Winters Saturday was 16-year old Phillip J. Eppolito. He was taken into custody by state police May 31 for lacking a driver's license after being involved in a two-car collision at Lake st. and rte. 53, west of Addison.

Dram Shop Suit Seeks $50,000 For '55 Mishap

A $50,000 dram shop suit naming Joseph and Grace Jemsek of St. Andrews country club, near West Chicago, as defendants was filed in the DuPage circuit court at Wheaton last week as the result of an accident at Addison rd. and North ave., south of Addison, May 8, 1955.

PLAINTFFS in the action are Myron Homiak, 45, Elmhurst, and his two daughters, Phyllis, 14, and Marcia, 10. Two persons died in the two-car collision — Homiak's wife, Kathryn, 41, and the driver of the other auto, Robert T. Kahout, 31, Crystal Lake.

The suit charges that Kahout was served liquor at the country club. Police reported at the time that he was driving west on North while Homiak, accompanied by his wife, was heading in the opposite direction. Homiak was listed in the litigation as administrator of his wife's estate.

HE IS seeking $15,000 under the dram shop charges and $5,000 for alleged property damage. The daughters are each asking $15,-000 for their alleged losses, according to the suit.

Wood Dale Police To Have Summer Help

Leroy Tamillo, Harvey ave., was last Thursday accepted by the Wood Dale council as a new police deputy to supplant regular members during their vacation periods this summer.

He gained police experience as an MP in the army. Peter Tulp, school crossing guard, is being retained for the summer months to help out in the same manner. it was further announced at the council session.

Sector North Of Elmhurst Votes For Incorporation

Addison township may soon get its first new municipality since Wood Dale was incorporated in 1928.

RESIDENTS OF THE AREA that extends northeast from Lake st. and York rd. gave strong indication that this is their desire at a public meeting conducted by the North Elmhurst Homeowners association to consider this and other matters Friday night at the Churchville school.

Some 200 citizens were in attendance to hear the extensive report from Ray Berg, head of the association's civic planning information committee, and brief talks by Roy Palmer, Elmhurst city manager; Elmer Krage, a member of the Addison Planning commission, and Mayor Herbert Gilbert, Wood Dale.

A QUESTION and answer discussion was then conducted with these men and other officials of the homeowners group attempting to provide satisfactory replies to a number of queries posed from the people basically unfamiliar with the details and provisions of incorporating.

True indication of the people's feelings came as a climax of the informative program that lasted over two hours. Ballots were passed out that introduced five possible considerations as the most important matters the residents might like to consider at the present time.

THE PROPOSALS received votes as follows: 1. annexation to Elmhurst, six persons in favor; 2. incorporation as own municipality, 69 favoring; 3. formation of a sanitary district, 13 for; 4. adoption of a hard roads tax per state law, one for, and 5. "stay as is," 19 for votes.

Leaders of the association announced before the vote was taken that they would proceed as balloting dictated and they are now proceeding to bring about formal consideration of the incorporation question as quickly as possible. Friday's voting, of course, was in no way official.

Mail Order Firm Denied Zoning By Bensenville Board

Bensenville Trustees last Thursday voted unanimously to concur with a recommendation of the zoning board of appeals of the village to deny a request for rezoning of the old Kolze farm on the west side of Church rd., north of the Milwaukee Road tracks.

THE ZONING BODY conducted a public hearing on the petition to change the classification from "A" single family residence to "D" light industry May 28. At that time, neighboring property owners voiced strong objections to the plans for the property.

THE CHANGE had been sought to pave the way for the construction of new headquarters for the silver and china mail order firm of the Easterling co. now located in downtown Chicago. Spokesmen for the business appeared before the village board in May and were referred to the board of appeals.

Firemen's 19th Carnival At Bensenville Underway

The always popular and long awaited carnival sponsored and presented yearly by the Bensenville fire department is now underway at the fire station grounds.

THE SITE AT 15 N. York st., just north of Main st. in the village, attracted a large crowd of fun and amusement seekers amid its brightly lit and decorated booths, games and rides as the carnival opened its five-night run Wednesday. The grounds will be open nightly through Sunday at 7 p.m.

A special attraction at 5 p.m. Sunday will be a water fight staged by department members. This is the 19th consecutive year in which the firemen have presented this carnival and this year's event, they announce, is bigger than any of its predecessors.

PROCEEDS this year will be used to further reduce the balance still owed on the fire station which has proved of benefit to many groups and organizations as a meeting place. Money raised will also go toward equipment so that the Bensenville department can continue to rank with the best.

Call Safety Meeting At Fenton High School

Plans for a safety mass meeting to be held at Fenton high school, Tuesday, June 19, at 8 p.m. are announced. Sheriff Stanley Lynch of Du Page county has been invited to give his views on a "Slow Down and Live" program.

Richard was graduating from the eighth grade at the Burnham school in Cicero.

Linnea Lilja Honored

Linnea Lilja, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lilja, was graduated Friday evening from Fenton high school, and was honored with 2 parties. Immediately following the graduation exercises her parents entertained at a family party in their home on Tioga rd. Among the guests present, in addition to relatives, were Mr. and Mrs. John Keefer. Mrs. Keefer had presented Linnea with the DAR award at the graduation exercises. Sunday afternoon 40 guests gathered for an open house party to offer their heartiest congratulations and best wishes for Linnea's success in college next fall. Using Fenton's colors as a theme, Mrs. Lilja used orange bird of paradise flowers nestled in a blue mortar board as a floral arrangement on the serving table. Each napkin also held a small blue mortar board, making for a very attractive graduate's table. Each guest was given a carnation to which blue and orange ribbons were attached. One of the real highlights of the day for Linnea came when a former Lombard friend, whom she had not seen since the girls stopped by to offer best wishes. It was a real reunion for both the girls and one which they will both remember for years to come.

The Richard Hoskins family are enjoying a visit this week from Mrs. Leon Johnson. The Johnsons arrived Sunday evening from their home in Fall River, Mass., and are enjoying being with their grandsons, Rich and Lee, and the newest arrival, James.

Visiting Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parks are thoroughly enjoying a 14-day visit from their son and his wife, Cpl. and Mrs. Robert Parks. Cpl. Parks is stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., and enroute here stopped in Jacksonville, Ill., to pick up his wife who is a student at Illinois college.

Hold Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gore opened their home on York rd. to 42 guests last Thursday evening, immediately following eighth grade graduation exercises at Blackhawk Jr. high. The party was given in honor of their daughter, Joanne. Guests were served from a table which used green and gold, the school colors, as its theme. Yellow and green candle flanked a large graduation doll used as a centerpiece. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nadler and son, Johnny, of Hawaii.

To climax their first year of study at Fenton high, Ann Linden and Katy Maddy acted as cohostesses at a party for 22 school friends last Wednesday evening. The party was held at the Linden home on Church rd. Dancing, a jitterbug contest, and good food made a wonderful evening for the teenagers.

Immediately following graduatime services at Blackhawk Jr. high last Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dale honored their daughter, Roberta, with a buffet supper party at their home on S. Walnut st. Among the 15 guests who gathered to offer congratulations was Roberta's aunt, Mrs. Henry Dexter of West Fork, Ark.

Entertain At Shower

Mrs. John L. Thomas used pastel tones as the theme for her home and table decorations at a stork shower held Sunday afternoon at her home on W. Green st. Sixteen guests were present at the party which honored Mrs. Ira Avent of Melrose Park.

Vacation In Ohio

Mrs. Joseph White and her daughter, Millicent, had a wonderful time last week visiting friends in Painesville and Mentor on the Lake, Ohio. They accompanied Mr. White who had gone to Cleveland to attend the Material Handlings show being held there.

A small gathering of friends and relatives was held immediately following Blackhawk Jr. high graduation exercises Thursday evening at the George Adis home on York rd. The party honored the Adis' daughter, Kathy, who was graduated that evening from the eighth grade.

A supper party for 2 couples was held Sunday evening at the Richard Terhune home on Algonquin rd.

Graduates Thursday

The C. E. Van Dusen home on Mason street was a busy one last week with activities connected with their daughter, Clarice's, graduation from the eighth grade at Blackhawk Jr. high. Thursday evening they honored Clarice with a dinner party for several friends and relatives, then Sunday they were again hosts at a family party. Clarice was especially pleased to have 2 of her aunts and a cousin present for the occasion. Mrs. Axel Jensen and her son, Donald, came from their home in Rutinton, Minn., and Mrs. Virgil Van Dusen from her home in Tyler, Minn. They left early Monday morning, thus rounding out a very hectic week for the whole family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parks of County Line rd. and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ogden of Broadview returned to their homes Saturday from a 9-day vacation spent in the Lac La Croix region of Canada. It was a most interesting trip, in that they drove as far as Crane lake then left their car there and proceedd by boat to Campbell's lodge where they made their headquarters. The weather was wonderful and the fishing excellent, is fact there was but one unpleasant aspect of the entire vacation. The black flies were much in evidence, and since they have an infectious bite, this became most disagreeable. Both Mrs. Parks and Mrs. Ogden suffered from the bites, but not enough to mar their enthusiasm for the trip.

Party For Son

The Matthew Ages held a party Sunday at their home on South Walnut st. for about 30 guests in honor of their son, Robert, who was a member of Fenton high school graduating class. The weather was beautiful so a buffet supper was served both indoors and on the lawn.

Rev. Norman Zurbrigg has been among the many adults afflicted with the measles, and has been quite ill.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Thor J. Kleven announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Clair A. Hoog, son of Mrs. August V. Hoog, Holdrege, Nebraska.

Set New Police, Fire Commission In Bensenville

Membership for Bensenville's new fire and police commission was approved by village trustees at their regular meeting last Thursday after President Gust J. Van Mol had presented the names of his candidates for the three posts. The commission was created at special election last month.

OKAYED FOR THREE, two and one-year terms respectively were Arthur Petersen, 427 W. Grove st.; Mrs. Margaret B. Robbins, 276 S. Center st., and Roy Lange, 222 S. Park st. Acceptance of this new post meant of this new post meant Petersen had to resign from two others within the village government.

AFROVED TO REPLACE him as a member of the plan commission was Robert Kerr, 49 Greenlawn. Succeeding Peterson on the Bensenville zoning board of appeals is Harold Schoo, 124 N. Center st. Both Kerr and Schoo were also the recommendations of President Van Mol.

State Okays Street Work In Bensenville

Bensenville was notified the past week that the state has granted approval for a $20,000 street improvement project to be financed with motor fuel tax receipts disbursed to the village in the past.

Slated to get improvements that include storm sewers, curbs, gutters and blacktopping over a new road bed of crushed stone eight inches deep is tne stretch of Grove ave, between Church rd. and Walnut st.

Speeders Hit Hard In Bensenville Courts Last Month

Speeders were the No. 1 headache for Bensenville police during May, it was revealed this week in the regular monthly reports filed with Village Clerk Herbert Dierking by Police Magistrate John Mears and Justice of the Peace Leroy Thiemann. They fined a total of 86 motorists on such charges.

Eighty-four of these cases were handled by Mears. In addition to his two, Thiemann also assessed a fine on a disorderly conduct count. A breakdown of Mears 30 other cases was as follows: no vehicle license, 16; improper parking, six; stop sign, three; left turn and reckless driving, two each, and no drivers license, one violation.

Lack Of Support For Little League Brings Complaints

Pony and Little League Auxilary held their regular meeting, June 5, at Tioga cafeteria, which is the final meeting to be held in the school until September.

THE NEXT REGULAR meeting will be held July 3, at the home of Mildred Dierking, 236 S. York st., after the Little Laegue game is over. Again there were only a few ladies to attend this meeting. Old and new business was discussed. It was voted to give $75 to each of the 3 Pony League teams, making a total of $225.

THE AUXILIARY has been given the difficult job of choosing one 13 or 14-year-old girl to represent Bensenville in the Pony League Queen contest.

Help is needed in both refreshment stands. There are approximately 250 boys, age 8 through 14, registered in Pony and Little League and the same 12 or 15 mothers giving their time and effort in keeping these stands going.

If you can give a couple of hours' time during the games please call Mrs. C. Schmidt, Bens. 2154-J, telling which evening or night you would like to work.

Lumber for bleachers, for Little League field has been laying around for 2 weeks — no carpenters.

Any man who wants to help build these bleachers may call Mr. Neumann, Bens. 2829-J, letting him know when you are available.

Girl Scout News

Troop News

Twelve members of troop 641 were formally invested into the Girl Scouts of America as they participated in their fly-up ceremonies on Wednessday afternoon, June 6 at Mohawk school. The color guard performed the flag ceremony, followed by the pledge of allegiance and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner. Then the girls repeated the brownie promise and sang the brownie song. Mrs. Edward Bodene then presented each girl with her fly-up wings and then as each new girl scout lit a candle she repeated one of the scout laws, then gave the girl scout promise and sign and was presented with a pin by Mrs. Phillip Battaglia, leader of the troop. The program closed with the singing of Taps. to the mothers of the girls by the members of the troop..

Those who received their fly-up wings and pins were Bonnie Bocek, Diane Bodene, Norma Buchanan, Janet Childers, Linda Frank, Patsy Garcia, Sandra Hansen, Janice Howard, Nancy Poggensee, Connie Presto, Beverly Schultz and Paula Sirovy. We wish them many more happy and useful years in girl scouting.

Girl scouts of troop 91 met at the home of their leader Mrs. Robert Geils on Wednesday afternoon for their final meeting of the year, where they were each presented with a World Association Pin to be worn above the pocket on all girls' uniforms.

Plans for the summer are being hashed over by members of troop 85 and they are all looking forward to two weeks to be spent together in a cabin in northern Wisconsin, accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. Charles Marks and Mrs. Gladys Martin.

Sharon Dew, Grace Vittula, Brenda Gordon and Bonita Heis were formally invested into girl scout troop 91 at their meeting last week at Mrs. Geils' home. We extend our congratulations and best wishes to them.

Day Camp

Day camp time is fast approaching and we hope all the little brownies are ready for a wonderful time. The weather has been so wonderful this week that we hope it will continue for the day camp session.

Wanted—News

Girl scout leaders and brownie leaders are reminded that we are always looking for news of the troops so we can let the other troops know what you are doing. Also, the other good citizens of Bensenville who contribute to our girl scout finance drive in the fall of every year are anxious to know of the various activities of the troops. Please let us have your news and reports on summer activities.

News Of Medinah

Neighbors extended deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Stellmach after learning of the death of their infant daughter last Friday. Mrs. Stellmach is home from the hospital now, and thanks her thoughtful neighbors for the flowers given her.

Club Installs Officers

Medinah Friendship club held their meeting outdoors last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Maimie Perlic. Installation of new officers took place. They are: Yolande Christopherson, president; Irene Wronski, vice president; Mildred Rothe, secretary; and Gertrude Hofstede, treasurer. Members discussed plans for a picnic in July. Co-hostess was Mildred Rothe.

Added to the growing list of measles patients are Bobby Piessner and Kathy Reiser.

See Ice Show

Spectators Monday night at the ice show in the boulevard room of the Conrad Hilton hotel were Mr. and Mrs. James McDowell, 8 friends of their former parish, and their guest, Father Guistolise of St. Ferdinand church of Chicago.

Neighbors and friends of Mrs. Clarence Stryker will be happy to learn that she is at home now, and recuperating nicely, after her 3 week stay at Sherman hospital.

New Residents

A community welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Danielson who recently moved into their new home at 50 West Thorndale. The Danielsons formerly lived in Itasca, and have 3 children — Joan, who at present is teaching in Whittier, Cal., and will be home this summer, Richard, and Linda.

Father Dies

Sympathy is extended Mrs. Alfred Dutton. Her father, Jacob Jonas, died early Tuesday afternoon. Burial will take place in the Lake Park Memrial estates, 6 miles west of Roselle.

All About Rabbits

It seems there is an abundance of rabbits in the woods 1 and 2 sections. Mrs. Ruth Kretschmer is spending long hours trying to keep alive 3 newborn rabbits by feeding them milk from a doll's bottle. They were given her by a neighbor whose dog had found them in a field.

Little Jimmy McDowell rescued a rabbit trapped in a cinder block pile, only to have it run off when finally freed.

Don Kratochvil caught 3 small rabbits on your reporter's lot, but the animals were turned loose after refusing food, much to the children's sorrow.

Enjoy Luncheon

Mrs. Zena Kreye, Mrs. Nita Hanson, Mrs. Ruth Kretschmer and their children enjoyed a spaghetti luncheon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jack White, following Bible classes at St. Luke church.

One of the boys carrying the Roselle Register has given up his route, and the Itasca news agency will now handle it. Residents whose subscriptions expire will be notified by the agency, and those on a monthly basis may contact the agency for delivery if so desired.

The speed of the modern ELECTRIC ranges!

From freezer to table in 4 minutes! Like all modern electric ranges, the surface unit on this Kelvinator combines high-speed cooking with accurate control.

25% faster than 5 years ago—

today—nothing cooks faster!

Cooking temperatures unlimited! Kelvinator's new Thermostatic Action Switches give precise control of any cooking heat. New models are available in 8 colors and white.

See your electric appliance dealer

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

Some of the most remarkable advances in the entire appliance field have been on electric ranges.

For example, new and improved surface cooking units were designed by America's great electric industry research centers. Better and faster ways of transforming electricity into quick heat for cooking have followed. Plus controls that offer a wide range of temperatures that you can depend on to give the same even heat, every time.

But modern electric ranges have more than well-controlled speed. They will keep your kitchen an average of 10 degrees cooler and far more comfortable. And electric broilers give you clean, radiant electric heat that sears the juices in meats. It's like broiling over charcoal, only faster and easier.

Today's electric ranges also keep your kitchen cleaner. (Something worth remembering if you plan to build, buy or remodel your home.) You will see many more of the "new idea" features in the latest electric ranges. Ask your dealer to show them to you. And while you're there find out just how easy it is to have an automatic electric range in your home.

Big Saving—We Pay Part of Your Range Installation Cost!

Need new wiring to install your electric range? We share the cost with qualified home owners in 1, 2 and 3-family dwellings. This can cut your expense by about half.

And you get more than a money saving!

The modern wiring that goes with your installation helps improve your TV picture, brightens lights, makes everything electrical work better. You can also install a 240-volt electric dryer, water heater or air conditioner quickly and cheaply The Share-the-Cost Plan is available on terms of up to 2 years.

Open House For Son

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allender, Grove ave., entertained at open house Sunday for 100 friends. Their son, Jerry, was recently graduated from the University of Chicago with a bachelor's degree. He has won a scholarship to the Hebrew university in Jerusalem and will sail August 2 on the SS Israel. This year of study is sponsored by the Leaders institute of New York. Next Wednesday Jerry will leave for Webster, Wis., to be music director at the Herzl camp for boys and girls for the summer.

Miss Cheryl and Miss Kathy Osborn of Rock Island are house-guests this week at the Warren Osborn home on Oakwood dr.

Hold Services

Mrs. Cornelius Wieringa, mother of the late Mrs. Walter Kehoe, died this week and was buried yesterday from Geils funeral home in Bensenville. Interment is at Mount Emblem cemetery.

Ruth Van Wakeman, Cleveland, Ohio, has been visiting her father, Walter Blecke, Oakwood dr.

To Attend Girls State

Miss Carolyn Fanstill, Harvey ave., will go to MacMurray college, Jacksonville, next Tuesday to the sessions of Illini Girls State. The week of activities, sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary, will give the girls an opportunity to learn government by living it daily. There will be mythical political parties, elections and inauguration proceedings. Miss Fanstill, who will be a senior next fall, was chosen because of her qualities of good character, leadership, and cooperation in her activities at Fenton high school.

To Square Dance

The Square Circle club will have their Mid June jamboree Friday evening starting at 8:30 at Fenton high school. The public is invited to this affair which will provide 4 well-known callers, Don Finfrock, Bill Clarke, Bill Shymkus, and Horace Hall, who will act as master of ceremonies. Music will be furnished by the Ranch Hands.

Undergoes Surgery

The George Tomasek home at 356 Walnut st. was a busy one last week. Tuesday their daughter, Barbara, was planning on a party to celebrate her 16th birthday but a burst appendix caused her to change plans and go to Walter Memorial hospital, Chicago instead. The fancy cake was taken to the hospital. Friday evening William Tomasek was a member of the graduating class at Fenton high school.

Give Supper Party

The Clarence Rivers home on Grove ave. was the scene of a gala buffet supper for 45 Sunday afternoon. The occasion was the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weimer of Chicago, Mrs. Rivers' sister and her husband. The guest list was composed by their daughter, Mary Ann, as a surprise. The house was decorated with silver bells. Three of the wedding attendants were on hand to enjoy the celebration.

Leaves For Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Bauman and family, Commercial ave., went to Montreal last weekend to see their daughter, Barbara, off on the SS Celeste Felice for a 3 month tour of Europe. Barbara graduated last week from Northern Illinois State Teachers college, De Kalb, with a degree in education. She will teach a primary grade at Arlington Heights next fall. In England, Belgium, Switzerland, and France students will attend classes for a week and then travel to the next country over the weekend. Traveling with 50 other students, Barbara will apply this trip on her master's degree. She is carrying a camera and will return with slides of her adventures.

Cubs To Be Cowboys

The public is invited to the "Wild West Show" which Pack 30 of the cub scouts will conduct Saturday at the public school. Hot dogs, pop, and ice cream will be available. Each den will present a short skit in keeping with the wild west theme. The show will start at 6:30 and afterward awards will be presented.

Injured In Accident

Mr. and Mrs. David Livingston, Hillcrest ave., were involved in an automobile accident last Thursday evening about 9:30. As they were driving west on Irving Park road, they paused to let a car come out of Central ave. When they did they were hit from the rear with a jolt which wrenched their necks. They were taken to Elmhurst hospital for observation. Mr. Livingston was released that night but Mrs. Livingston was found to have a dislocated vertebra near her shoulder. She has now returned to her home.

Entertain

A buffet supper for about 25 guests was the feature of Sunday afternoon at the Kurt Ulrich home on Wood Dale rd. There were 3 reasons for celebrating. Richard was a member of the eighth grade graduating class at Holy Ghost school, Kurt was in the class at Immaculate Conception high school, Elmhurst, and Emily will be graduated from St. Anne's school of nursing in August.

Members of the Altar and Rosary society are sponsoring a trip to the Croydon China company in Chicago next Wednesday. There is no fee for the tour but the women are asked to contribute bus fare for the Holy Ghost school bus which will be used. Mrs. Donald Malcolm is arranging the trip.

Father—Son Banquet

Mrs. Peter Bach and Mrs. Ray Anderson are in charge of the Father—Son banquet to be held this evening at 6:30 at the Community church. Wilfred Prather will be master of ceremonies. Dr. C. J. Hill, Mrs. Robert True's father, will bring some of his collection of "shooting irons" and tell some of the history of the weapons and demonstrate some tricks.

The WSWS meeting was postponed from today to next Thursday. There will be a book review by Mrs. Peter Petros. Her topic will be "Mirace of the Hills."

Stork Shower

Mrs. William Weihofen, School st., was given a stork shower by members of the Community club last Tuesday. Being a member of the board, she was surprised to get a notice of a "Special Meeting" but being a conscientious member she attended to hear what the group had to discuss. Upon her arrival the table was all decorated with a stork and fancy cake and gifts were piled high. It took most of the evening to open all the individual gifts.

Tag Day

Mrs. Arthur Ferguson, chairman of the local Salvation Army, has announced that the following women have donated their time to sell Doughnut tags tomorrow. Be sure to get yours. Workers are Mesdames C. Eric Carlson, William Ehlers, Andrew Frankman, Clarke Gilmore, Arthur Gustafson, Albert Kohnke, John Medema, Harry Parsons, Raymond Richert, and Martin Schueman.

Lions Install

Members of Wood Dale Lions club spent an enjoyable evening at the White House in Schiller Park on the occasion of the annual dinner and installation of officers which was held June 9. Larry Hansen, district officer, presented the following new officials: president, Paul Stoeck; first vice president, Russell Phillips; second vice president, Charles Gurke, third vice president, Richard Barton; secretary, Edward Osburn; and treasurer, John Rahe. Dancing followed the dinner. The newly organized building committee headed by Richadr Barton is very busy completing plans for the erection of a home which the Lions club will build and sell. The proceeds will be used to further the youth program which the Lions sponsor.

Scout Paper Drive

Boy scouts will be picking up papers, magazines, and rags Saturday and Sunday, June 16 and 17, at 1 p.m. Please put your papers at the road. If you have a large quantity of papers, please place a note on top of one bundle and the boys will come in and get the rest. The Wood Dale boundaries are Route 83 to Dalewood, and Devon ave. to Grand ave.

Explorers Tom Brockman, Tom Langfeld, Don Malcolm, Robert Malcolm, John Rizzo, and Joseph Siksnus of Crew 65 attended the explorer-ama at Camp O Da-Ko-Ta, Dyer Lake, Wis., last weekend.

Honor Bride-To-Be

Miss Kay Mowers was the honored guest at a recent surprise shower given by her aunt, Mrs. W. Hempel of North Austin blvd. in Chicago. About 50 relatives and friends were served from the decorated green and white buffet tables, and Kay received many gifts for the new home she will occupy on Mason st. in Bensenville after her marriage to Robert Standard in July.

DeKalb Graduate

Pat Miller was a member of the graduating class at Northern Illinois State Teachers college at De Kalb last week. He received his BS degree in education.

Tonight, Father - son banquet, Community church.

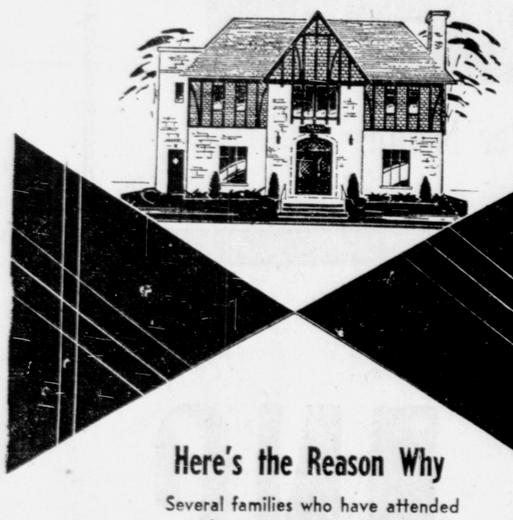
Friday, Doughnut day.

Saturday, Pack 30 Wild West show.

Thursday, WSWS meeting.

Conning The Collector

The collection department of a finance company tried a new method on a slow paying account. "Dear Mrs. Jones", the letter began, "What would all your neighbors think if we came to your town and repossessed your car?" In time the letter came back with a message scrawled at the bottom. "I have taken this matter up with my neighbors," it said "and they think it would be a lousy trick'



Here's the Reason Why

Several families who have attended one of our services for the first time have expressed surprise at the relatively low cost of a Geils funeral service. The answer is simple: We serve so many families that we can provide our excellent facilities and equipment at a lower unit cost.

Wood Dale Legion

Attention all you young fellows ages 14 to 18 years old who want to play baseball with American Legion Wood Dale post 1128 this summer. We need you so please contact Comrade Tom Morong at Bens. 1735-R. We also need coaches and adult supervision; you do not have to be a member of our post.

This baseball program is very vital to us and also our community, so please come out and help these boys to win. A summer schedule will be posted in depot and also in the stores. The summer baseball schedule opens June 19.

We would at this time like to thank all those who took part in our Memorial day service. A special thanks to the following: Rev. Wagner, Rev. Herman Cook, Mayor H Gilbert, assistant police chief F. Salandra, J. Ortman of the Lions also boy scouts troops 60 and 65, gir scuts, brownies and cub scouts. We are planning a big program next year, so watch for details later.

A warm welcome is extended to Comrade Bob Penner who has joined our post, and is at present coaching our baseball team. Bob comes to us with excellent baseball experience. Good luck Bob.

New Village In Elk Grove? Vote July 10

County Judge Kerner has approved a petition presented by Attorney Frank Opeka calling for a special election on the formation of Elk Grove village.

It will be held July 10 with the polling place in Elk Grove town hall.

THE PROPOSED village comprises about 700 acres and extends approximately from Arlington Heights road to Tonne rd. and from Higgins road to Devon ave.

A similar action by a group of farmers in Schaumburg township recently resulted in the formation of village of Schaumburg Center.

Spoil Sport

It took Magellan's expedition 3 years to circle the globe, from 1522. Magellan died before the trip was completed.

Say Nuptial Vows In Double Ring Ceremony

Miss Georgann Hoskinson, Wood Dale, chose the traditional white dress and long train for her marriage last Saturday afternoon to Henry Kania, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kania, Itasca. Her silk taffeta dress was accented with lace and pearls around the shoulders and down the front.

The double ring ceremony was performed at the Church of the Holy Ghost, Wood Dale, by Rev. William Koch. The altar was decorated with mixed bouquets. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, John Ortman.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Roy Dennison, Rolling Meadows, wore an aqua crystalette dress and carried pink carnations. Nancy Kania, sister of the groom, and Dolores Salberg, Bensenville, were bridesmaids. They wore similar dresses, one in orchid and the other in pink, and both carried pink carnations.

Sharon Hoskinson was flower girl for her sister. Her long aqua dress was accented by pink carnations in her hair and she carried a tiny bouquet of the same flowers.

Michael Ortman, coursin of the bride, was ring bearer. Roy Dennison was best man and ushers were Ray Adams, Wood Dale, and Gene Walker, Chicag.

Mrs. Wilma Paige, mother of the bride, was gowned in a blue sheath dress with white accessories. Mrs. Kania's dress was aqua lace and she also had white accessories. Both mothers had white orchids.

After a reception at the Wood Dale firehuse the couple left for Niagara Falls. Upon their return they will live at 800 Hoyle road Lombard. Out of town guests came from Nebraska and Missouri and included Mrs. Delia Thomas, the bride's grandmother, of Stockton, Cal.

Roselle Book Review-Luncheon Next Thursday

Some 70-odd people will hear about "Forty Odd" when Roselle Friends of the Library present their newest community project, a book review-luncheon Thursday, June 21. The event will be held at Louis' restaurant in Addison at 12:30 p.m.

According to Mrs. Carroll Hoshour, program chairman, and her committee, Mrs. Walter Larsen and Mrs. Fred Winkler, the ticket supply, limited because of space facilities, is almost exhausted.

COME PREPARED to "eat, drink, and be merry" as Mrs. Laurene Hoppe, professional book reviewer from Chicago, lets you in on some "far-side-of-forty" experiences.

"Forty Odd" by Mary Bard, Roselle Public library.

Friends Of The Library Sponsor Roselle Story Hour

The first story hour of the summer was held at Roselle library yesterday orning. Children heard several stories including the first chapter of Kasperle's Adventures. Kasperle is a mischievious puppet who has a series of prankish adventures.

Stories will be told every Wednesday from 10 to 11 a. m. through August 1. All children are welcome to come and share in the fun.

Story tellers include Mrs. Robert Flum, Mrs. Warren Burres, Miss Carmella Phelan, Mrs. Herbert Miller, Mrs. Grace Primdahl and Mrs. William Michel.

author of "The Doctor Wears Three Faces," describes the writer's hilarious efforts to avert the supposed by inevitable consequences of the 40-year threshold. After a year of exhausting experiments with brownie girl scouts, new clothes, social whirls, athletics, reducing, hormones, lectures, board meetings and a great books course, she puts on the brakes and succumbs gracefully and humorously to the idea expressed in her dedication —"For Mother, who thinks of age as a number and not as a disease."

Seek More Aid For Girl Scout Day Camp

Mrs. Jerry Jensen, Roselle, director of the north DuPage day camp which will be conducted June 25-29 and July 9-13 for local brownies, intermediate and senior girl scouts at Salt creek forest preserve, said this week that more help from adults would still be appreciated in each group for the camp.

Ladies interested are directed to contact their neighborhood chairman or any north DuPage girl scout leader. The camp leaders are interested in anyone who can donate another hour or two or can provide transportation, says Mrs. Jensen. Mothers of tots are advised a nursery will be maintained at the camp site.

Roselle Girl Scout News

Girl scouts and leaders are heading for the out of doors. They are glad when school is out so they can spend more time in the woods on cook outs, hikes and over nights. Some find that just plain relaxing in the leader's back yard is much to their liking.

Mrs. Hammerand's girls made tin can stoves and then used them to make their own hamburgers on the cook out in her back yard. When it started to sprinkle Mrs. Hammerand suggested they go to the house, but the girls refused to let a few drops of rain dampen their spirits. After waiting a few minutes the sprinkle stopped and the cook out continued out doors.

I would like to add also, this is the troop that did baby sitting at each PTA meeting. They deserve a big thank you for the services they performed for so many months.

Troop 98 went on a picnic at Bloomingdale woods last week. A nice time was ha dby all. After the picnic they played games in their leader's yard.

Troop 239 Jean Witte reporting. Our cook out is Saturday at 11 sharp. We have made yellow sit upons to take along. They are trimmed with green and orchid yarn. We are busy now making miniature first aid kits.

The cook out will be our last meeting for a while. With our leader helping at Vacation Bible school and most of us girls going to day camp, we will take time off from regular meetings. We will probably have a few meetings latr on in the summer.

Day Camp

Will the girls going to day camp please make sure you ride in the same car each day. This is to avoid confusion. We cannot stress too strongly that you ride home with the same driver that takes you.

Will you day camp mothers who are drivin please notify those you are to drive well in advance of June 25 letting them know the time you will pick them up.

Some leaders still need drivers. This is only for one week. If you will have the car the week of the 25th won't you please drive? Just call any leader and offer your services.

Help Needed

If there is to be a second grade troop in September we will need more volunteers. There has to be a leader, assistant and 3 committee members. Until we get enough volunteers we will have no second grade troop.

We also have a waiting list for those going into the third grade in September. The waiting list is growing. Until we have some volunteers who are willing to spend about one hour a week in helping girls in scouting our list will grow and grow and grow. Please call Mrs. Nelson at La. 9-5961 or Mrs. Prichard at LA. 9-6531.

Mrs. Wm. C. Pauling LAwrence 9-4481

About Itasca People

Picnic—Court Of Honor

A combined court of honor and picnic will be held by scout troop 56 and explorer post 56 at Salt Creek forest preserve Saturday. Preceding the court of honor softball games will be played beginning at 5 p.m. The picnic supper will be held between 6 and 7 p.m. Following this group games will be held from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Friends of scouting are welcome to attend both the picnic and the court of honor. All who plan to attend the picnic are asked to bring their own ofod. Troop 56 will provide soft drinks; the court of honor will begin at 8:30 p.m. Scouts should be present in full uniform. In case of rain activities will be transferred to Itasca public grade school.

Itasca Pirates' Pony league won their first game against Roselle with a score of 8-3. Don Camphausen pitched this game and Steven Whipple acted as catcher. William Siegbahn Jr. hit a triple and David Tinker also made a 3 base hit with bases loaded. Itasca Pirates play today in Bensenville against Bensenville Cubs. They will play again Monday in Wood Dale against Wood Dale Blues and Wednesday in Roselle against Roselle Reds.

The Colts will play their opening game in Glen Ellyn at 3 p.m. Saturday. This team also has a game scheduled against Elmhurst. They will play in Itasca at 3 p.m. The 23rd they will play in Villa Park and the 24th Glen Ellyn will play in Itasca. The Colts have now decided upon the Itasca Indians as their official team name. They have new uniforms. This team includes 15 and 16 year old boys. Don Oberg supervises Pony league and Andy Sopko is in charge of the Colts. Jim Cogland has been assisting Andy Sopko by coaching the Colts. His telephone number is Itasca 925-R. Ed Meyers has been working with Colt leaguers over a month on the baseball field. They have worked hard cleaning and repairing. Explorer scouts sell cold pop at the ball games as a money earning project. Mrs. E. C. DeVore and Mrs. Robert Werle freeze the water and provide ice to keep refreshments cold.

Engagement

Miss Harriet Bliss will be married to John Rathbun August 1. The wedding will take place in Natchez, Wash., at the Natchez Presbyterian church and the couple then plan to live in Chattaroy, Wash. Miss Elizabeth Bliss, her sister, will attend the wedding.

Daniel Driggett is one of a quartette from North Central college, Naperville, which has begun a 2½ month tour to sing at Evangelical United Brethren churches. Other young men in the quartette are John Ramaker of Minnesota, Marvin Johnson of Canada and Galen Luebke of Wisconsin. The group will sing in churches in Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Canada, Michigan, Ohio and Indiana. They also gave various secular pieces at the dedication of Bethany church Sunday.

The Keith Pipers, 456 S. Oak, spent the weekend in Centralia where they visited a sister and her family. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Teed Sr., Arlington Heights rd., traveled to Quincy over the weekend to visit Mr. Teed's stepfather, Vic Jirack who resides at the Old Soldiers and Sailors home.

Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Rheinhold Heinrich and children, Kathy and Bob, Lawrence rd., attended the wedding of their son, Howard, June 10. Helen Ruth Welzenbach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Welzenbach, George, Iowa and Howard Heinrich were married in Luverne, Minn., at the First Presbyterian church by Rev. Rheinhold Heinrich, a brother of Howards. Helen and Howard will visit their parents in Itasca this week end.

Annette Robinson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Paul F. Robinson, 123 W. Center, is one of about 35 members of the Wheaton academy choir who will go on a concert tour. They will fly today to Great Britain. One of their first engagements will be at the Royal Festival hall. They will later go to the continent and plan to remain there from July 12 to July 28. The choir will visit Holland, Germany and Switzerland. Duane Benjamin is the choir director. He, his wife and several other adults will accompany the young people.

The Women's Missionary league of the Evangelical Free church met June 2 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Gustafson. At this meeting Miss Sivia Swanson, a missionary of the Evangelical Free church, spoke. The women were especially pleased because although they have had the privilege of hearing several missionaries, Miss Swanson is the first one of their particular denomination and mission field to speak to them. Miss Swanson works in the bush territory of the Belgian Congo and teaches mainly girls and women. She told the women of having encountered a government official one day who expressed his interest and appreciation of her work, since women of this area are so backward that they need a great deal of help in learning better ways of living and it is believed that unless the women can be reached and trained very few valuable changes will be made in living conditions in that region. Miss Swanson has been in the Belgian Congo 5 years and at present is living with her parents in Palatine, but she plans to return to her mission work in July or August.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tonne and their daughter, Charmaine, attended the wedding last weekend of Mrs. Bertha Tonne and Harry Schneider at Lombard. The bride is a former Itascan.

New To Itasca

We wish to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reeves to Itasca. They are formerly of Bensenville. Chuck Reeves Sr. is secretary of north Du Page Pony league. His son, Chuck, was a member of Fenton high school's baseball team andhe played with Bensenville Pony league. Their telephone number is Itasca 757-R.

Donate Flowers

Itasca garden club wishes to advise that the day for sending flowers to the county hospital has been changed from Friday to Thursday starting this week. Please have your flower contributions at the railroad station by 9 a.m. Thursday hereafter. We could not take advantage of lilac day due to the cold weather which delayed blooming so, let's try to make up for it by sending as many flowers as possible for the balance of the season.

Graduates

Bruce N. Pusheck received his bachelor of science degree from the school of engineering at Colorado A. and M. college, Fort Collins, Colo., June 8. He has attended the college since his graduation from Glenbard high school although he received an appointment to West Point after his sophomore year. During his 4 years at Colorado he was chosen for membership in Chi Epsilon, civil engineering honorary, Kappa Kappa Psi, band honorary, and as trombone soloist when the Aggie band toured Colorado. He served as secretary of the campus Religious Education council, was member of Lambda Chi Alpha, the junior chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers, Drama club, and the Lambda Chi Alpha Chimers, a double quartet which sang at social and civic functions in Cheyenne, Fort Collins and Denver. The past 2 years Bruce has been a member of the Aggies' swimming team, which placed third this past season in the Rocky Mountain conference. Bruce is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon C. Pusheck of Itasca. He has two brothers, Ralph and Tom. Tom has just completed his first year at Westminster college in Feelton, Mo.

Happy Birthday

Happy birthday to Richard Carlson who will be 6 the 14th and Lynn Schuette who will be 8 the 21st. Andy Richter will be 3 June 19. He will be given a party by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Richter June 17. Grandparents, aunts and uncles have been invited. Children his own age will also attend.

Wedding

Miss Amanda Schuette, Itasca, and Wilfred C. Westland of Presque Isle, Wis., were married Saturday at 5 p.m. in the First Presbyterian church. Milton Schuette and Edna Bechtal were the only attendants.

Class Parties

John Dixon and Robert Ward were hosts to a party held in the Victor Dixon home, 421 Valley, for their eighth grade graduating class. Refreshments were served in the yard and the young people played games. Following this they were entertained with an Abbott and Costello movie. Mr. Scubel is the gym, science and shop instructor at Itasca public grade school.

Eighth graders also enjoyed a party given by Sharon Kredler. Sharon served hot dogs, potato salad, and the trimmings. Dancing provided entertainment. Young people who attended were: Lois Lake, Bill Siegbahn, Jack and Jerry Griffith, Bill Whitlock, Bruce Johnson, Starlette Dunklau, Liinda Stoneberg, Georgette Gaydos, Gale Gibson, Irene Ortez, Terry Sopko, Don Camphausen, Pat Schade, Phyllis Anzak, June Wetzstein, Marita Hauffman, Darlene Krueger, Fred Wolf, Robert Ward, Steven Whipple, John Dixon, Owen Rutherford, Sally Runge, and Kenny Burrell.

Itasca Explorers Win Honors In Olympic Contest

Sixteen Itasca explorer scouts and their leaders were awarded a gold and wood plaque for the participation in all events at the explorer scouts' olympics last week end at Camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta in Dyer, Wis. Advisor for the Itascans is Robert Werle.

THE MANY contests and events were open to all explorer scouts registered in posts, ships, squadrons and troops in the DuPage area and Kenosha county (Wis.) councils. Werle was assisted by W. H. Nottke, Bob Schimmel and John Clifford as the boys placed well in every event.

THE SCOUTS were Bob Nottke, Chuck Christiansen, Ken Beck, Phil Devore, Pete Jeziorski, Bob Werle Jr., Bill Bredehorn, Bob Schimmel, Tom Smith, Warren Mensch, Owen Rutherford, Terry Sopko, Tom Tatnall, Ken Burrell, Dave Devore and Harold Olsen.

Itasca Girl Scout News

Helen Smith is having all leaders and new leaders entering scouting in fall over to her home this Wednesday for an outdoor barbecue. Vern Meuhler and Shirley Clifford will demonstrate the use and care of our two new tents, which John Clifford was able to buy for our girl scouts at a reasonable price.

These are available for outdoor camping, and can be had by calling any of the above for use in backyard camping, a necessity before we do any troop camping with our girls.

Still waiting to hear of more girls registered for Camp Ranger. Just this week heard that Vicki Larsen is going the end of July, Ginger Bredehorn and Susan Sopko are the other 2. Will you call Itasca 130, Justine Sopko, and say when your daughter is going so that we'll know if our girls are going the same period.

Day Camp

June 25 to 29 is the date set for day camp. Louise Knowles, brownie director, has asked that we remind mothers who have volunteered to be sure to plan on this. If in doubt call Shirley Clifford, 451-J, or Justine Sopko who will give you details for Itasca group.

June 27, Wednesday, is the date set for final meeting of senior volunteers. Thuma Prichard of Roselle is in charge of this group, and if you would like to help with eighth grade or high school girls please get in touch with her or Itasca day camp chairman.

Intermediate group is still in need of workers, said Marie Koch and Dorothy Merriman, Intermediate directors. Unless we do get more volunteers the girls will not have the opportunity of camping out. This camp date is scheduled for July 9 to 13.

A flag ceremony preceded this event with flag bearers and color guards: Judith Clark, Susan Sopko, Beverly Rosenwinkel, Cathy Heinrich and Sharan Heinsoth, caller was: Penny Oberg.

A candle was lit as each one of the 10 girls came up and repeated one of the ten girl scout laws: Kathy Lueth, Paula Meese, Penny Cerling, Kathleen Krieger, Rose Witt, Linda Schimmel, Karen Vaughn, Michael Piaseki, Karen Droegemueller, Susan Clifford.

June Meyers, standing at the brownie end of the bridge called the following girls up, and pinned on their wings. As they crossed the bridge they were received by Marilyn Carstens who pinned on their girl scout pin, while all the proud fathers were taking movies.

Red Cardinals: Susan Sopko, Joyce Peterson, Karen Meyer, Gail Larsen, Kathleen Helpers, Delores Gaydoes, Carolyn Carstens, Judith Clark, Karen Boehne, Diane Wojtalik.

Blue Belles: Marily Rusche, Marilyn Gee, Gloria Spain, Sandra Imwie, Hollis Clayson, Donna Schwantz, Diane Buckel, Janette Gorke, Karen Olsen, Colleen Brogan.

The girls not taking part in the ceremony came up and presented corsages to their leaders. Brownies in the fourth grade group gave Mrs. Lillian Spain a corsage of 2 brown tinted carnations, one yellow one and and yellow tea roses. Leaders, June Meyers and Marilyn Carstens along with Evelyn Peterson received corsages of yellow carnations and yellow tea roses.

Colorful potted plants were presented troop committee mothers, Hilda Droegemueller, Lois Clayson, Gert Wojtalik and Justine Sopko, as well as fifth grade leaders, Dee Conder and Georgina Oberg, who will take over the troop next year when girls enter sixth grade, and Mrs. Burrell who assisted Dee Conder this year.

Fifth grade girls then received second class badge. One year merit star and world pin: Sharon Heinsoth, Judy Leth, Beverly Rosenwinkel, Ruth Von Bergen, Mary Lu Lundholm, Martha English, Dorothy Otterstedt, Martha Peifer, Carol Luschen, Jeanne Lunder Linda Burrell, Lynette Conder, Cathy Heinrich, Carol Larsen, Karen Toepper, Jarette Parker, Marilene Alexandria, Sue Wade, Penny Oberg, Sandra Rittaller, Bonnie Gaul, Darlene Fick, Peggy Peacock and Susie Anderson.

Mrs. Hilda Droegemueller was chairman of refreshments, assisted by Mesdames Parker, Gaul, Fick, Peifer, Von Bergen, Leth, Lundholm, Peacock, Sopko, Clayson, Wojtalik, Buckel They served coffee and cake: Mrs. Luschen donated 4 cases of pop. Movies of the brownie float in the Memorial day parade were shown by George Larsen.

Illinois Bell's new Mobile dial unit arrives at its site in Schaumburg Township

New dial telephone exchange on wheels to Serve The Schaumburg Area
Illinois' newest community

When a community springs up almost overnight as it has in Schaumburg Township— you can imagine that it presents quite a challenge to us in providing telephone service. It takes far less time to build new homes than it does to tailor-make the telephone equipment to serve them. But we are meeting this challenge with a first in Illinois Bell's history—and one of the firsts in the entire Bell System—a mobile dial exchange.

You may have seen this telephone exchange-on-wheels at its location on Golf Road, just east of Roselle Road. It's visible from the highway as you drive by and has complete facilities to serve about 800 telephones. This mobile unit will go into service on June 28 and will take care of the telephone needs of the first group of residents.

Later this year, another mobile dial exchange unit will be put into operation. The two should be able to provide telephone service for the people moving into this area. These units will continue in service until Schaumburg's permanent telephone system is completed, which probably will be sometime in 1957.

We think you'll agree that it is a mighty good example of the planning and ingenuity required to provide people with good telephone service, when and where they want it.

The Erling Blast family were guests at a party Sunday afternoon, June 3, in honor of niece, Robin Esvang, Chicago, who celebrated her birthday that day.

Home

Mary Johnson arrived home from Beloit college June 6. She made the trip with friends from Arlington Heights.

Rosemary Razim came home from Illinois State college June 7. Both girls have just completed their freshman year at college.

The Frank Kessler family enjoyed a cool but sunny Saturday morning at Brookfield zoo June 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Krause and family attended the wedding of a niece, Arlene Mazur, to Frank Svobodo in St. Casimir church, Chicago, June 2 at 11 a.m. and the reception in the Elk's club, Berwyn that evening. Veronica was a bridesmaid for her cousin. Joan Pfluger and Shirley Jordan were also guests.

Summer Sessions

The 4 and 5-year olds residing on the oval formed by Lincoln and Martha sts. tripped gaily up the hill June 5 for the first of a series of summer school sessions conducted by Mrs. Ed Ostrowski in her home. Before her marriage, Mrs. Ostrowski taught kindergarten classes in Chicago schools, and she is well qualified to prepare the young folks to enter first grade in their respective public and parochial schools.

Registered to enter school this fall are Sandra Depalma, Guy Horbus, Cheryl Kim, Margie Moder and Ellen Ostrowski. The remainder of the group, Lee Blast, Gary Kessler, Steve Ostrowski and Kenny Wuestenfeld, won't reach their sixth birthdays in time for school this fall, however, they are much interested in the preparatory work and are enjoying the opportunity to work and play with the class. Present plans are for the group to meet Tuesday and Thursday mornings for 2 hours.

Judy Kessler and Richard Glass were graduated from eighth grade at Elk Grove Consolidated school, district 59, the evening of June 6. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kessler and Mr. and Mrs. H. Glass, were there. Mr. Kessler, as president of the board, presented the diplomas to the 30 graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kappa, Susan Kappa and Susan Horbus attended the Arlington Heights high school graduation June 7. Mrs. Kappa, Mrs. George Horbus and the 2 Susans were also guests at the eighth grade graduation in Elk Grove school June 6.

Home

IC3/C Perry K. Mayhew, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Mayhew, Martha st., arrived home Wednesday evening, June 6, after having served 4 years in the navy. He was discharged May 31 at Long Beach, Cal., and visited friends en route home. Most of his 4 years of service were spent on a destroyer on duty in the Pacific. A friend, Roger Gaunt, Peru, Ind., has been visiting with the Mayhews for a few days and the 2 young men left Sunday morning for a short visit in Lafayette, Ind.

Thursday evening Don Schroeder graduated from Arlington Heights high school. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schroeder, and brother, Jim, attended the ceremony. Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder entertained 30 guests at a graduation party. Guests came from Chicago, Des Plaines and Franklin Park. Don played the accordion, Jim the guitar, Frank Fields of Des Plaines played the drums. Jimmy Zarnow of Chicago played the string guitar and there was dancing and games on the lawn. Mrs. Schroeder served buffet supper of barbecue beef, pastry and cakes.

Announce Major Change In Air Force Training

Sergeant Walter Mohnsen of the air force recruiting station, 620 Lee st., Des Plaines, announced this week that a major change has been made in the air force basic military training program.

The new change applies to men entering the air force for the first time and who are qualified for AF technical training schools.

AIRMEN scheduled to attend technical courses of 14 weeks duration and longer will be withdrawn from the basic training program after 4 weeks.

This accelerated program is designed to place airmen into technical schools in the shortest possible interval, to realize greater economy, and to achieve the 137-wing goal the air force has set for itself. (B7

Graduation Party

Last Thursday the eighth grade had a graduation party in the school auditorium. Those present were the eighth graders, teachers, Mr. Rabbattini, Mrs. Grosche, Mr. and Mrs. H. Coston and Mr. and Mrs. R. Turner, and the seventh grade mothers serving. Mrs. Coston is the eighth grade home room teacher. The class chose "An Evening in Paris" as the theme for the party. Tables were set in a semi-circle facing the stage with a candle on each table, which served as the sole lighting. Dancers gathered in the center. During the party the class presented Mrs. Coston with a gift, an electric fry pan. The party lasted from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m., when it broke up with the arrival of parents and the fond farewells by the class of '56.

The Elk Grove school picnic was held Sunday in the extreme south portion of Elk Grove forest preserve. After lunch, refreshments and recreation were enjoyed by children and adults alike. The children's races, pre-school to eighth grade, were held early in the afternoon and prizes were given to the winners.

A baseball game was played between the men and older boys. The men won by a score of 8 to 6.

June 4 the boys' baseball team at Elk Grove had a game with the Highwood team. The game was held at Highwood and Elk Grove won, 5-4. It was an exciting game.

What Elk Grove Teachers Will Be Doing This Summer

Mrs. Gebbie, first grade teacher, will go on a trip and tour of California during August.

June 11 Mrs. Klingler, third grade teacher, will receive a bachelor of science degree in education from the college which she attended Saturdays during the last year. She is very proud to have this degree. Mrs. Klingler will also take a motor trip in July to the Rockefeller lodge in the Tetons in Wyoming. Accompanying her will be Mrs. Muriel Scott, secretary of Mt. Prospect schools. From there they will visit Yellowstone National park, Glacier park and others.

Mrs. Runo, the other third grade teacher, will go to Detroit for a couple of weeks and then settle down at home.

The fourth grade teacher, Mrs. Allison, will take a trip with her family in August, otherwise she will be at home.

Mrs. Spath will attend the centennial at DeKalb after school is out. She may take graduate work at De Kalb and later will visit the Ozarks.

Fifth grade teacher, Edward Breskey, will work during the summer in the Skokie post office.

Mrs. Gregersen, the 6-1 home room teacher and mathematics instructor, will leave to live in Los Angeles, where she will teach.

Mrs. Grosche, 6-2 home room teacher, home economics teacher for girls and health teacher for boys, will teach Bible school for 2 weeks after school is out. She will attend the Red Cross camp, which she was invited to as a representative, and later she will visit northern Michigan.

Both Rodney Turner and Anthony Rabbattini, 7-1 and 7-2 home room teachers and science and social science teacher for Junior High, will work at store construction work during the summer.

Mrs. Coston, eighth grade home room teacher and language arts teacher, will take a short trip to Pennsylvania, where her folks live, and then she will go to summer school at Northwestern university.

Mr. Case, music teacher, will settle down at home, since he and his family went to Texas during Easter vacation.

Personals

Mike Nunamaker had a birthday June 6 and Charles Lemke had one June 8. Johnny Widzisz had his ninth birthday June 10 and Frank Difour was 12 June 11.

Linda Steffes was absent from school the last 2 weeks because of measles.

The Brown family, which includes Curtis and Marilyn, moved to Indianapolis June 10.

Arlington Heights high school graduates from Elk Grove school district included Lois VonBergen, Don Schroeder, Ronnie Schultz, Ken Cosman, Betty Hasse, Richard Cook, Barbara and Marlyn Peterson, Wayne Oehlerking, Hans Kozel, Lynn Landmeier and Erwin Panzer.

Wednesday, June 20, the cub scouts will have a father and son ball game at the park at 6:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Janek and son of Meadowdale and Mrs. Dorothy McGlynn and Bonnie of Bensenville were guests of the Robert McGlynns Sunday.

June 14 at 4:45 p. m. a flag day parade will be held starting from the field house. Those asked to take part in same are the Lions club, volunteer firemen, Explorer scouts, boy scouts, cub scouts, brownies, 4-H and any others who care to march. The retiring ceremony will be held in front of the Bartlett State bank. Treats for the scouts will be given by scout mothers, and the brownies by their troop leader, following the parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Eells of Herrick house announce the marriage of their daughter, Barbara Jane, to Stephen Gage Tellman, son of Colonel and Mrs. H. H. Tellman of MacClellan, Calif. Barbara is a graduate of Elgin high school and has been studying at Reed college, Portland, Ore. The wedding took place June 10 in the Reed college chapel and was performed by the bride's father, Rev. Edwin Eells. The couple will live in Portland.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Newman of N. Hickory st. wish to thank their neighbors and friends for their kindness during their recent bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kolzow and children of Detroit were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holtz Saturday.

Pleasant Hills

Eileen Hughes invited several neighbors in last Tuesday to meet her next-door neighbor, Joan Lynch, who moved a week ago into their new home. Guests included Laura Blik, Hattie Schoenborn, Dolores Dupre, Madeline Stephanik and Betty Berger.

Don Ray Schoenborn was a member of the St. Theresa school graduating class receiving their diplomas June 3. After the graduation service, the Schoenborns held open house for 37 members of the family and friends, who enjoyed a buffet supper.

Newcomers to the subdivision are the Eugene H. Hills, who are at home at 305 Pleasant Hill boulevard. Their children are 9-year-old Susan and 8-year-old Sally, who are both scheduled to attend the new Pleasant Hills school this coming school year. The Hills lived previously in Aurora and came to Palatine because Mr. Hill, who is employed by Public Service company, was transferred to Northbrook. Eugene Hill enjoys playing golf and garden work as his hobbies. Mrs. Hill likes to play bridge and care for her home and family. They have been attending St. Paul church here in Palatine. The entire family likes living in Palatine very much, and they are enjoying their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Sitzes, 3-year-old Randy and 17-month-old Steven are settled in their home at 270 Cheryl lane. The family lived previously in Clarendon Hills and have also lived in Kansas City, but are originally from Charleston, Missouri. Robert Sitzes is associated with Slick airline at O'Hare field. In his spare time he enjoys playing gilf and Mrs. Sitzes is a bridge enthusiast. They are both quite busy at present with home and family, and feel they are going to like living in Palatine.

The Edwin Tarnows and their young daughter, Jill, moved into their home at 276 Cheryl lane April 16. They lived previously on Chicago's nortside. Edwin Tarnow is employed by the Illinois Bell Telephone company, and they have several friends in Palatine and this area who are his co-workers. The Tarnow hobbies include the work which they do in their workshop refinishing furniture. They also enjoy dancing and all sports. They are enthusiastic about their new location and are very happy in their new home.

The Howard I. Olsen family moved into their 547 S. Cedar home April 8. The family has lived in Palatine for 8 years and needs no introduction to its residents since Howard Olsen is the "mayor of the town" and has been very active in civic affairs for some time. The family includes 4 children, Brian, 14, who has just been graduated from grade school and who will enter high school this fall, Barbara, 9, Bradley 7, and Beverley, 5. The Olsens are enjoying their new home and location and are looking forward to the opening of the swimming pool, where they spend a great deal of their time.

Wedding Anniversary

The Raymond Hughes celebrated their wedding anniversary Thursday evening with dinner at the Villad 'Este in Cary.

Party For Graduate

Miss Carol Anne Hedrich was the center of attraction in her blue formal last Saturday evening when her parents entertained 60 guests at dinner. The occasion was in celebration of her graduation from Elgin high school, which occurred Friday evening. Many friends from out of town as well as local attended the affair, which was held in Keeneyville school. Music was supplied by recordings, alternately with numbers played by Carol on the accordion. Kenny Young, Joanne Laird and Robert Ciccione accompanied her on the trumpet, electric guitar and drums, respectively.

Resident Dies

Sympathy of the community is extended Theodore Corwin and his family. Mrs. Corwin, who had been ill for several years, suffered an attack during the night Monday and was rushed to Sherman hospital where her death occurred. Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. from Richert and Son chapel with the Rev. A. G. Kautz officiating. Burial will be in Elm Lawn cemetery, Elmhurst. The Corwins purchased the Burghgraef home on N. Garden ave. last year.

Hold Services

Frank "Gramps" Meyer and his family attended the funeral of his mother last Saturday. Mrs. Bertha Lammers died suddenly last Thursday in Du Page county convalescent home in Winfield. Services were held in Robillard's chapel in Elmhurst, the Rev. L. Y. Seibert officiating. Burial was in Woodlawn cemetery in Forest Park. Besides her son, Frank, and relatives of her deceased son, Joseph, who reside in Oklahoma, Mrs. Lammers left 2 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren and 8 great, great grandchildren to mourn her. She would have been 90 years old in October.

Girls Elect Officers

The Goldenrod's 4-H club met in the home of Mrs. Howard Ehorn June 6. The group held election of officers as follows: Janet Scrysak, president; Heidi Baumgarten, vice president; Kathy Ehorn, secretary; Carol Scrysak, treasurer. Pat McLaughlin was appointed program chairman, Joanne Sheid, reporter, and Margaret Glosso, scrapbook keeper. The girls made salads, cake and cookies, which they enjoyed eating afterwards. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, June 27, at 7 p.m.

Mrs. L. M. Weiss and son, Cary, enjoyed a visit of several days in Berlin, Wis., with Mrs. Weiss's parents.

Those interested in becoming part of the new high school band, including seventh and eighth grade students, should contact Mr. Forrester's office in Roselle for information. Lessons are scheduled to begin June 18.

Plan Celebration

The Krauses are planning a family birthday celebration for Miss Janice Schafernak of Lombard Thursday evening of this week. Janice is the fiancee of Michael Paul Krause, who became engaged last October.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Al Kleist, who celebrated their second wedding anniversary June 12. Mrs. Kleist is the former Ida Jean Rust, sister of Mrs. Ray Krause and a former local resident.

Joey Miller arrived home Thursday from Bowling Green university in Ohio, having completed his third year.

Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Miller and sons, Glenn and Leonard, accompanied by Fr. Pat Durkin, a nephew, and Miss Ella Moseman and Mrs. Mae Jones of Elgin, attended the graduation ceremonies of De Paul university at the Civic opera house, Chicago, June 6, when Eugene Miller received his degree from the college of law. Afterwards a dinner was served in honor of the occasion at the Miller home on Keeny rd. Miss Moseman and Mrs. Jones were nurses, who cared for "Gene" several years ago when he was a polio patient in Sherman hospital, Elgin. The community wishes to extend heartiest of best wishes for success to "Gene" in his career and congratulates him on this great achievement.

A welcome is extended Mr. and Mrs. Ed Prager and their 2 children, who are newcomers to the community. They occupy the former John Rench home on Virginia rd.

Also home for the summer vacation is Leonard Miller from Northwest Missouri State university.

Mrs. H. F. Martin LA 9-5711

Hoffman Estates

Last Wednesday the Roselle volunteer fire department made a practice run here in Hoffman Estates. Timing was 6 minutes from Roselle to this community, 8 minutes for the first line to hook on and 10 minutes before the fire fighting equipment was ready for operation. Pressure was 75 pounds. In case of fire, the department suggested that, if possible, the house on fire should be closed up, in order to prevent drafts and winds from spreading the blaze, and suggested that a hand extinguisher in each home would be a great help in putting out small flames that would be confined to one area.

Birthday congratulations go to Jackie Reed, who was 6 years old June 4. On hand to celebrate were Buster and Betty Roggenbuck, Mike Arkus, Lorane and Wanda Lu Dick and Jackie's brothers, Jimmy and Pat Reed.

A happy birthday to Jimmie Fiske, who was 5 June 3.

Two birthdays in the Loeffel family this month are Maurice's, June 19, and Marsha's, Marsha will be 9 June 28.

Juanita Styczykowski had a demonstration of sportswear in her home last Thursday evening. Georgiana Winkelman of Palatine Presented the demonstration. Those in attendance were Blanche Barthell, Betty O'Grady, Marilyn Danz, Shirley Swerdlow, Annamae Whelton, Jean Moore, Nancy Ehrenberg, Eleanor Crook, Alice Griswold and Margaret Leway of Des Plaines, Janine Leway, of Akron, Ohio and Virginia Martin.

Meeting of the Baby Sitters club was held at Jane Fiske's this month. Plans for a community dance were discussed and several new members were there. New members of the club are Shirley Excell, Apricot lane, and Joanne Tyrrell, Jane Berger and Sybil Mann of Aspen st. Also there were Alice Griswold, Vivian Kelly, Norma Patel, Anne Jungwirth, Nancy Tauber, Marion Weatherwax, Marilyn Danz and Betty Goetsch.

Congratulations to Margaret St. Hilaire, who was the lucky winner of a Hi Fi, at the Roselle volunteer fire department carnival, held the first of the month. Marge said it was the first time in her life that he has ever won anything, and she was pleased and surprised with her new phonograph.

Visitors at Laura and Joseph Coulter's for several weeks was Mrs. J. R. Coulter Sr. of Monroe, La. Laura and the Coulters' daughter, Beth Ann, plan a visit to Laura's family, Mr. and Mrs. O. N. May of Brunswick, Mo. soon. Laura will be gone for about a week and Beth Ann plans to be with her grandparents until the end of July.

Congratulations go to Eleanore and Ted Crook, who celebrated their wedding anniversary June 6.

Moving into their new home on Ash rd. last week were Ed Degan, who is with F and S, and his family.

First to cut his new lawn here in Hoffman Estate was Ray Boughan, with Art Danz following close behind him. These green lawns are a welcome addition to a new community.

Guests of the Loeffel family for a week were Mary Jane and Frank O'Neill and their family. The O'Neills were here from St. Louis.

Honor Elk Grove Pastor For 43 Years Of Service

Members of St. John Lutheran church in Elk Grove will gather Sunday to pay tribute to their pastor, the Rev. Ferdinand L. Gehrs, retiring soon after 43 years at the church.

A special 3 p. m. service will climax a career in which Rev. Gehrs has ministered to 3 generations of Elk Grove families. The Rev. J. E. A. Mueller, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran church in Mt. Prospect and a lifelong friend, will preach the farewell service.

Afterwards, women of the church will serve a supper.

REV. GEHRS, who will retire in good health at the age of 75, said that he was stepping down as "53 years in the ministery is long enough." He and his wife and daughter Pauline will go to live with son Karl, a teacher in the Lutheran school at Lombard.

Fenton Trackmen Lead Spring Sports Revival With Good Finish

by G. A. McElroy

THE 1955-56 SCHOOL YEAR is ended and in the Northwest conference it was Glenbrook who dominated the athletic scene with 4 of the 5 varsity championships. Palatine's track title, their ninth in a row, was the only major championship the Glenbrook Spartans did not either win or share.

Glenbrook's varsity football team was out of the class of the rest of the league. The Spartans won 8 games in a row and increased their undefeated skein of wins to 20 over 2 seasons and part of a third.

Gene Jaskot of Wauconda made an end position on the Champaign News-Gazette all state team. Glenbrook got Al Colburn, Ralph Butz, Duane Harm, Bob Boyd, and Bob Bacon on the all league along with Lee Bathrick of Ela-Vernon, Bill Wood and Bill Moore of Grayslake, Jim Scully and Jerry Meyer of Antioch, and Gene Jaskot and Bob Pintozzi of Wauconda.

PALATINE HAD AN undefeated frosh-soph team following a non-conference 7-7 tie with Barrington. The Pirates should be heard from in the 1956 and 1957 seasons. Glenbrook and Ela-Vernon shared the basketball championship with 11-3 records. Bob Boyd with 334 points came within 10 of the league record set in 1952 by Bob Nolan of Wauconda. Al Bathrick of Ela-Vernon who averaged 22 points a game paced the Bears to a share of the title. Bathrick and Gene Jaskot of Wauconda were the most talented all roound performers in the league. Others on the all-league team were Phil Johnson of Fenton and Gale Peregrin of Grayslake.

Fenton's frosh-sophs dominated the junior circuit with 14 straight wins and the cage fortunes of the Bisons are definitely on the upgrade.

Wrestling is not a conference sport as only Palatine, Glenbrook, and Wauconda competed in interscholastic matches. The Pirates took both their league opponents handily, won their own 8 team holiday invitational tournament, finished second to Elgin in the state sectional tournament, and finished fifth in the state tournament with Leonard Rohde taking the heavyweight state championship and Jim McCreery and John Wehner winning fourth places.

IN SPRING SPORTS Palatine completely dominated conference track, outscoring their nearest opponent, Fenton, by 84½ to 42 in the league meet. It was Palatine's ninth varsity and sixth straight frosh-soph championship with no end in sight except the transfer of the Pirates to a different conference, likely in the fall of '57. Leonard Rohde and Carl Bondeson broke records in the shot and 880, respectively, with 50' ¼" and 2:02.5 to climax their fourth year of track competition.

Jim Eldridge, as a sophomore, set new records in the 440 on both varsity and frosh-soph levels at :52 flat.

Glenbrook won the golf championship in spite of Palatine's Fred Breitling and Noel Anderson tying for medal honors. It broke a 6 straight record held by Palatine with the winning Spartan team made up of 2 sophs and 2 juniors. Fred Breitling was the only Northwest player to qualify to play in the state tournament.

IN BASEBALL Glenbrook came in for another tie as in basketball with an 11-3 record to match Grayslake who was taking their third in a row either outright or shared. Outstanding baseball players for the season in the opinion of the writer of this column were Jerry Sadek, Bob Boyd, and Bill Lutz of Glenbrook, the Grayslake battery of Gale Peregrin and Denny Hunziker, Palatine's pitcher Bob Hamilton, Fenton's Terry Biefeld and Floyd Busse, Gene Jaskot of Wauconda who could play well at any position, Frank Walsh of Antioch, and Tom Bossow of Grant.

For the year the honor roll of individuals would include some great all round performers. Gene Jaskot of Wauconda was all conference in 3 sports for the second straight year as was Bob Boyd of Glenbrook.

Jaskot played end, forward, and either pitch or first base. Boyd played halfback, guard, and shortstop and led the league in scoring two years in a row in both football and basketball. Gale Peregrin made all conference second team in football as a halfback and quarterback, the all-league basketball team as a forward, and was the player in baseball we regard as most likely to go far in organized baseball. You cannot leave out the outstanding senior athletes of the year Palatine's Len Rohde who won the heavyweight state westling championship with an undefeated season and set a new shot record both in the conference and at the Palatine Relays.

Bison Thinclads Improved In Many Events

by BIL LRIPPERGER

Fenton varsity track men did better during this past season than any other group of thinclads Bensenville has had for 5 years.

For the first time in some years Fenton entered indoor competition at the Naperville Relays, held annually in the North Central college fieldhouse. Only one Bison, Dick Driggett, was able to score in this meet. Dick placed third in the broad jump with a leap of 20' 11". In the only other indoor meet of the year, the Oak Park Relays, Fenton was not able to score.

THE BEGINNING of the outdoor season found Fenton engaging Leyden. Leyden captured 8 firsts in the meet and whipped the Bisons, 73-40. Fenton took second over Glenbrook and Grant, but were beaten by Grayslake in a 4 team meet at Glenbrook. Bob Gullborg won both the 100 and the 220, while Rich D'Hooge took firsts in both the high and the low hurdles.

The Bisons won their first home meet when they rolled over Wauconda and Grant, 71½ points to Wauconda's 40½ and Grant's 38.

IN PALATINE RELAYS, Fenton took sixth place. Tom Philiben won second place in the high jump and Bill Ripperger took a fifth in the mile for the Bisons' individual performers. Fenton's high and low hurdle relay teams both took fifth places.

In another meet on the B.C.H.S. track, Fenton pounded the Elmwood Park runners, 90-27. The Bisons took all but one first place in that meet.

In a practice meet against the Proviso sophomore cinder men on the Maywood track, Fenton came out second best, 61-43. This meet showed the Bisons lacked good quarter-milers and weight men. No one qualified in the state district meet from Fenton. However, Bison runners did turn in some marks that approached Northwest Conference records.

SEEMINGLY having the habit of placing second in the larger meets, Fenton again copped second in the Glenbrook invitational. Fenton firsts in this meet were taken by Dick Driggett in the broad jump and Bob Gullborg in the 100 yard dash.

Fenton showed up a solid second in the Northwest conference varsity meet. Palatine won the affair with over 80 points and the Bisons tallied 42. Third was Glenbrook with 26¼ points. Wauconda, Grayslake, Grant, Ela-Vernon and Antioch followed in that order.

FIRST PLACE winners for the Bisons in the conference were Bob Gullborg in the 220 yard dash, Rich D'Hooge in the 180 low hurdles, and Dick Driggett in the broad jump. Fenton's 880 yard relay squad placed first and tied the existing record of 1:36.5. In the mile medley relay the Bisons broke the previous record, but placed second to Palatine who smashed the mark by more than ten seconds. Bill Ripperger, Fenton half-miler, broke the old record in the 880 yard run, but Bondeson, of Palatine edged him out for first place honors.

Tom Philiben placed in the high jump and the broad jump and Jay Stoner placed fifth in the low hurdles. Glen Dierking and Remo Monfeli tied for fourth in the pole vault, rounding out Fenton's scoring.

THROUGHOUT the year Coach Swierczewski used many sophomores on the varsity squad. These sophs turned in some fine performances, indicating that they will make up a top-notch squad in future years.

Dennis Harvey was the workhorse for the sophs this season. Dennis almost invariably placed in the 100, 220, and 440 and at times he won points high jumping. In varsity meets he ran the 440 as a part of the mile medley relay team. In the Northwest meet he was timed in :53, a fine quarter mile for a sophomore.

Other sophs who added much to Fenton's fine season were Kirk Miller, a distance man who placed sixth in the varsity mile in the conference, Remo Monfeli, a pole vaulter who placed in the conference, Craig Hull, Dick Wilkey, John Egly, a weight man who was out because of an injury halfway through the season, Chuck Christiansen, Howard Hall, and Bill Powers, and Bernie Sell.

SENIORS on Fenton's squad this year were Bob Gullborg, Jay Stoner, Rich D'Hooge, Tom Philiben, Dick Driggett, Bill Ripperger, Mike Erspamer, and Dick Stafford. Juniors on the squad were Tom Tirado, and Glen Dierking.

Next year Swierczewski will coach wrestling and Coach Paul Henry will take charge of track. Coach Henry should have a fine group of men to work with next year because of all the sophomores which will return. One thing Fenton needs, though, is to stimulate interest in track. In most previous years, the Bisons have had enough standout individuals, but lacked those men necessary to take the second and third places. This lack of depth hurt them many times.

PALATINE'S BASEBALL TEAM finished third in the Northwest Conference with a 7-7 record in the season just completed. Glenbrook and Grayslake tied for the championship. Palatine split with Glenbrook winning 6-1 and losing 5-2 and lost to Grayslake 2-0 and 2-1. Bob Hamilton pitched all but one of Palatine's games and was leading hitter with a .320 average.

Fenton Soph 9 Finished Fast For .500 Season

by MAX ZOLLNER

Fenton's frosh-soph finished the season fast copping 5 of their last 6 games. With these victories the squad posted a 6 won, 6 loss and 1 tie record.

The Bisons were cold during the early season games losing to Glenbrook 11-1, Palatine 11-4 and Grayslake 9-5. The Bisons bounced back however, by crushing the Wauconda Bulldogs 11-5.

Fenton's junior Bisons then lost two close games to Ela and Glenbrook by scores of 7-4 and 7-6.

IN THE SECOND round of play the Bisons perked up and beat Palatine 10-6, tied Grayslake in 10 innings 5-5 and trounced Grant 5-1. Continuing their red hot streak the Fenton team walloped Wauconda 16-3 and defeate Antioch 6-4. Near the end of the season Grant edged the Bisons out 5-4 but the Fenton nine came right back and snuck past Ela 7-6.

The squad by its efforts and its record indicates that Fenton will be a baseball threat in the coming years.

Myrtlewood Is First Stakes Event Here

The second leg of Chicago's own "Triple Crown" of racing begins Monday when "Showplace" Arlington Park ushers in its 30th annual meeting of America's finest summer racing.

Highlighting Monday's opener which touches off a 36-day stand will be the 16th running of the $15,000 added Myrtlewood Handicap at 6 furlongs for 3-year-olds and up, one of 3 stakes punctuating Arlington's first week of sport.

Fifteen stakes, worth $605,000 in added money, are on Arlington's lucrative program designed by Executive Director Benjamin F. Lindheimer to lure champion and contender alike of all thoroughbred divisions.

TOP LEVEL and highly-competitive racing, long an integral part of the Arlington label, promises to reach new heights during the next 6 weeks. The exciting Balmoral stable colony, including Hasty House Farms; Walmac Farm; Jacnot Stable; Dixiana; E. Gay Drake; Claiborne Farm; Reverie Knoll Farm; William Hal Bishop, and Tennessee Wright, will be augmented by Calumet Farm — Fabius and company — Maine Chance Farm, and a division of Elmendorf runners.

Beautiful Arlington Park will accentuate fan comfort along with top-level sport. With seating capacity for over 30,000 fans, parking for 15,000 cars, escalators and free bus service to and from the stands, the fan will find nothing has been overlooked in making his day at the races a pleasant one.

Post time for the first race each weekday is 2 p.m. On Saturday and on the Fourth of July first post is 1:45 p.m.

Palatine Wins Over North Lake

Palatine's Legion-Lions junior baseball team opened the league season Sunday afternoon at home with a 5-3 victory over North Lake. The opposition which was made up largely of Leyden high school baseball players got only two hits off the slants of Paul Incaprero. The Palatine hurler struck out only four and walked 10 but was tough with men on bases. Palatine got five hits with with a pair of singles.

Palatine scored all five runs in the third frame on a base on balls, two errors, and hits by Bruce King and Paul Incaprero. North Lake scored in each of the first, fourth and eighth innings. Incaprero walked in two of the North Lake runs by issuing passes with the bags loaded.

Fenton 9 Climbed Into 1st Division

by MAX ZOLLNER

Evident in all of Fenton's sports this year has been a move from cellar positions to first division. this also holds true for baseball. The varsity squad chalked up 6 wins against 8 losses in conference play for a fourth spot in the Northwest conference.

Fenton's team was further honored by having three squad members named to the all conference team. They are first baseman Terry Biefield, pitcher Floyd Busse and centerfielder Bob Lang.

IN THE FIRST 3 pre-season games the Bisons, coached by Glen Van Droyen, copped a 2-1 victory from Elmwood Park and dropped the other two, one to York 11-5 and the other to Naperville 8-5.

Starting the conference loop the squad dropped three straight games to Glenbrook, Palatine and Grayslake before hitting their stride and romping over Wauconda 15-2. The following week the Ela Bears scored a 3-0 shutout against Fenton's varsity men. Playing see-saw baseball the team notched a win from Grant 5-1 and lost to Glenbrook 14-3.

THE KICK-OFF of ticket sales for the Chicago Cardinal pro football intrasquad game at Arlington Heights high school field Thursday night, August 9, was No. 1 for this foursome. Standing behind the football is the likable Bob Scott, assistant high school varsity grid coach who was on the Chicago Cardinals roster a year ago when he deserted pro ball for high school coaching.

Arlington Cardinals Booster club officials are ready to sell tickets to all comers. Holding ducats in hand are club publicitor Herb Carl and president Dick Black. Holding the football for Scott is ticket chairman Byron Sayre.
